levy court of Somerset county, praying the passage of an act, authorising said court to rondemn lands for certain purposes therein mentioned.

Mr Harper presented a memorial and petition of owners of property in Light street, counter to test of George Beltzboover, agent

Mr. Forwood presented a petition of surilry citizens of Harford county, praying that William Stockdale, may be placed on the pension list of said county.

Mr. George A. Thomas presented a petition of sundry citizens of Cecil county, pray-ing the passage of a law to call a convention to reform the constitution of the state of Ma-

Mr. Bruce presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Allegany county:

And, Mr. Hammond presented a memorial of sandry citizens of Frederick county, severally expressing their painful regret at the report of the committee on internal improvereport of the committee or internal improves and courts of justice, we instructed to inquire ments, requiring the Chesipeake and Ohio had been unto the propriety and expediency of passing that Company, to relinquish a part of its a law to present free negroes or mulattees that to the Bultimore and Ohio Rail Road from purchasing slaves, under any circumstantees, and praying the Logislature to adopt the Company. such measures as will ensure the Canal Comtate, a speedy and uninterrupted proster of sta work to Cumberland

The speaker laid before the house a term . of the trustees of the West Notting am A. which was read and referred to the consent to some other situation within this hall.

the eastern shore of this state, passed at December session 1831, chapter 249.

Mr. Turner reported a bill, to incorporate

And Mr. George A. Thomas, reported an in Queen Anne's county.

The bill reported by Mr. Compton, chairman of the committee on divorces, to divorce her husband William B. Bond.

And the bill reported by Mr. Harper, to And, Mr. Mann reported a bill for the re-incorporate the Central Savings Institution of valuation of the real and personal property

Were severally taken up for consideration to repeal so much of the act of December sessien 1831, chapter 223, as relates to the lands of Stephen J. Bradley of Caroline county, endorsed 'will pass,' ordered to be en-

Also, the bill to incorporate the Baltimore Snuff Mill company,
Also, the supplement to the act, to incorporate the Warren Manufacturing company; severally endorsed, 'will pass,' with the pro-Which amendments were severally read the first and second time by special order, severally assented to, and the bill ordered to be Also, the resolution in favour of John B.

Arinistrad, endursed, 'assented to,' ordered man of the committee on divorces, to di-vorce Ann Elizabeth Amanda Christiana Armstrong, from her husband Henry Armstrong of Saint Mary's county-And,

The bill reported by Mr. Hammond, for the benefit of George M. Tyler, of the city of Frederick, in Frederick county, Were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, and passed. On motion by Mr. Bruce, the house took up for consideration, the bill reported by Mr. Louthan, to incorporate a company, to make a turnpike road from such point as the Somerset and Cumberland turnpike road company, of Pennsylvania, shall fix upon, at the Pennsyvania line, to the public square, in the town of Cumberland,

Which was read the second time, amended, and passed.

Monday, Feb. 25th. 1833. Mr. Gittings presented a petition of Ben-jamin Adams, of Montgomery county, pray-ing pecuniary relief by county assessment. Mr. Hammond presented a petition of sun-passage of a law for the improvement of horses as therein proposed.

Mr. Hobbs presented a mailtien of Planta

Mr. Mann presented a petition of Henry Beterbehner, and Henry Nymon, in relation to a resolution passed this house the fourth inst. in favour of Alexander Shafer; Also, presented a certificate and affidavi of Jones Hogmire, of Washington county, in relation to said resolution in favour of Alexander Shafer. Mr. Turner asked leave to bring in a to alter, amend and explain, an act passed at December session, 1891, chap. 281. Mr. Bruce obtained leave to bring in a bill o exempt justices of the orphans' court, from serving as jurors.

Mr. Evans obtained leave to bring in a sup dement to an act to elect commissioners for Cecil county, passed at December session, 1831, chapter 164, for purposes therein mentioned. On motion by Mr. Nicols,

Ordered, That the committee on grievance and courts of justice, be instructed to inquire

On motion by Mr. Harper, Ordered, That the committee on the libra ry be instructed to inquire whether the picture of Washington in this ball is not exposed to great injury, and even destruction. from hanging where it does; and also whether mittee on education.

Mr. Turner, obtained leave to bring in a amble and resolution.

Whereas, by a resolution of this General section, the following:

Whereas, by a resolution of this General section, the following:

And be it enacted. That one third of the annual personal property in Baltimore county. Mr. Cottinan obtained leave to bring in a adjusting general of this state was required to amount heretofore paid to the state by the sesuplement to an act passed at December sees stoke from his records the names of all such some 1831, chapter 281.

