

NOTICE. A FAIR for the benefit of the Female Orphan Society of the city of Annapolis, will be held some time in the ensuing winter at the usual place.

From the Norfolk (Va.) Herald MILITARY MOVEMENTS. Two full companies of Artillery have been ordered from Fortress Mifflin, to proceed without delay to Fort Mifflin, Charleston harbor.

New York State Lottery. A singular mistake occurred in the drawing of the Lottery on Wednesday afternoon in the year of the City Hall. It appears that according to the schedule, the numbers were to be drawn from the wheel, and that the first second and third prizes were to be $10,000, $5,000 and $2,500 respectively.

CURE FOR THE GOUT. The Notizia del Giornale of Rome gives circumstantial details of several experiments most successfully made on persons of every age and both sexes in that capital, for the radical cure of the gout, rheumatism, and neuralgic diseases which have been hitherto thought incurable.

Considerable sensation was aroused about town to-day by the discovery of a quantity of human bones and flesh, under Deering's Bridge. Parts of five different bodies were enumerated by Dr. McLellan and Dr. Clark, who presume them to have been used for anatomical purposes.

Immediately on receiving the melancholy intelligence of the death of the venerable CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON, the Governor of Maryland issued the following order: The Governor of Maryland announces, with profound regret, to the People of the State, the decease of the Surviving Signer of the Declaration of our National Independence.

Ordered, That the national flag be hoisted at half staff on the State House, at Annapolis, on Tuesday next, and that thirteen minute guns be fired at sunrise, at noon, and at sunset on that day. GEO. HOWARD, Nov. 16, 1832.

From the Baltimore American, Nov. 16. CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON IS NO MORE! The last of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, which connected this seat in the city of New York, at the or-this generation with the past, with that illustrious race of statesmen, philanthropists and patriots, the founders of American Independence, and the benefactors of the world, now and for all time hereafter, is broken. The brotherhood of glory is reunited above, and the brotherhood of the living is an association and veneration of the living to an association and veneration of the dead.

These tidings, though in the course of nature not unexpected in some degree, will be received with solemn feelings by the American nation. One whose name has been famous in every mouth, for reverence and affection in every heart, who was the sole living relic of the days of our fathers—their sufferings, their constancy, and all the glories which have succeeded, making us and our country the pride and the hope of the world, has been taken away from our eyes, and even the American heart feels as though it had been bereaved of some near and cherished person.

Deep, sincere and universal will be these sensations, and mingled with them, the solemn reflections that the long career of the illustrious dead was eminently fortunate—the large estate which he inherited, and which he had in our revolutionary struggle, while it furnished his youth and manhood with every rational pleasure, enjoyment and accomplishment, conforming to his endowments and liberal taste, made his old age one of ease and influence, of generous hospitality and liberal benevolence. A numerous and honorable family grew up around him, sweetening the closing of his life with the prospect of early enjoyments, the completion of the domestic circle, and the close of a career, which extended twenty years beyond the allotment which from a former age, and that of the present generation, had not been taken to account.

By order, S. STERETT, C. M.

Funeral procession. Mourners, Pall bearers, the Rev. Clergy, and Physicians, will assemble at the dwelling of Richard Caton, Esq. at 8 o'clock this morning. The Mayor and City Council, President and directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, and all City Officers, will assemble at the City Hall.

On Saturday the last tribute of respect was paid by the citizens of Baltimore to the remains of their illustrious townsman, the last of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was followed reverentially to the grave, by a numerous concourse, in the order and with the ceremonies prescribed by the previous arrangements of the City Authorities. The funeral solemnities were performed according to the rites of the church of which he was a member, and his body deposited in the spot, designated by himself in his life time, as his resting place in death.

From the Baltimore American, Nov. 16. CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON IS NO MORE! The last of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, which connected this seat in the city of New York, at the or-organization of the government, on the thirtieth of April, 1789. He was elected a second time to this situation.

