ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, October 4, 1882.

In Baltimore, for the week ending on Mon-day, there were 21 deaths by Cholera. On l'uesday, two deaths.

ELECTION RETURNS.

For Delegates to the General Assembly.

CITY OF ANNAPOLIS. Caucus Clay Ticket. Nicholas Brewer, James Williamson Anti-Caucus. James Hunter, Robert Welch, (of Ben.)

Martin F. Revell, ANNE-ARUNDEL COUNTY. Clay.

Districts.	Ellicott				3		Anderson.
1st.	260	269	307	246	100	106	103	146
24.	CA	67	6.5	65	50	45	43	50
3d.	107	131	102	102	88	87	54	8.5
4th.	205	167	167	167	229	228	158	221
5th.	177	148	141	188	224	151	113	138
Gth.	176	187	155	207	103	69	58	67
							_
	991	969	937	973	814	686	529	707

BALTIMORE CITY.

Jackson. 4585 | Tiernan, Jenkins, Harper, BALTIMORE COUNTY.

The returns with	the exception	of the 4th district, give
Turner.		2014
Elv.		1918
Worthington,		1730
Holmes,		1474

HARFORD COUNTY. Jackson. 1171 | Moores, 1138 Williams,

Sutton.

Forwood,		Waters,	964
		ngress.
Sewell,	1157	Veazey,	1062
		_
C	ECIL C	OUNTY.
Jackson		Clay
Evans,	1147	Cameron,	913
G A. Thomas	. 1170	Cameron, Wilson,	894
L. Thomas,	1140	Reynolds,	896
W. Knight,		Lusby,	893
		•

For Congress. 1071 | Veasey, FREDERICK COUNTY.

It was endorsed on the way-bill from Frederick last evening that it was probable three of the Jackson and one of the Clay candidates were elected to the Legislature. - Balt. Amer.

WASHINGTON COUNTY.

Mann,	1497	Kershner,	1534
Holiman,	1503	Jacques,	1019
Kennedy,	1449	Newcomer,	1075
Grove.	1546	Mckee,	1094
Two distri	cts to be l	leard from.

PRINCE-GEORGE'S COUNTY.

Day,	694	Edelin,	771
Edelin.	656	Gantt,	754
Keech,	621	Duvall,	750
Morton,		Pratt,	703
	_

OUEEN-ANNE'S COUNTY .- Four Jackson men elected.

PENNSYLVANIA ELECTION.

We have contradictory accounts from Cal-lisle. The larest was that the Jackson ticket ted by them. The Treaty which was to have ses, where manhood, under all the temptations of gain, shrunk with terror from the chamber of pestilential disease, the modest but unfaltering benevolence of these weak and delicate females was seen to seek the description of the sinks and face all the toil and danger without a hope and yet without a murmur. Leaving the wealth, confort and security of their paternal roof, they are seen amid the dying and the dead, bending like guardian angels over the couch of the surface and with untring attention wooing back the departing spirit to his frame, or smoothing his rapid progress to the grave. The imaginawith untiring attention wooing back the de-parting spirit to his frame, or smoothing his matter, the cramps ceased, and the pulse rose, rapid progress to the grave. The imagina-tion cannot conceive a scene of greater moral in less than an hour after taking the croton sublimity. The inhabitants of the cities oil, and I pronounced myself out of danger. which have suffered from the pestilence will long cherish with gratitude and admiration, the recollection of their kindness; and the record of their heroic and disinterested benevolence will remain a perpetual memorial of fatal disease." the virtues of their sex.

TERRIFIC STORM.