And be it enacted, that one third of the such repairs to be made as the circumstances around the retofore paid to the state by the sesuplement to an act passed at December sees stoke from his records the names of all such seed existing banks in the city of Baltimore, of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances around that they are called the case of the case may demand, for the preservation such repairs to be made as the circumstances.

Mr. Unkefer reported a hill, to lay out and open a road through Frederick and Biltimore open a road through Frederick and Biltimore of the report themselves as required.

By it therefore resolved by the General Assembly of the resolved by the General Assembly of the resolved of the res semply of Maryland, That the aforesaid re-Also reported a bill, to lay out and open a solution passed on the 14th of March, 1852, road in Prederick and Baltimore counties.

be and the same is hereby suspended in its adding at the end thereof, the following as an operation for the period of four months, so additional section. for the protection of oysters in the waters of far as relates to the removal from commission of such officers as may not have reported the organization of the bank to be established themselves agreeably to the requirements of that resolution, and that all the said officers Baltimore, shall be released from any subse-Mr. Turner reported a bill, to incorporate that resolution, and that all the said officers Baltimore, shall be released from any subsective reported a bill, to incorporate the Hereford Savings Institution of Baltimore to allowed until the 1st day of July next to quent payment of the per centage on their the Hereford Savings Institution of Baltimore, shall be released from any subsective day of July next to quent payment of the per centage on their temperatures agreed by said resolu-

And Mr. George A. Thomas, reported at additional supplement to an act, to incorporate the Port Deposit and Chesapeake Turnpike Road Company, passed at December pike Road Company, passed at December think most likely to convey general informations to the property of the Road Company of The bill reporter by Mr. Roberts, for the tion to all officers heretofore holding militia after the word 'Baltimore,' revaluation of the real and personal property commissions, of this further extension of the all other banks of this state.' time for them to report themselves to his de-

Mr. Rogerson reported a bill to authorise ommissioners to divide Charles county into school districts.

in Washington county.

The bill reported by Mr. Roberts, to re

Were severally taken up for consideration and the second time, passed, and sent to the peal part of an act passed December session, 1824, chapter 167, authorising gates to be The clerk of the Senate returned the bill, kept on the public roads in Queen Arne's

The bill reported by Mr. Grove, entitled, A supplement to an act passed at November session, 1802, chapter 81, to make public the proceedings of the Lovy courts in the several counties of this state, and for other purposes. so far as relates to Washington county.

The bill reported by Mr. Wright, of Queen Anne's, entitled, A further supplement to an act, to enlarge the bounds of Ceutreville and for other purposes.

The bill reported by Mr. Hearn, to authority rise the clerk of Worcester county court to record a certain deed therein mentioned.

Were severally taken up for consideration

read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate.

and delivered a bill originated in and passed by the Benate, entitled. An act to incorporate the General Insurance Company of Maryland.

The bill reported by Mr. Compton, chairman of the committee on divorces. In the committee on divorces to the committee on divorces. On motion by Mr. Teackle, the house took | Hammond,

On motion by Mr. Teackle, the house was called, and the door-keeper sent for the absent members, who after short time had elaps-ed, returned and reported that all the members were in attendance.

The house then resumed the consideration of said bill and amendments.

Mr. Jenkins moved to amend the first s mendment, by striking out from the word ten titled,' in the fourth line, to the word tstock, inclusive, in the seventh line and inserting in lieu thereof the following, in these words, to number of directors equalato the number

Determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Jenkins said amendment was amended by striking out in the twenty second line thereof the word 'hundred.'

On motion by Mr. Merrick, said amend-On motion by Mr. Merrick, said amend- the first and second time by special order, nent was further amended, by striking out severally assented to, and the bills ordered n the same line the word 'one,' and insertng in lien thereof the word 'ten.'

Determined in the negative.

Determined in the negative.

The said amendments were then read the second time and assented to:

Mr. Harper moved to amend said bill by adding at the end thereof as an additional section, the following:

And be it enacted. That before this act shall have the force of law or go into operaation, the Governor shall, he and with the advice and consent of the council, transmit active and consent of the council, transmit a copy of the same to the judges of the court of appeals, and it shall be the duty of the taid judges to transmit their opinion in writing to the exceptive, upon the question when ther the said act is or is not in violation of the contract between the state and the exist-ing banking institutions in the city of Baltimore, by the act of 1813, chapter 122, or by any other act or acts of Assembly now in force; and the Governor shall lay the said opinion before the General Assembly at their next session, and the said act shall not have the force of law not go into operation, unless it be approved and passed, with or without modification, by the General Assembly at the said session.

provement;
And, Mr. Hobbs presented a petition of Richard I. Jones, of the city of Annapolis, counter to the petition of certain individuals of Kent Island, in Q. Anne's county, in resaid session.