In the year 1801, he quitted public life at the age of sixty-four and for thirty years and upwards, has passed a life of serene tranquillity and happiness, till in the fullness of years and honours, the Patriarch has been gathered to his fathers—and the last of the signers is dead.

Mr. Carroll departed this life on Wednesday morning about four o'clock, at the residence of his son-in-law, R. Caton, Esq. in East Water-street. In testimony of respect for the memory of the deceased, the flags of the shipping and public places were displayed throughout the day at half-mast. On the announcement of the fact to the Baltimore county court, yesterday, the court was adjourned.

From the Baltimore American. FUNERAL OF CHAS. CARROLL OF CARROLLTON. ORDER OF PROCESSION. November 17th, 1832. TRUMPET. BAND OF MUSIC. CHIEF MARSHAL. Committee of Arrangement. Clergy. Physicians.

Mourners. Pall bearers. J. M. PATTERSON, ROBERT OLIVER, ROBERT BARRY. Pall bearers. JOHN HOFFMAN, DR. J. L. STEWART.

MAYOR OF THE CITY. Members of the City Council, and Officers. Electors of Mayor. GOVERNOR OF THE STATE. Heads of Departments. Senators and Members of Congress. Executive Council. Delegates. President and Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road (of which he was a member.) Foreign Ministers and other Public Functionaries. Invited Strangers. Chancellor and Judges of the Courts. Society of Cincinnati and Soldiers of the Revolution. Officers of the Army and Navy. Collector and other officers of the Customs. U. S. Marshal and Sheriff of the County. Magistrates. Citizens under the direction of Assistant Marshals.

Funeral procession. Mourners, Pall bearers, the Rev. Clergy, and Physicians, will assemble at the dwelling of Richard Caton, Esq. at 8 o'clock this morning. The Mayor and City Council, President and directors of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road Company, and all City Officers, will assemble at the City Hall.

On Saturday the last tribute of respect was paid by the citizens of Baltimore to the remains of their illustrious townsman, the last of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence. He was followed reverentially to the grave, by a numerous concourse, in the order and with the ceremonies prescribed by the previous arrangements of the City Authorities. The funeral solemnities were performed according to the rites of the church of which he was a member, and his body deposited in the spot, designated by himself in his life time, as his resting place in death.

From the Baltimore American, Nov. 16. CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON IS NO MORE! The last of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, which connected this seat in the city of New York, at the or-

The public authorities and the citizens of Baltimore have thus paid their individual portion of the respect due to the illustrious Dead. He was their fellow-citizen, their neighbour, their friend, and as such they owed him a double duty of respect and veneration. His name and services are national property, and what they have thought it their duty to do, in honouring his remains, is but a small and unconsiderable portion of the general and unanimous homage to his memory, which the whole nation will spontaneously pay, on the receipt of the solemn tidings of his death.

The New York papers received on Saturday afternoon, are in mourning on account of the death of Mr. Carroll. The Corporate authorities of Philadelphia are about to take measures to testify their respect for the character of the deceased.

From the Washington Globe of Friday. The last survivor of the Signers of the Declaration of Independence, he who for nearly years has been the precious relic of the band of July 4th, 1776, is no more! The death of CHARLES CARROLL of Carrollton, is announced to us.

As a mark of the respect due to the occasion, the Offices of the United States Government in this City, will be closed to-morrow, the 16th instant. ANDREW JACKSON. Washington, Nov. 15th, 1832. To the President of the United States. The undersigned having been appointed by the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, a committee to await upon the President and Heads of Departments, and invite them to join with their fellow citizens in showing the last testimonial of respect to the remains of the late CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON, have the honour to state that they are at present at Gadsby's Hotel, and desirous to know at what time it will be agreeable to the President to receive the invitation of which they are the bearers.

