ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, August 9, 1832.

POST OFFICE. ARRIVAL AND DEPARTURE OF MAILS.

PERSONS. Having accounts for postage are respectfully requested to settle them on presentation.

At an Election held on Monday last at the Banking House, the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the Farmers Bank of Maryland.

FOR ANNAPOLIS AND ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY. Alexander C. Magruder, Henry Mayndieck, Richard Hutwood, of Thos. Lewis North, So-

ADMINISTRATION MEETING. In compliance with a call in the Maryland Gazette of the 12th July, a number of the citizens of the Fourth District, assembled at Philadelphia, on Saturday, the 23rd July, at 11 o'clock.

RESOLVED. That the Delegates of the several Election Districts of Anne-Arundel County, in Convention assembled, view the nomination of Henry Clay, as a candidate for the Presidency of the United States, with the National Republican Convention, a man upon whom the Sovereign People of this Union have twice fixed the seal of condemnation, as an outrage upon the intelligence of the honest citizenry of the nation, and an evidence of the disposition of the leaders of that party, to mock at the decision, and to contempt the will of the majority of the people, thus plainly indicating their unqualified credence in, and devotion to that odious doctrine of despotism, which the mass of mankind are born with saddles on their backs, and a favoured few booted and spurred, ready to ride them legitimately by the Grace of God.

RESOLVED. That the members of this Convention, reposing perfect and unshaken confidence in the competency of the People to the great purposes of self-government, deem it our most solemn duty to oppose with earnest zeal, the pretensions of a man, whose political career has been distinguished for his dissatisfaction with, and opposition to the decisions of the majority—the vital principle of a Republic, and the obstinacy with which he has opposed the right of a minority to elect a President—the very essence of a "unilateral Despotism."

RESOLVED. That the unexampled course of electioneering pursued by Henry Clay, in assailing the fame, condemning the motives, and disparaging the public acts of his illustrious rival, affords the most indubitable evidence of his entire destruction of those great principles which should govern and regulate men of honour in a political contest of honor, importance, and renders his nomination for the dignified and elevated station of the Presidency of these United States, an indelible stigma upon the political, and a derogation from the moral character of the nation.

RESOLVED. That the members of this meeting, impelled by an ardent desire to preserve the inestimable heritage of freedom, bequeathed to us by the patriots and sages of the Revolution, untarnished by the corrupting influence of aristocracy, will use the most energetic and determined means, consonant with the honour and dignity of intelligent freemen, to prevent the election of Henry Clay to the Presidency.

RESOLVED. That as the developments of each day inspire us with renewed confidence in the wisdom, firmness and virtue of ANDREW JACKSON, in unceasing and unwavering devotion to the great precepts of Jeffersonian republicanism, and his readiness to sacrifice himself on all occasions for the advancement of the public interests, we will use the most unceasing and untiring exertions to promote his re-election to a station which his virtues and talents so eminently qualify him to dignify and adorn.

RESOLVED. That this meeting regard the nomination of MARTIN VAN BUREN, by the Baltimore Convention, as another signal triumph of democratic principles over the ambitious schemes and intrigues of the "Barbaric Orator," and his new allies, that we consider the rejection of his nomination by the Senate of the United States, as the most flattering testimonial of his sterling integrity, and incorruptible republicanism, and a powerful and irresistible call upon every true friend of republican liberty, to repair to the polls, and there show the master workmen in this nefarious deed of political infamy, that the Veto of the People is more mighty and potent than that of a "Senatorial Faction."

RESOLVED. That the citizens composing this meeting will use every fair and honorable exertion to secure the election of such candidates as shall be nominated by the County Convention friendly to the National Administration.

RESOLVED. That D. Marcan Duvall, Barzillai Marriott, John D. Pope, Rufus Simpson, and Nicholas Dorsey, of Lloyd, be the delegates from this district to attend the County Convention on the 4th August, at its adjournment.

RESOLVED. That Thomas Snowden, Jr., Dr. James Newberry, and Abner Lathrop, Sr. represent this district in Convention of this Congressional District.

RESOLVED. That in case any delegate from this District should be prevented by sickness or other cause from attending either Convention, the members attending shall have power to fill the vacancy.

RESOLVED. That the members of the Maryland Gazette, B. Prince, Republican, and Globe, be respectfully requested to publish the proceedings of this meeting.

J. THOMAS, Chairman. J. D. POPE, Secretary. Fourth District—Anne-Arundel County.

ADMINISTRATION CONVENTION.

The Managers from the several Election Districts of Anne-Arundel County, assembled at Washington, on Saturday, the 4th August, 1832. The meeting being organized, the following gentlemen were called to the Chair, and THOMAS S. DORSEY appointed Secretary.

The following resolutions, submitted by B. Prince, of Manassas, Esp. were then read and unanimously adopted.

Let every Editor in the country, feel himself responsible to make known throughout the limits of his influence, the views, operations and success of the Society, and that which it has been attempting in weakness, and will be done with power, that which private charity has so well commenced, be completed by the Bounty of the States and the Nation.

In concluding this, perhaps too protracted address, the managers beg leave to say, that not less than one thousand emigrants are now seeking a passage to Liberia; that funds only are wanting to enable the society to prosecute its enterprise on a large scale, and that which can appeal to our interests, encourage our hopes, or move our hearts to charity, may commend the cause of African Colonization to the affection and liberality of our countrymen. Nor will they, the Managers, be gratified, remain insensible to the merits of this cause. Every where meet us the multitude of its growing popularity. Justice and Common Sense, Mercy and Charity, have gone forth in following to plead for it, and the Managers are in the great Author of all good, and both his spirit to their aid—that Spirit which whose divine illuminations and all-governing all-sustaining energies, men of every country and condition shall finally enjoy in peace and love, shares, in unity, of the same faith, and of the same hope of the great common salvation. And if from the thick gloom overshadowing Africa, light be thrown to break forth, let us look for brighter glory, and believe that he who made Joseph's captivity the precursor of his honour, and his goodness, and the death of his own Son, at which nature trembled, the means of human redemption, will finally change the evils which have cursed Africa, into blessings; that the slave trade and slavery, which have been to her a torrent of wrath, lying waste all her happiness and hopes, will end in a tide, deep, rapid and refreshing, flowing forth to wake life and gladness in all her wildernesses and solitary places, and to make even her deserts to bud and blossom as the rose.

Extract of a letter from a highly respectable gentleman in New York, dated July 31.

Of the Cholera.—Will you be implicitly ruled by me—and your friends? If you will, dismiss your terrors, and adopt the following directions—namely—Take one ounce of camphor and dissolve it in half a pint of alcohol of this solution, which in quantity will serve a multitude of occasions, the dose only three drops on a lump of sugar dissolved in a small wine glass full of water—