Which was read. Mr. Wright, of Queen Anne's, moved to mend the amendment proposed by Mr. Harper, by striking out the words judges of the court of appeals,' and inserting in lieu there of the words Attorney General."
Determined in the negative.

The question then recurred upon the adoption of the amendment.

Determined in the negative. Mr. Furner moved to amend said biff by adding at the end thereof, as an additional section the following:

And be it enacted. That this act shall be of no force or effect unless it he approved with or without modification by the next general assembly.

Determined in the negative.

Mr Jenkins moved to amend said bill, by Mr. Cottman obtained leave to bring in a adjust at general of this state was required to supplement to an act passed at December session, 1831, chapter 281.

Mr. Nicols, obtained leave to bring in a model of the inditia of this state, as should not in obedience to a notice directed by the lill, to incorporate Cambridge Lodge, No.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the committee on in first day of November then next; and.

Mr. Somerville, from the contract made between existing branks in the city of Baltimore, sear lexisting branks in the city of Baltimore, with the confract made between and safety of the building—and that they draw on the treasurer of the western shore, for such sum or sums as may be necessary to contract made between the city of the state by the city of the city of the case may demand, for the preservation and safety of the building—and that they draw on the treasurer of the western shore, for such sum or sums as may be necessary to contract made between the city of the state by the city of the case may demand, for the preservation and safety of the building—and that they or contract made between the city of the state by the city of the case may demand, for the preservation and safety of the building—and that they or cont Wr. Somerville, from the committee on in Spections, reported a bill, supplementary to an act, authorising the appointment of inspections of wood, in the city of Baltimore, and to regulate the same.

Idenselves to his department on the before the same of the any future payment by virtue of the said con-

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Jeakins moved to amend said bill, by

And be it enacted. That from and after tions, they agreed to pay to the state, under the provisions of the act of 1813, chap. 122,

The question was then put, shall the said hill pass. On motion by Mr. Teackle, the year and AFFIRMATIVE.

Messrs. Thomas, speake,r Blakistone, Heard, Hayne, Chandler, Garrettson, Elliman of the committee on divorces, entitled, cott, Merrick, Miller, Muild, Turner, Ely, An act to divorce John Wachter, of Freder-Stevens, Mulliken, Dudley, Bruff, Teackle, lick county, from his wife Sonhia Wachter; Janes, Nicols, Travers, Roberts, Larrimore, Hearn, Milbourne, Powell, Forwood, Holl-man, Grove, Lantz, Louthan, Slicer-31. NEGATIVE.

Hammond, Johns, Sutton, Hope, Carter, lammond, Johns, Sutton, Hope, Carter, Jump, Richardson, of Car. Jenkins. Harper, Maun. Weast, White, Harding, Bruce—32

The bill reported by Mr. Louthan, to au-

And the offire present all that part of the constitution and form of government as redates to the division of Washington county, line counties.

And the offire present and the indolent and safe accounts of the connection of the indolent and safe accounts of the counties. constitution and form of government as re-lates to the division of Washington county, into seven election districts, and for other purposes, Also, the bill, to incorporate the Central Savings Institution of Bultimore, Also, the bill, to divorce Mary E. Bond of the city of Baltimore, from her husband Wil liam B. Bond, severally endorsed, will pass,' ordered to be engrossed, Also, the bill, to incorporate, the Chatsworth water company, of Baltimore, Also, the bill to incorporate the South Bal-timore company; severally endorsed, will pass with the proposed amendments; Which amendments were severally read to be engrossed,

Also, the bill, to repeal an act to declare Mr. Ely moved to amend the second amend-ment, by striking out the words, with the ses, passed at December session 1826, chap-county, endorsed, will not pass.

Also, delivered a bill, originated in and passed by the Senate, entitled, Awact relating to Vine street, in the city of Baltimore.

The house then adjourned.