JNO. I. DONALDSON, ISAAC F. LIGHTNER, JOB SMITH, JR., SAMUEL MOORE, FRANCIS H. DAVIDGE. Washington Nov. 15th, 1832. WASHINGTON, Nov. 15th 1832. Gentlemen—I am filled with emotions of the most heartfelt sorrow, at the death of our friend, the sage and patriot, CHARLES CARROLL OF CARROLLTON, which you have announced to me in your note of this date. My sympathy with my country, and with the relatives and neighbours of the deceased on this melancholy occasion, is rendered more poignant because it will be deprived of the gratifying relief which a participation in the funeral honours that are to be paid him by the authorities of Baltimore, is calculated to afford.

Please assure the friends of the deceased that nothing but the most imperious public duty, demanding all my time at this moment, could prevent my taking a part in the proceedings which you inform me have been adopted by the authorities of Baltimore, in honour of his burial. No one estimated higher than I did, his claims, whilst living, upon the gratitude and love of his country; none will cherish more sacredly his memory now that he is taken from us by the Great Disposer of the affairs of this world. I have the honour to be, with great respect, Your very obt. servant. ANDREW JACKSON. Messrs. Jno. I. Donaldson, Isaac F. Lightner, Job Smith, junr., Samuel Moore, Francis H. Davidge, Committee.

COURT OF APPEALS—Adjourned June Term 1832. Friday, November 16—Present the whole court. No. 192. John L. Hammond, et al. vs. George R. Gaither, et al. In this case a motion was made by the appellants to dismiss the appeal.

No. 123. Donnell's Ex'rs. vs. Pawson's Adm'rs. The argument of this case was concluded by Wirt for the Appellants, in reply to Saturday, Nov. 17th.—Present as yesterday. No. 125. Watchman & Bratt vs. Chas. Crook, Jr. et al. The argument of this case was commenced by Gill for the Appellants, and Evans for the appellees.

The death of Charles Carroll, of Carrollton, the last of the illustrious signers of the Declaration of Independence, having been suggested to the court here by the Attorney General of the United States, it was thereupon Ordered, That in testimony of their high estimation of the private virtues of his deceased, and as a mark of respect for his great public services, the members of this court will wear crepe on the left arm for the remainder of the term, and that it be recommended to the members of the bar, and to the officers of the courts, to do the same, and that they do the same, the foregoing perpetual memory of the deceased, order be entered, at length upon the records of the court, and that the court do forthwith adjourn, until Monday morning the 19th instant, at 9 o'clock. Monday, Nov. 19th.—Present as on Saturday. The argument of No. 125 was continued by Johnson for the Appellants, in reply to No. 129.—Matthew P. Mitchell vs. James Dill. The argument of this case was commenced by Johnson for the Appellant, and Williams for the Appellee. Tuesday, Nov. 20th.—Present as yesterday. The argument of No. 129, Mitchell vs. Dill, was concluded by Williams for the Appellee, and Johnson for the Appellant. No. 154. John C. Farrow's Adm'rs. vs. Bartholomew Goddard, vs. Campbell. The argument of this case was commenced by Williams for the Appellants. Wednesday, Nov. 21st.—Present as yesterday. No. 145. Watchman & Bratt vs. Charles Cook Jr. et al. The argument of this case was concluded by Taney (Atty. Gen. U. S.) for the Appellants. No. 154. John C. Farrow's Adm'rs. vs. Lemuel Goddard, use of James Campbell. This case was further argued by Williams for the Appellants.

RACING. A challenge to the world for $10,000!—The Secretary of the Tree-Hill Club is authorised and requested, to make known, that the produce of Medley, three years old next Spring, will run over the Tree-Hill Course, the day preceding the next Fall regular meeting, against the produce of any other horse, of the same age, two, three or four mile heats, for the sum of Ten Thousand Dollars, to close the 1st of January next. November 19th, 1832. Any gentlemen disposed to accept this bold defiance, to run at that time and place, can be accommodated by addressing a letter to the Secretary of the Club to that effect, and all the preliminary arrangements can be made. By the Secretary of the Tree-Hill Club. [Richmond Whig.]