A most terrific storm of thunder, lightning, rain and hail, took place at Kingston Jamaica, the latter end of July, that was ever witnessed in any climate. In a few moments witnessed in any climate. In a few moments the streets were inundate, the rain resembling a cataract, and descending with the most perpendicular precision and violence. In His Majesty's dockyard, the Wolf of 102 guns, was literally split through the minute—the props on which she was supported having vielded to the influence of the wind. At Brockville the large establishment of Mr. Bills Plint was consumed by fire, whether Billa Plint was consumed by fire, whether At the flourishing village of Napace, the storm raged dreadfully, and ball stones measuring two inches in circumference fell in extraordinary profesion. A barn belonging to Mr. Gordinier, in Ernestown, was literally cut in two by the lightning. electric or otherwise we have not learned .-

have never seen this nower (and very lew have ever been seen in Baltimore,) can form along side; and, with a promptness hardly to no idea of their splendor and magnificence.

The flower is formed very much like a large camelia japonica; there are single, semiour and it is probable that the sudden concussion. ble and double varieties; and all sizes, from a disk of two to six or seven inches diameter. ses, he fell to the bottom. What renders this Their colour comprises every shade, from the accident doubly distressing is, that one of the purest white up to the deepest black crimson. spars in falling struck the head of Mr. James of course be directed. purest white up to the deepest black crimson. We have about thirty varieties and about We have about thirty varieties and about twenty of them constantly in bloom, affording a display altogether unequalled by any other display altogether display altogethe a display altogether unequalled by any other garden plant. Besides this, we have succeedgarden plant. Besides this, we have succeedelin producing several splendid new varieties from seed among which are two very superior semidouble black crimson. The colour of the dahlius are remarkable for their bourhood; attributable, as we know from exbourhood; attributable, as we know from experience, to our following the directions of Euglish gardeners, who direct us to put them and very honest. Mr. Holmes's body has in poor sandy soil. This may be necessary in England, where the climate is not so subject to excessive droughts as ours. We practiced upon this plan for several years, and never obtained a flower worth looking at. This year we went to the opposite extreme; dug a deep trench, filled it with rich vegetable mould, stable manure, and door yard scrapings, with a moiety of garden mould, and planted them therein, giving them no further attention than keeping down the weeds.—The consequence has been, the splendid bloom above described for two months past.

[Amer. Farmer.

mentions the arrival at that place a day or two were not present at the affray. Their farther previous, of Col. Berry, from Rock Island. examination was postponed until all the testi-The number of deaths by cholera, down to mony can be presented, and they were in the the date of his departure, was about 80. Col. mean time ordered into custody — Ibid. Lakes under Gen. Eustis, had not been at Reading has given an anti-Jackson majority. the Fort on Rock Island, and of course that come a martyr. Stater Mary George, while attending one of the Hospitals in that city, was seized with Cholera, and after the lapse of a few days, died. The piety, the benevolence and herotam of these lauies afford at conce the most affecting proof of the elevated gentleness of the female character, and the most sublime instance of the courage and benevolence inspired by religion. In many cases, where manhood, nuder all the temptations of gain, shrunk with terror from the chamber of pestilential disease, the modest oil, and I pronounced myself out of danger.

This is my case; and I hope and trust it may prove an important one to the public, as it may lead to a more successful mode of treatment than has hitherto been employed in this

> UNFORTUNATE ACCIDENT. A most distressing accident occurred yesterday afternoon, at the end of Long Wharf. A derrick had been erected, with an arm si milar to the one at the Bunker Hill Monu ment, for the purpose of using a diving bell to take up the stones which had fallen into the dock when the wall of the wharf gave way. This derrick, and all the purchases, ha been put up under the direction of Mr. Almoran Holmes, a gentleman well known for his judgment and skill in every thing relating to moving heavy bodies At about 3 o'clock, P. M. every thing having been got in readiness, in order to prove the strength of tation of the people have occupied as was un-the apparatus. Mr. Holmes let the bell down avoidable, the greatest portion of your time in extraordinary profusion. A barn belonging to Mr. Gordiner, in Ernestown, was interally cut in two by the lightning.