Tgesday, Feb 26th. 1835. Mr. Harper presented a petition of Bethial Sands, of the city of Baltimore, maying for a divorce from her husband John Bands;

Also, presented a memorial of the grand jury of the city court of Baltimore, concerning the operation of the license have of the state, in relation to the sale, of apiritaous li-

Mr. Burgess presented a petition of sun dry citizens of A. Arundel county, praying for an act to open and make public a road Mr. Mann presented a memorial of sundry citizens of Washington county, counter to the report of the committee on Internal Improvement ting as a court of equity, to decree and order the sale of certain real estate.

On motion by Mr. Harper, Ordered, That the committee on education; be instructed to enquire in the expediency of with which the fact of the extirpation of the or distributing the school fund, that the same Parotid Gland was denied by the learned may be appropriated according to the number gentleman, the class perceiving, as the

Resolved by the General Assembly of Maryland. That the governor and council, be, and they are hereby authorised and requested to take some immediate step to ascertain ing, Inever fire at a Dirren, when I cange the necessity and propriety of remedying the a shot at a CANNASS-BACK; and baring sall present defects of the roof of the state house, so, he proceeded to make use of the language. and that they in their discretion, shall cause

Washington county.

Mr. Jenkins reported a bill, for increasing

Mr. Johns reported a supplement to an act to compel the registers of wills in the several counties therein contained, to keep each of his offices at the seat of justice, in the county for which he shall be register, passed December session 1804, chapter 39, so far as re-

Mr. Pratt, from the joint committee, re ported a supplement to an act, to reduce into admit this. I cannot allow that it was appoone, the several acts of assembly, respecting site. Indeed, I think if the Natural History elections, and to regulate said elections.

On motion by Mr. Jenkins, seconded by two other members, who voted in the majori

The bill reported by Mr. Pratt. to authorise Catharine Bowie, of Prince George's On motion by Mr. Teackle, the year and county, an intant under the age of twenty-one years, to convey to William D. Bowie, certain real estate.

The bill reported by Mr. Compton, chair-Also, the bill reported by him, entitled, An act to divorce Allen Warfield, of Anne-Arundel county, field.

Were severally taken up for consideration, read the second time, passed, and sent to the senate. The clerk of the senate returned the bill to authorise the conveyance of certain real estate therein mentioned, endorsed, will pass with the proposed amendments;"

Which amendments were severally read the first and second time by special office, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed. The hour for taking up the order of the day having arrived, the house proceeded to con-sider the order of the day, being the report of the select committee, to which was referred the memorial of the visitors and govern-Mr. Teackle moved to day the report on the tables

Resolved in the affirmative. The house then adjourned. Maryland Bagette.

ANNAPOLISI Thursday, February 29, 1883.

A COMMENCEMENT

of St. John's College trok place on the cos The following arrangements took placer it PRAYER.

PRAYER

1. The Point of the Union Orition of John Hardcastle Colbeeth.

2. De Interim Recom. A Poem, by N. than Covingt in Brooks Music.
3. The Epicurean Philosophy. An Ora-tion by Robert Burner Culbreth. Music, a tion by Robert Busines to the superintend Edu.
4. The duly of a State to superintend Edu. cation - An Oration by Thomas Karney H.
Music

5. Pegrees Conferred. 6. Address to the Alumni by the Presidest. PRAYER.

Mr. Schler obtained leave to bring in a bill empowering the Frederick county court sitempowering the Frederick county court sitempowering the Frederick county of equity, to decree and order dramville Sharp l'attison, M. D. on the 22d January. 1833. "It appears that on the occasion of thele. ture referred to, from the unusual warming Mr. Nicols, from the joint committee on the Professor's remarkable excitement, begu the Library, submitted the following resolu-tion: to titter, and to wink at each other. This bear perceived by the distinguished teacher, h perceived by the distinguished teacher, a made a remark to the following effect: "I made a remark to the following so, he proceeded to make use of the language, which I must beg leave, for the reasons before stated, not even to repeat to you.

Now, really gentlemen, this lively, sprightly, sporting, facetious, remark about the Dip. per and the Canvass-back is one which resistand not allow to excite your choler. It's perfectly good tempered, and only indicates of wit and humour. I am very fond of is mor myself, and when an important factor be impressed on your minds by association with a sprightly observation, I do not head to indulge in it. You are all aware, that it though I have the reputation of being a ten ill-tempered, "turbulent person," that this far from being the fact. Indeed, my taste far good-humoured raillery will not suffer me to allow the sprightly observation about shooting Canvass-backs and Dippers to pass, without passing observation. Observe, I have told you that I view the observation about the ducks as perfectly innocent; but, although I of the Cancass back and Dipper be inquired into, it will be admitted that the learned gestleman, in making the former the representa-tive of Mr. Bell and other distriguished sirthe provisions of the act of 1813, chap. 122, and the various supplements thereto.

