

From the Advocate.
ADIEU TO MY NATIVE HOME.
Farewell, to the place, where, in childhood, I wandered By fate's cruel mandate I am forced to depart To seek in a land, far removed from my Father's A joy, which my own native soil can't impart Farewell to the friends, around whom my heart lingers With the warm affection of youth's guileless heart, Thou' far in a land and strangers I wander Yet still in my breast shall ye both have a part Thou' around me are living death's keenest weapons, And the cannon's loud roar breaks the stillness of night, Still, shall my thoughts turn to youth's happy moments And dwell on its scenes with the fondest delight Or if on the Ocean, hard fate bids me wander, Where foam created billows loom nightly their wall, Still, in the tempest my thoughts shall turn home As in the low notes of the soft sighing gale.
And if, by the fist of Heaven's great Ruler I no more shall resist "my dear native home" In the hour of death sweet memory shall cheer me, And enliven with brightness that hour's dark gloom.
Yet bright as the sun's glory resplendent Those scenes of my childhood, shall be to my soul Still glow with a lustre my last dying moments And point to scenes brighter on Eternity's scroll.

kinson, at suit of James Boyle, Esq. I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title, interest, property, claim and demand, both at law and equity, of the said George W. Hammond, of, in and to all those Tracts or parts of Tracts or parcels of Land and premises, lying and being in Anne Arundel County, devised to the said George W. Hammond, by the last will and testament of his Father, Philip Hammond, deceased, called

Hammond's Connexion, Hammond's Fifth Connexion, & Hammond's Sixth Connexion,

Containing about EIGHT HUNDRED Acres of Land, more or less.
This Land lies on the Head of Severn.— The Main Road, leading from the City of Annapolis to Merrill's Tavern, runs nearly thro' the whole Tract. The soil is fertile, and adapted to the growth of all kinds of produce, particularly fine Tobacco, the Lands also abound in Wood, consisting of Pine, Chestnut, Oak and Hickory.
I hereby give notice, that on Thursday, the 15th day of August, at the Court House door, in the City of Annapolis, I shall proceed to sell the said Lands in the highest bidder, for Cash, to satisfy the debt due as aforesaid. Sale

SHERIFF'S SALE, WITHOUT RESERVE.
BY virtue of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued out of Anne Arundel County Court, and to me directed, against the goods and chattels, and tenements, of Stephen Yates, at the suit of James Lewis Administrator of Cornelius Garretson, I have seized and taken in execution all the right, title and interest, of said Yates, in and to a tract of Land called

Talbot's Last Shift.
Containing one hundred and a half acres of land more or less, whereon the said Yates resides, and adjoining the lands of Daniel Murray, Henry M. Steele, and the estate of the late Alexander C. Hanan. The land is of good quality, and well timbered. The improvements are a SMALL STONE DWELLING, & other necessary Out-Buildings. Also all his the said Yates's interest in and to another tract of Land called Worthington's Range, and Dorsey's

IN CHANCERY.
Mary Watson, Elizabeth Stone, Sarah Mack-all, and Alexander Harris, Against James J. Wilkinson, Walter Wilkinson, Barbara Ann Wilkinson, Eliza Wilkinson, James Wilkinson, Catharine Wilkinson, Margaret Wilkinson, and Joseph Wilkinson.