Dahlias—We really wish our cottage garden was located nearer town, that the citizens generally might have an opportunity of seeing our splendid bloom of Dahlias. Those who have never seen this flower and very few might be preserved. A schooner was hauled never seen this flower (and very few might be preserved. A schooner was hauled tator, had his leg broken.

brilliancy and clearness—nothing dull or common-place in th m.

The cultivation of oahlies has been hither-to very unsuccessful in this city and neigh ed not only by his family, but by the commu-

Three young men, William Ulmar, Sam'l Campbell and James Freeland were brought before the Police Court on Tuesday, on the complaint of the City Marshall, by whom they were charged with homiciae on the evening previous in Ann-street. It appeared from the testimony, that Danar was prominently engaged in the after with Mr. Rich, the deceased, and one of the constables testified that he had learned from Ulmar, that Rich received a blow from Campbell. Camp-Rich received a blow from Campbell. Camp-The Vandalia (III.) Whig of the 12th inst. | bell and Freeland both declared, that they

FOREIGN

FROM ENGLAND.

lence. Not a cheer was given, neither did the enem in detail disapprobation. His Majesty having taken List of his seat on the Throne, the Usher of the Black Rod summoned the House of Commons to their Lordship's Bar. ' In a few minutes the Speaker attended by several Members, entered the House of Lords, when his Majesty in an audible tone delivered the following most gracious speech:-THE KINGS SPEECH.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,
"The state of the public business now enabling me to release you from further attendance on Parliament, I cannot take leave of you without expressing the satisfaction with which I have observed your diligence and zeal in the discharge of your duties during a Session of extraordinary labour and duration.

"The matters which you have had under your consideration have been of the first importance; and the laws in particular which have been passed for reforming the represen avoidable, the greatest portion of your time

"In recommending this to your consideration it was my object, by removing the causes of just complaint, to restore general confi dence in the Legislature, and to give additional security to the settled institutions of the State. The object will, I trust, be found, to have been accomplished.

"I have still to lament the continuance of disturbances in Ireland notwithstanding the vigilance and energy displayed by my Government there in the measures which it has taken o repress them. The laws which have been passed, in conformity with my recommendation, at the beginning of the Session with respect to the collection of Tithes, are well calculated to lay the foundation of a new sys-tem, to the completion of which the attention which I have felt at the measures adopted for

I continue to receive the most friendly asthough I am not enabled to announce to you the final arrangement of the questions which have been so long pending between Holland and Belgium, and though unhappily the con-test in Portugal between the Princes of the the enemy. At 11 the Don Juan began firand Belgium, and though unhappily the conhouse of Brazanga still continues, I look with ing her stern guns on us; hore up and gave confidence, through the intimate union which her two broadsides; the darkness of the night subsists between me and my Allies to the hindered our squadron from keeping close to preservation of general peace. Gentlemen of the House of Commons.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,
I thank you for the supplies which you have granted to me, and it is a great satisfaction to me to find, notwithstanding large deductions from the revenue occasioned by the repeal of some taxes which pressed most hea
"Sunday, 4th.—Enemy yet as a great distance to leeward this morning; he evidently wished to avoid an action, though he is double our force.

"Sunday, 5th.—At 11 this forenoon, we in the supplies which pressed most hearepeal of some taxes which pressed most hea-most careful attention to the preservation of the public peace, and to the maintenance of the authority of the law in your respective. Admiral communicated with the captain—the counties. I trust that the adventages enjoy—ed by all my subjects, under our free Convince of the captain that the counties of the captain that the captain tha ed by all my subjects, under our free Constitution will be duly appreciated and cherished, that relief from any real causes of complaint will be sought only through legitimate channels; that all irregular and illegal proceedings will be discountenauced and resist.

The distance of monitoristics occurred from the distance of monitoristics occurred from the distance of monitoristics. The latest was that the lackson men carried the brough of the military because the opposition could not be the sent of the louists on the louist on the louist of the louists on the postponed in consequences of the military because the opposition could not static.