Mr. Hollman moved to amend the amendment proposed by Mr. Jenkins, by inserting after the word 'Baltimore,' the words, 'and Oc motion by Mr. Teackle, said bill was ed, and the members of the profession was The question then recurred and was put on the adoption of the amendment 2s amended.

Determined in the negative.

Mr. Harper, moved to recommit the bill to the committee on ways and means, with instructions to provide that the charter shall not be altered by Mr. Jenkins, to incorporate the Fells Point Savings Institution of the move that the charter shall not be altered by Mr. Jenkins, to incorporate the Fells Point Savings Institution of the members of the profession was recy unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the table.

The bill reported by Mr. Hollman, to incorporate respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the possess no reputation, was very unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the first possess no reputation, was very unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the form williams-port to Hagerstown.

The bill reported by Mr. Hollman, to incorporate respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the possess no reputation, was very unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the possess no reputation, was very unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the possess no reputation, was very unhappy in his illustration. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well roasted, and placed on the possess no reputation. No person, 1 admit, has a greater respect for a fine Canvars-back duck, when he is well reasted and possess no reputation. be altered or changed without the consent of individual and other stockholders, other than the state.

Determined in the negative.

Determined in the negative.

Determined in the negative. me to give a decided preference to his con panion; and to lead me to think that the learhappy in his good-humoured sally, had be esloyed the Dipper as the representative of the

Those gentlemen who are conversant wide the habits of the two species of ducks, mind be aware that the Cawass-back is a large lazy, fat bird, which floats indoleutly on the surface of the water; that the Dipper on the contrary, is a most active, energetic little bird, which is incessantly in motion; diving Compton, Billingsley, Rogerson, Holmes, Wright, of Dor. George A Thomas, Evans, Hobbs, Wright, of Q. A. Unkefer, Schley, Hobbs, Wright, of Q. A. Unkefer, Schley, tate the collection of the transfer of the bill reported by Mr. Turner, to facilihappens that, when the sprightly, artice Dipper comes to the surface with his Jump, Richardson, of Car. Jenkins, Harper, Jump, Richardson, of Car. Jenkins, Harper, Mann, Weast, White, Harding, Bruce—32

So the bill was rejected.

The clerk of the Senate returned the bill, for the relief of Frederick A Steuart, of the city of Baltimore,

And the bill reported by Mr. Wright, of the min so much labour to obtain. I fear, given the bill to report of the latter of the latte cumstances, too often seize upon the god things of the profession, which should, sid-justice, have been awarded to their more se-tive and energetic, but less fortunate brethre list allowing that the Cancass-back dud was, really, the more praiseworthy hird, and consequently, the better representative at the list of distinguished sargeon, I regret that you shed have allowed yourselves to have been anored by having had your distinguished Profess of Surgery characterized by any company which could be intended to have the effect epresenting him as an indifferent Surg Recollect gentlemen, the declaration of opponent, that an individual is a person inferior intellect, and one destitute of all excater, neither anbiracts from the power of highly pifted mind, nor dimirishes the last of a brilliant and well-earned reputation.

There is an anecdote which seems to mind at this moment, which I shall related

It is a true story. It occurred to my-and deriving from it, as I did, a valuable of water, on, I feel surious forespeat it, that you which it teaches.

