AMERICAN THEATRE.

A History of the American Theatre has just been published in one octavo volume, of about 400 pages, by Messrs. J. & J. Harper, of New York.

We find it stated that the first company of players arrived in this country, at Yorktown Virginia, in the year 1752, under the management of Lewis Hallam the elder, father of the Lewis Hallam, who is even now remembered by the lovers of the Drama under the familiar appellation of "old Hallam."

The first Theatre in America was built at Annapolis, in this State, in the same year. This claim to the first establishment of a building for exclusive use as a theatre was urged by a writer in the Maryland Gazette, a few years ago, and Mr. Danby, in this work, after inquiry pronounced the claim well founded.

last Episcopal Church. The lease expired a few years ago, when the building was taken down for the materials.

This morning at 10 o'clock the United Kingdom steamer, sailed from Newhaven Roads for Hamburg, having on board his Majesty Charles X. duke de Bourdeaux, and suite.

Intelligence has been received through France to-day, of the death of the King of Spain, which there is no reason for doubting, though some persons have declared themselves incredulous on the subject.

Despatches have been received by M. Van de Weyer, the Belgian minister, from General Goblet, announcing the retirement of M. de Meulinaire the Belgian Minister for Foreign Affairs, and the appointment of Gen. Goblet to that post ad interim.

The papers of Great Britain in it is customary to publish births. In one of these reports we find the following announcement—

The Rev. J. W. Barr, one of the Missionaries to Africa about to sail from Norfolk, in the ship Jupiter, died at Richmond on the 20th after a short illness.

The frigate United States was visited by the Miguel of Portugal, during her short stay at Lisbon at the beginning of August. An officer of the ship describes the royal visit in the following manner:

Com. P. gave his Majesty an invitation to the ship, which he very condescendingly accepted and appointed an hour on the following day. Our ship dropped down from the pier, opposite his Villa, near the mouth of the river, and getting every thing ready, awaited his coming. Between us and the shore, the Royal Yacht at anchor—a splendid boat of between 30 and 40 tons burthen—her sides were partly mahogany, beautifully carved and gilded, with swans, angels, dragons, shells, Neptuneans, sea-horses, mermaids, &c.

The expectations which were entertained by the Conference of the speedy and satisfactory arrangement of the Belgian question are at an end. On Thursday evening a sealed note, from the King of Holland to the Conference, was given to Lord Palmerston by the Dutch Ambassador, Baron Von Zuylen; and last night the members of the Conference having all assembled, the note was opened and read by them.

FOREIGN.

From the N. E. Journal of Commerce, Nov. 3. FIVE DAYS LATER FROM ENGLAND.

Almost half past three o'clock this morning, our steamer schooner Evening, Edition came up from New York, with London papers to September 23d, and Liverpool, to the 24th inclusive. They contain intelligence of the death of Sir Walter Scott—the death of the King of Spain—and the rejection by Holland, of the ultimatum of the London Conference.

Death of Sir Walter Scott.—We learn from

Captain Bursley and passengers, that a letter was sent on board the ship they had called, for the lady of Judge Sewall, of Quebec, with an endorsement on the back of it, that Sir Walter Scott died on the 22d.

Letters have been received at Paris from Alexandria dated on the 18th of July, which state that a telegraphic despatch had been received at that place announcing the capture of the Turkish camp at Hama, by the Egyptian.

REJECTION OF THE ULTIMATUM OF THE LONDON CONFERENCE.

Very little excitement has been produced in the money market by the confirmation of the rumours respecting the note of the King of Holland, though in fact, to the general apprehension, it makes the alternative of a war all but inevitable. This is owing, probably, to the very contracted state of speculative transactions in the funds. Had similar circumstances occurred a year or two back, they could not have failed to produce very material fluctuations. Consols left off at 84 1/8 and Eschequer Bills at 16 to 17 premium.