We learn by a passenger in the stage from Lancatter, that the Jackson is not controlled and the country will propose the country of the louist of the country will propose the country will propose the country will propose the country will propose the country of the latest of t

List of the Squadron at and off Oporto. IN THE DOURG.

Guns. Men. Commanders. 8 38 Lieut. Woodbridge. Terceira 35 Prudentia 32 Tylden. A Corvette Note. - These were being towed out by the City of Edinburgh steamer, to join Admiral Sartorius, when the Alban left.

AT SEA. Guns. Men. Reinha de Portugal 46 S20 Plag ship of Ad-

	•		mi	ral Sartorious.
Donna Maria		42	280
Constitution		13	99	Corry, Com-
Vifia Flor		18	100	mander
Amelia		16	80
Eugene		13	70
Liberal		10	80
23d of July		10	80
771 4 1			1202

with the Ramona and City of Edinburgh steamers.

9	DO	N MINURE & SQUADRON
,		Guns.
	Don Juan	84
	Don Juan A frigate	50
٢	A frigate Corvette Ditto	26)
	Ditto	26 Long 18 pounders
	Ditto	26
f	A brig Ditto	20 7
	Ditto	20 Long 12 pounders.

The following are extracts from the jour-nals of an officer on board the Reinhade Portugal, the flag-ship of Admiral Sartorius:

"Friday, 3d August.—At anchor off the Cachops. At 9, the squadron of Don Miguel, consisting of the Don Juan, 74, a frighte, carrying 24 pounders, 3 corvettes, and four brigs, were seen under weigh. Being at anof course be directed.

'To this necessary work my best assistance will be given, by enforcing the execution of the laws, and by promoting the prosperity of a country, blessed by Divine Providence, with so many natural advantages. As conducive to this object, I must express the satisfaction which was immediately weather. The Tagus, which I have followed the themselves adopted for use in the transfer of the terms of the transfer of the transfe board, acknowledging the blockaile, and requesting permission to enter the Tagus, which was immediately granted. After beextending generally to my people in that Kingdom the benefits of education.

Which was immediately granted. After being joined by the Amelia, Donna Maria, and Eugene schooner, we kept close to the wind Eugene schooner, we kept close to the wind on the starboard tack, and at 5 succeeded in us and consequently prevented our continu-repeal of some taxes which pressed most heavily on my people, that you have been enabled, by the exercise of a well considered economy in all the departments of the State, to provide for the service of the year, with aut any addition to the public burthens.

'My Lords and Gentlemen,

I recommend to you during the recess the most careful attention to the preservation of interest attention to the preservation of the safety of the considered a broadside on us, but it all fell short. The Amelia started company, owoffic Majestyle ships Stag. Childers and Ratrac Nonline, are returning this morning from the at Oport is atill evertward, to take up the position they left is atill evertward, to the approach of Don Miguel's vessels it this morning there was a report that at least, at least,

Barly this morning there was a report that the sentward, and in consequence of the bag speed of the interpretation of the bag speed of the interpretation of the sentward, and in consequence of the bag speed of the interpretation of the other speed of the river, (villa Nova) was partially state of more speed of the interpretation of the other speed of the interpretation of

as the guerrine and some parguers troops pecution have destroyed the mills.

"There are 4 vessels fitting up with cannon, getting ready here; two of them sail to-gland at

daily st

expect

The city of Edinburgh steamer is taking houses, in coals, provision, &c. and will sail to join dit here.
Admiral Sartorius at 4 this afternoon." their ret DON PEDRO'S EXPEDITION.

Falmouth, Monday, August 2d, 9 o'clock, | tunately P. M.—The Alban steamer, Lieutenant Walker, Commander, from the Mediterrane-an, has this instant-arrived. Having damag-ed her machinery, she put into Oporto, which she left on the 18th inst. The accounts brought by her are of a va- little ba ried complexion, and as connected with the Lisbon Portuguese contest, of considerable interest.