on, I feel surious forespess, it has you believe the moral with it teaches. It is the moral of the Fairmount, Water Works, after to the Fairmount, Water Works, after the came to rest myself by learning against came to rest myself by learning against their entitle parset wall enclosing the artificial spect their entitle parset wall enclosing the artificial spect their entitle parset wall enclosing the artificial spect are horizon; he shed as the gloruses of the horizon; he shed abroad that soft stern horizon; he shed abroad that soft is proposed to the soft of the soft world: I know not whether it so from you apply nording the shed is not profusion, the softest, the midest, most bewitching of his ravas such hower is shed, just before he lies, the midest, most bewitching of his ravas such bower, is the fact. You must all have experienced to the softest of the soft of the softest of the soft of the softest of the soft of the so is the fact. You must all have experiis the fact. You must all have experiis the enchantment of its influence. All its impressed with its charms, and have any its ledges its power. The lauftrape is sed out with it in her loveliest atties; and have enj
ind of man, calmed and tranquilized by most one seed out with it in her lovelless atties; and have enj mind of man, calined and tranquilized by most of luveriates in heaverly confemplation. It rope, an just such an exerting, and my mind became many of their under its influence. Not a breath of admitted thed under its intuence. Not a breath of admitted halitated the light and graceful willow, the latter of which overhung sthe silvery to the embankment of which I was retailed in the pure smooth bosom of the hing; and the pure smooth bosom of the hings. ng; and the part of the state of the son, I for the state of the son, I for the state of the sta ple: its slumber was only, block racter, f eful movements of a magnificent racter, f whom I nhich feated majestically over its sur-lam agreat admirer of Swans, and I ty, The who from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman. They just a lighted from a carriage; and from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman. They just alighted from a carriage; and from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman. They just alighted from a carriage; and from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman they just alighted from a carriage; and from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman. They just alighted from a carriage; and from the strangers, a lady and a gentleman. They just a guite evident that the obraphilety with was quite evident that the ob-flake, it was quite evident that the ob-of their visit was to examine something these re the they expected to discover there; and ich they expected to discover there; and the fact in haste betokened their fear that the appointing shades of twilight might conceal it muther view. They happened to reach the tet of water at the very point where I was surgeon ted, and having anxiously surveyed it for ew seconds, the lady pointing to the Swaning entleman exclaimed, "Pooh! that is no ano; that's nothing but a big Goose!" I unhes ted at what I very uncharitably conceived. steas for a moment, I felt irritated and dissisted at what I very uncharitably conceived be the most unpardonable stupidity in my mpanions; but better and more charitable paghts soon dismissed all irritation from my ind. I felt it was unjust in me to be another the interest by the innurance of my naidabance. yed by the ignorance of my neighbours. 1 yed by the ignorance on the superior advan-norstulated myself on the superior advan-tes I had enjoyed; I had travelled much; I d seen many Swans.

The noble bird, as he sailed gracefully ang, seemed to read me a lesson which, I ust, in after life, I may profit by recollectust, in after life, I may point by recentled g. Seeing his own beautiful form reflected on the face of Nature's Mirrory he was in a current of the stranger. He felt that to call im a goose did not alter his identity. He lit that he was really and ruly, a Swan. So the stranger with Doctor George Parme entlemen, has it been with Doctor George In Clellan's colleagues. They know, and her jastly apprepriate the high order of his stellect. They feel that every person who comes acquainted with him, must admit Huntin ecomes acquainted with him, must admit hat he is a most eminent and highly gifted lurgeon; and should now one from his not aring had the advantage of his acquaintance, eignorant of this fact, they do not feel any with them on account of their ignorance; her only confractulate themselves on their has superior glid fortune. You, gentlementare had opportanities for estimating the targets and the superior acquirements of your rofessor of Surgery; and should you at any inchercafter hear their questioned by others, the may not have enjoyed your advantages, recall to mind the lesson taught, and the noecall to mind the lesson taught, and the mo-inculcated by THE STORY OF THE SWAN. Before I conclude these introductory ob. rvations, I would guard you against overthe talents and the reputation of se members of your profession, who residog at a distance, are only known to you by fame, whilst you do not justly apprecihe the characters of the distinguished men Bank whom you are associated; with whom you hre in daily communication; and the powers of whose minds are open to your own obser-lam, myself, gentlemen, as you are aware.

a foreigner, and I can hardly be suspected of having a wish to lower your admiration of my countrymen, or of that of the other distinguished men of science in Europe. But although I am a Scotchman, and although I do glory in my country, I have no paitry, pitiful national prejudices. I desire that all men should receive that meed of admiration to which their talents and acquirements entitle which their talents and acquirements entitle thems and I am, therefore, induced to make a emark, and to offer you a caution, which im persuaded you will in your future inter-course with mankind, find to be founded on

My friend, Thomas Campbell, the distinrender of the Pressures of Hore, render in speaking of the effect of distance on the objects of creation, beautifully expresses himon in Tis distance lends enchantment to the view, And inhes the landscape is her roscate hue."

Distance has, in fact, the power of enchantment. not only on the acenery of the land-scape, but likewise on the characters of men. It is probable that some of the gentlemen take to whom I now address myself, reside in the beer neighbourhood of an extensive sheet of wa- the For example, the Chesapeane Bay; if it Pair he so, I will recall to your minds a fact which hibi must frequently have excited your attention con

timo