THE object of the Bill is to obtain a decree, that a trustee be appointed to make a deed to Mary Watson of two thirds of certain parts of Tracts of Land, situate in Calvert County, called "Bromwell and Lowry's Reserve." The Bill states, that a certain James Mack-all, now dead, being seized and possessed of Land, situate in Calvert County, called Bromwell and Lowry's Reserve, conveyed the same to Joseph Wilkinson, in trust for him and his family, and which lands were held by the said Wilkinson, for the use of the said Mack-all and his family, and the profits thereof received by them. That the family of the said Mackall consisted of three children, Mary Watson, Elizabeth, who had married George Stone, and Sarah, whom the said Land was to descend after the death of their father. That some years after the conveyance before mentioned, and by the request of the said James Mackall, the said Joseph Wilkinson agreed to convey the said Land to the said George Stone, and did execute a deed therefor, which was never recorded, and that no money was paid therefor, and that the said Stone was to execute a bond (which he never did) to pay the interest of the purchase money, amounting to $2,000, to the said Mackall during his life, and after his death to pay one third thereof to his wife's portion. That at a subsequent period of the co-existence between Stone, Wilkinson and Mackall, he was resolved, and an award of partition between the said three heirs of Mackall was made. That Joseph Wilkinson and George Stone are dead, and having made any provision by will, in regard to the said estate.
That the heirs of Joseph Wilkinson are James J. Wilkinson, Walter Wilkinson, Thomas H.
Wilkinson, George Wilkinson, Robert Wilkinson, Mary Wilkinson, Margaret Dare, Elizabeth Gray, Joseph Wilkinson, (now dead, intestate) leaving the following children:— Barbara Ann Wilkinson, Eliza Wilkinson, James Wilkinson, Catharine Wilkinson, Margaret Wilkinson, and Joseph Wilkinson. That the heirs of George Stone are Elizabeth Stone, James John Stone, George Stone, and Mary Stone. That since the death of Joseph Wilkinson and George Stone, the Oratrices Mary Watson, Elizabeth Stone, and Sarah Mackall, have by deed of partition, divided the said Land according to the said award, and that Sarah Mackall, for a valuable consideration, conveyed all her interest in said Land to Mary Watson, who has assigned her right to Alexander Harris.

It thereupon, this 16th day of July, 1832, on motion of JAMES BOYLE, the Complainant's Solicitor, Ordered, that a copy of this order be inserted, at least once in each of three successive weeks, in some newspaper published in Annapolis before the 16th day of August next, to the end that the said James J. Wilkinson, Walter Wilkinson, Barbara Ann Wilkinson, Eliza Wilkinson, James Wilkinson, Catharine Wilkinson, Margaret Wilkinson, and Joseph Wilkinson, who are non-residents of the State of Maryland, may have notice of the application of the Complainants to this Court, and of the subject and object of the Bill, and may be warned to appear in this Court in person, or by solicitor, on or before the 25th day of November next, to show cause wherefore a decree should not pass as prayed.

Anne Arundel County, &c.
ON application to me the subscriber, a Justice of the Orphans' Court of Anne Arundel County, by petition in writing of William T. Gantt, praying for the benefit of the Act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and of his proprietors thereto, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them, being annexed to his petition; and the said William T. Gantt having satisfied me by competent testimony, that he has resided in the State of Maryland, two years, immediately preceding the time of his application, and that he is in actual confinement for debt only. It is therefore ordered and adjudged by me, that said William T.
Gantt be discharged from his confinement, and that he, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in the Maryland Gazette, once a week for three successive months before the fourth Monday of October next, give notice to his creditors to appear before Anne Arundel County Court, on the third Monday of October next, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, on the said William T.
Gantt, then and there taking the oath by the said act prescribed for delivering of his property, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said William T. Gantt should not have the benefit of the said act and suppliments thereto, as prayed.

of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of insolvent debtors, passed at November session, 1805, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can as-ertain them, being annexed to his petition, and competent testimony that he has resided two years in the State of Maryland, immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said Beale Gaither having taken the oath by the said Act prescribed, for the delivering up his property, and given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the County Court of Anne Arundel County, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed Joshua Warfield of the county, his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said Beale Gaither, a conveyance and possession of all his property real, personal and chattel, it is hereby ordered and adjudged, that the said Beale Gaither be discharged from his confinement, and that he give notice to his creditors by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some news paper published in the city of Annapolis, once a week for three months, before the fourth Monday of October next, to appear before the said County Court, at the court house of said county, at ten o'clock in the forenoon of that day, for the purpose of recommending a trustee for their benefit, and to show cause, if any they have, why the said Beale Gaither should not have the benefit of the said act, and the suppliments thereto, as prayed.