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION. MARYLAND ELECTORAL ELECTION. First District—Comprising St. Mary's, Charles, Prince-George's, Montgomery, Calvert, Anne-Arundel, (including Annapolis), Frederick, Washington and Allegany. Second District—Baltimore city. Third District—Baltimore county. Fourth District—Comprising Harford, Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester, Somerset and Worcester.

No opposition to the Clay ticket in this county. From the Baltimore Republican. A REBUKE. The Philadelphia Inquirer expresses the opinion, that we whistled too soon about the result of the election in Delaware. We reply, that such is not the fact. We have obtained the Governor, and that is almost the only point of importance. The chord by which the State has been bound down by an intolerant faction, is severed; and the intelligence and virtue of the state will soon have the management of its affairs. Such a result is worth whistling for more than once.

From the Kentucky Gaz.—Extra, Nov. 12, 1832. We give below all the intelligence we have received in relation to the election in Kentucky. The returns are certain from every District except Lyon's, and we have returns from all that District but two counties, and giving the majority we received in August in those counties, makes the majority as stated at 2600.

Table with columns: Majorities, JACKSON, CLAY. Lists names and vote counts for various counties.

From the Indiana Democrat—Extra, Nov. 10. Since our paper was put to press this morning, the returns from several counties have come to hand, and knowing the anxiety of our friends, we hasten to lay them before the public. OFFICIAL. Clay. Jackson. Lists names and vote counts.

REPORTED MAJORITIES. Lists names and vote counts for various counties.

FOREIGN. FRANCE. The packet ship Bally, at New York, brings to the editors of the Courier Paris papers to the 4th ult. Louis Philippe had not yet made choice of the members of his new cabinet. The accounts on this subject which have reached us by the way of England, are premature. It appears certain that M. de Broglie is a prominent individual in the arrangements about to be made, but beyond this all is conjecture. The question is, however, evidently on the verge of a settlement. It is said that the King's desire appointing another ministry will be instantly followed by a conyocation of the legislative bodies. In regard to Belgium, there is still nothing da-

Table with columns: Epiph., Montgomery, Books, Vign., Warren, Verallion, Oren, Gibson, Keas, Osgood. Lists names and vote counts.

Majority for Jackson, 2700. The counties yet to be heard from will increase the Jackson majority about 1800 votes, which will make a total majority of near four thousand five hundred votes in Indiana. This may be depended upon.

NORTH CAROLINA. J. & V. C. & Serr. Lists names and vote counts.

From the Baltimore Republican. A REBUKE. The Philadelphia Inquirer expresses the opinion, that we whistled too soon about the result of the election in Delaware. We reply, that such is not the fact. We have obtained the Governor, and that is almost the only point of importance.

From the Kentucky Gaz.—Extra, Nov. 12, 1832. We give below all the intelligence we have received in relation to the election in Kentucky. The returns are certain from every District except Lyon's, and we have returns from all that District but two counties, and giving the majority we received in August in those counties, makes the majority as stated at 2600.

Table with columns: Majorities, JACKSON, CLAY. Lists names and vote counts for various counties.

From the Indiana Democrat—Extra, Nov. 10. Since our paper was put to press this morning, the returns from several counties have come to hand, and knowing the anxiety of our friends, we hasten to lay them before the public. OFFICIAL. Clay. Jackson. Lists names and vote counts.

REPORTED MAJORITIES. Lists names and vote counts for various counties.

FOREIGN. FRANCE. The packet ship Bally, at New York, brings to the editors of the Courier Paris papers to the 4th ult. Louis Philippe had not yet made choice of the members of his new cabinet. The accounts on this subject which have reached us by the way of England, are premature. It appears certain that M. de Broglie is a prominent individual in the arrangements about to be made, but beyond this all is conjecture. The question is, however, evidently on the verge of a settlement. It is said that the King's desire appointing another ministry will be instantly followed by a conyocation of the legislative bodies. In regard to Belgium, there is still nothing da-