PROPOSALS

RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D. Bishop of the P. E. Church of Md. togethe with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

EVERAL considerations combine to re commend the publication of the proposed lume. It is desirable to preserve a memo risl of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their alliance over which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigi-lance of a shephird, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gra accord maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints, "and breathing the spirit of that Sarah Battee, consisting of form of sound words," equally scriptural Household and Kitchen Furniture, a and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.

At the same time, however, that this end to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally "as a means of affording to every member of the diocess of Maryland the privi lege of co-operating in the erection of a Monu ment to their deceased and much venerated Bo shop." To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and to very many prior to his election to this charge, was he the instrument of imparting the most precious truths and consolations. It is believed that it will be a source of lively gratfication to such persons that they may preserve in their own homes and hearts a memorial of o'click, on the memory at 12 o'click on t in their own homes and hearts a memorial of his affectionate, and judicious, and evangelical instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave. That the privilege may pile upon his grave, be universally enjoy be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested is promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed and Mr. Benjamin Harwood of Rd. in South for.

The work will be printed on fine paper, an comprised in a small duodecimo volume, and delivered to subscribers neatly bound in clott backs, at 81 00 per copy.

Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work to war rant the publication, it will be immediately put to press. Persons disposed to promote the ultimate object, are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher withou
