

Mr. Harper submitted the following message, which was read, assented to, and with the bill therein mentioned, sent to the senate: Gentlemen of the senate,

We have received the message of your honourable body, informing us that you have striking but the second section of the negro bill, and expressing the wish that we would now accept the other amendments which you have attached to it. We accede to them all, except the 10th, 11th, 12th, and 13th sections, which are embraced in another law.

The clerk of the senate returned a further supplement to an act, to repeal an act, to create a board of public works, passed at December session 1825, chapter 166.

Also, the bill, to repeal an act, making appropriations for the benefit of the American Colonization Society, passed at December session 1826, chapter 172, severally endorsed, will pass, ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the additional supplement to the act, relating to the people of colour in this state, passed at December session 1831, chapter 251, endorsed, reconsidered, and will pass, ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the act supplementary to an act, relating to the University of Maryland, endorsed, will pass with the proposed amendments.

Which amendment was read the first and second time, by special order, assented to, and the bill ordered to be engrossed.

Also, the bill to authorise Clement M. Williams, of Saint Mary's county, to bring certain slaves into this state.

Also, the bill, to secure to mechanics and others, payment for labour done, and materials furnished in the erection of buildings and machinery, or either of them within this state.

Also, the further supplement to the act directing the manner of suing out attachments in this province, and limiting the extent of them, severally endorsed, will not pass.

Also, the supplement to an act, relating to free negroes and slaves, passed at December session 1831, chapter 325, endorsed, amendments reconsidered and recorded from, as proposed by the house of delegates.

The house then adjourned.

COMMUNICATION.

Mr. GARDNER. I have observed a communication from a Republican of our citizens "to the establishment of a Lyceum in this county," which is fully and ably answered in the following manner: "The Lyceum is a useful and necessary institution, and its establishment would be to the benefit of the county." It is a sentiment which has long been held by the friends of education, and it is to be regretted that it has not been more generally adopted.