In the first place, they all concur in repre-In the first place, they all concur in representing the spirit of the troops and people of Oporto as being excellent, and devoted to the cause of Don Pedro; but in other respects tinople. they do not give account of any advance made fleet. co by him, or any immediate prospect of such a five tw by him, or any immediate prospect of such a result. In the next, they bring the highly important intelligence of the boldness of Don Migrel's squadron, which has come up the coast, and was, when the Alban sailed, about three leagues to westward of the mouth of the Duto.

With respect to matters at Dorto, the accepts bring nothing new. Don Pedro was leated to the town and suburb of Villa Norm, on the opposite side of Douro. He has exactly, and cannot go beyond his outposts. maralry, and cannot go beyond his outposts.
The report of a revolt at Almeida was rife in one of is the town, as well as that Miguel had been pay 100 wiged to withdraw part of his force in order jects, v biged to withdraw part of his force in order per the crish this opposition. The boldness of means a fire of the per the color of the per the p Sarca on the hill above it, gone lower down rangem

a the south side of the river, and annoyed potentia

the town with musketry.

Desertions had taken place, but not to any great extent, and they had occurred on both dressed sides. The north side of the Douro, for some lera is miles around, was completely occupied by Dir liguel's troops, which were, by com-min report, magnified to the amount of forty ate, an thousand men. The garrison and population bearenevertheless in high spirits, and confident of victory; and every practicable mode of iortification had been resorted to to render day be of fortification had been resorted to to render the town inaccessible. Provisions were becausing to be scarce, not the manufacture of material, but the village of vallonga is ordinarily the great mart for the manufacture of bread to supply Oporton and Don Miguel's troops teing in possession of that, as well as the mills on the south side of the river, within a mile and a half of the town, considerations where the time of the control of t ble temporary incontenience was experienced.

Fienna, August 6.—I must again be a messenger of frightfut news. News has just been received from Ballen, near Vienna, wherein the Imperial Fashiy has been for a short time; that his Majesty, the young King of Hungattus instruments and a wif by a miracle, a daughter of the state of t ry uas just essaped, as if by a miracle, a dau-ger that threstened his life. As he was walk. Nov. i ing this mording early, in the beautiful valler called Hellenanthus, accompanied by an Adde-Camp, a person passed close behind lature, the Prince, drew a pister from his pocket, and which discharged it at him. Though he was but a lier pofer steps distant. Providence directed the The the min the Imperial service. And has a pennon, as the cause of this crime must appear look investigation, at present, insanity seems depart to be the ground of it. the circumstance spread in ranger the the ground of it.

The report of the circumstance spread in laden like wildfire, and the impression which it produced a furded a just proof of the entire stackment of the Austran people, to the Imperial family the military escort could laye the craimal from the fury of the people, who wants to take vengeance on the spot.

The improvious of the people of Vienna at this determite crime is equally great.—Al geneine wining, Aug. 14.

Franthe N. P. Mercantile Advertiser.

LATEST FROM ENGLAND.

By the ship Elisha Denison, Capt. Lane, we have received Liverpool papers to the 23th, and London papers to the 27th August is lastive.

Advices from Oporto are to the 19th, and from Lisbon to the 18th. Don Mignel's squadra retired to the Tagus on the latter day will a feest Oporto.

on Oporto.

rea returned to the Tagus on the latter day from Oporto.

As altack was daily expected on Oporto by the troops of Don Miguel.

A reconciliation has taken place between the Elag of Engianil and his brother, the Dake of Susker.

The deaths at Liverpool, by cholers, contained to average about 2D per day.

London, And 27.—The citermatance of the return at Miguel's facet to the Tagus, has been a disappointment to some, who relied Dapit will falling into the hands of Sarturious, especially as it is alroughy anspected that the premity as it is alroughy anspected that the real cause of that movement has been the discovery of atmosphere of the vessels. The retreat of the spandays will however, have enabled Sarturious to coollect together the whole of his face and leave little at hazard should the pasting again yeature to sea.

Historian a grade of the

It i

thing i