THE CLEFT.
I'm coming! with my locks of red, I'm coming down full sail; I've scattered all the signs with dread, And turned the planets pale.— Five hundred miles of head, A million leagues of tail!
I've left the Ham without a horn, Made roast beef of the Bull; Twins curse the hour that they were born,
The Fish could not keep cool!
Viggo's a maiden all forlorn, And Leo's lost his wool.
Mars was obliged to take to flight, Miss Venus had a swoon; I've left them all in sad affright, I'm steering for the Moon!
The Earth will then be in full sight—You'll have hot weather soon.

THE CLEFT.
Kumschaka, all the frozen climes, Shall fever heat embrace;
The southern for their many crimes, I'll pour a stream of fire on;
For I am "Twenty Hundred times" More hot than red hot iron!
My beard shall graze, and in a trice, Single Greenland to a coal;
One second, and I knock a Nice From off the Northern pole;
The stock will break and melt the ice, Round Captain Symme's "hole." Poor devils you'll have to rue The moment that we meet; When fighting 'twixt a bear and stew, Stark staring mad you get;
You'll not resolve into a sweat, But melt down in a deal.
I'm coming! scattering star Destruction in my trail; Swift as a steamboat, or a car, Whirled over the humming rail; Fire, frenzy, plague, and ruin, are The feathers of my tail!
"TAG."

A TALE OF THE MOREA.
Upon the establishment of the Moslems in Greece, many of its natives withdrew from the plains and fixed their abode in the mountains and natural fastnesses of the country, preferring the scanty and precarious means of subsistence they found there, to plenty with Turkish tyranny. Here they organised a system of plunder, which, though more frequently exercised against the Muslim agas, was too indiscriminate to exempt them from the hatred and execrations of their lowland countrymen, whose herds and flocks, corn, wine, and money, were frequently transferred to the liaris, or mountain stations of these descendants of the heroes of the Peloponnesus.

It was in the lofty ranges of mountains, which diversify the surface of Peloponnesus, or modern Morea, that these Clefts, or robbers, as they were denominated, were found in the greatest numbers. Here their communities bore some semblance of government, if it could be so called. Freedom, for which they had renounced the luxury of life and even security of existence, was too precious in their eyes to be bartered for any equivalent.
Their head-men or captains, therefore, had generally speaking, a little real power over them as any other chiefs of freebooters; but in some parts of the Morea, they were selected from an ancient family, and were conspicuous for valour of personal prowess, which circumstances gave them a moral influence over these hardy and fearless mountaineers.

A band of Clefts had taken possession of a very strong part of that lofty range which the ancients named Taygeton, and which is called at the present day Makrynon. Its precipitous cliffs, snowy crests, and terrific defiles have cost the Turks dearly in their repeated attempts to expel the "robbers," whilst the richly cultivated slopes, in the middle region, and the plains of the Eurotas, or Iri, towards the valley of Sparta, afforded the Clefts an abundant resources both in the winter and summer.

Tradition amongst these people as well as amongst their lowland neighbours, reported that they were the pure, unadulterated progeny of the ancient Spartans, and there were many traits in their manners which showed, at least, a resemblance between them. Their songs discussed a strange medley of Christian and Pagan images, and the great personages of La-conian antiquity were not unfrequently referred to, though the actions attributed to them savored strongly on the legends of the cavalier or monks.

Chief when engaged in their raids, or in an affray, showing no mercy towards a Turk and little towards a monk, for whom they felt almost equal hatred, these outlaws manifested for their friends and connections even those of the plains, the kindest feelings, and towards the fair sex, of whatever rank and nation, they usually showed a degree of gallantry and chivalrous devotion, in which the most polished nation could not excel them.

A party of these Taygetans Clefts had descended from their mountain abode of the towards dawn one stormy night, for the raids.
Their object was to sweep the farm of a rich and already aged "his sheep and dominion,
