The following accounts direct from Antwerp, bring the advices down to 7 o'clock, P. M. of Saturday, Hecember 1st, are compiled from the correspondence of the Times and Morning Herald:

Jaturday Morning, Dec. 1st.—
10 o'clock.—The French have worked all night, notwithstanding the rain, and have already completed a battery in the garden called 'The !larmony,' between Forts Montebel-lo and St. Laurant. During the night the darkness did not allow the Dutch to see the men at work. Few gans were heard at ten of Deputies,

It is asserted on the best authority, that the French works will be ready for operations in full to-morroy. The wet weather will, it is feared, do the troops more injury than Chas-

General Desprez, the head of the Belgian staff, who has been in this city during the last four days has gone to Lierre, the head quarters of the Belgian army. Some suppose the Prince of Orange will move in that quarter.

Twelve-o'clock —During the early part of the morning the French pushed a reconnoisance of cavalry and infantry along the dyke from Calioo towards the Fort St. Isabel, where a smart fire of musketsy was kept up on both sides. The French retired afterward down to their former posts on the dyke.
