

...very much, entered the the Western Continent, and the Destroyer Angel is stretching his arm over us Thus far, in Montreal and Quebec, the dis has assumed its direst form, and was ap approaching our own territory with un ful rapidity. A gentleman, who left Que on Tuesday morning (12th) has furnished Corier with the Quebec Gaz. of Monday 11th, by which it appears that fifty and forty-five deaths had occurred up at the evening of the 10th, and he reports Quebec amounted to eighty, and the de upwards of sixty. He described the di as exceeding in malignity, any previous counts of virulence either in Europe or A and all who were attacked were consid d hopeless.

From the Quebec Gazette of June 11. THE ASIATIC CHOLERA.

We announced the existence of the cholera at Grosse Isle on Friday. It is now in city. Its effects in our climate are like to be more severe than in Europe.
It becomes the duty of all to be vigilant repelling the ravages of this common de oyer. Cleanliness, temperance, regulari of habits, moderate eating and exercise, d exemption from all excess, are the best eventuates.
The greatest number of deaths are from amplin-street. Three or four deaths have curred in the upper town. Deaths have caused in from 5 to 6 hours.
Four o'clock, P. M.—The Board of Health we just made a report from which the fol lowing is an extract:
Board of Health, Quebec, June 11th, 1832.
It becomes the painful duty of the Board Health to announce the existence of the istic cholera in our city and neighbour d. This decision is founded, after ma deliberation, upon the unanimous opini of the medical gentlemen of the city.
Thirty-four deaths have occurred within last 48 hours.
The editor of the Gazette gives the follow ing cases, as having been reported: At the Emigrants' Hospital—39 cases, 26 aths, 3 convalescent.
At private dwellings—20 cases—15 deaths.
On board the steam boat in which Mr. Conr r informant, started for Montreal, 1 death curred before she left the wharf; four per sons were attacked soon after they got under way; one person died and was thrown over board, before reaching Sorrel, where the au thorities of Montreal stopped the boat, and ere cases had already broken out.
In addition to the foregoing, a gentleman rect from Montreal who arrived this morn g, informs us that there had been 15 cases and 7 deaths at that place; and that the dis e had broken out at St. John's and La rie.
The cholera at Quebec is not confined to igrants, but attacks citizens and strangers iscriminately.

INDIAN HOSTILITIES.

The Indian War is conducted by the Sage enemy with all the cruelties and barba ties that have ever marked their conflicts.
Order of old and the young, of the defence less infant and unoffending women, burn d devastation mark their course. Even de struction does not satisfy their rage. Man gins of the dead bodies, and the most atro cious and disgusting indignities followed the rk of death; 15 persons, men women and ldren, were surprised and murdered at a tlement on India Creek, a tributary of Fox er, on the 20th ult. Two young women re suffered to live, but were carried off to ian captivity.
A small party of seven or eight men, led Mr. St. Vrain, the agent for the Sacs and xes, in endeavouring to make their way to Head Quarters of the army, were sud ly attacked by a much superior number of ians. Two of the party were killed.— St. Vrain when last seen by those who aped was fleeing, pursued by ten or twelve ians; his fate is not yet known. His es e was barely possible, and it is feared that fell another victim to the unsparing rage the enemy.
Reports have reached the station of the ar tillery that several murders had been committed citizens of Vermillion county on the Wa h. To a requisition for men, that district vered that its inhabitants were required me to defend their property and friends.

MILITARY MOVEMENT.

Orders were received at Fortress Monroe, Saturday, from the War Department, re ring five Companies of Artillery to be de tached from that fort immediately to the de ence of the North Western frontier, against the hostile Indians. We understand these ops will embark on board the steam boat ambus, on Wednesday afternoon, and pro ceed to New-York, and thence via the Lakes the place of destination.
From the Albany Argus—Extra.
Sunday, June 17, 3 o'clock, P. M.
CHOLERA.
We annex the following information, being latest and all received, down to this date.
From our Correspondent, Messrs. Gates dated, Montreal, June 14.
The Cholera sweeping off the emigrants and other people of the lower orders, to a d alarming extent.
It is learned from Mr. Kip, of New York, who Quebec on Wednesday last, that the mor ty at that place was great, and the num er of cases increasing.
He was not permitted to stop at Montreal, He understood that the number of cases s down to Thursday, (14th) was about 7. Mr. K. also states that three new ca ses were reported at La Prairie.
He says, by way of Pittsburg, that at bec, within 48 hours, preceding the 12th
