business Gels called upon tu appear ba-fore the public and state that he has been misrepresented in the prices given by him for the raw material in the line of his business, name ly. Hutes and Skins. It has been told that I give but 4 cents for Hides, while the speculator rays, I will give you 41 cents-and in some cases the speculator has doubled his muney on the country-man for his hide. I have not, since I have been in the business given less than 5 cents per pound, for good green Hides. I will at all times give d fair Baltimere price. I now offer the public in case, the following prices:

GREEN HIDES, DRY HIDES. li ets. per lb. Persons having Hides to sell, ought to sell hem to the manufacturer of the Hide, who will them to the manufacturer of the finde, who ambat all times give more than the speculator. I can at all times be found at my Tan Yard next below the store of the Messrs. Millers, where I will give the highest Baltimore price. Respectfully, DAN'L. T. HYDE.

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

SELECT CIRCLATING Librar.

THE striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated personnin the was likewise contained in the same space and it the same price. The sixth number commentes the travels of Mr. Vigne, crying in London six dollars, it will be printed entire, in the "Library" for at most thirty cents! This connection of prices the publisher trests, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the cumulation of the work in their respective neighbourhoods, as, if encouraged hereafter as he has so far been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in this form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 52 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Beer's Cyclopaciti. This volume will compute at least from twenty-live to thirty entire works, proted on 2004 paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will form two volumes of 410 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a value the addition to every public and private library. The numbers, when bound, will self for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are usually and paying subscribers.

Still nurther to increase the facilities of subscribers, the punsasher has actived another inducement for other.

ply actual paying subscribers.

Still rottier to increase the facilities of subscribers, the possister has added another inducement for clubs to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five individuals. This deduction will pay all postage.

Those who design to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by torwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and order of acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentleman who makes the selections for this periodical, to literary teste and education, has, from a situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation possessed by few; to this he alis a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in extering for an extended and moral commonity. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the Girculating Library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.

as a work which they need have no fear of introduc-ing into any circle.

The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Opium Exter.

"THE PORT-TOBACCO PRESS, and Charles & St. Mary's County Advertiser.

N presenting to the public the design of publishing a paper at Port-Tobacco, it will only be necessary briefly to explain the plantiat is intended to be pursued.

Almost every county in the state has a news paper painted in it, and it has long been a subject of surprise and regret, that the wealths. intelligent and industrious population of the two countries, (St. Mary's and Charles) should have remained so long destitute of a paper printed and published within their hunts. The projectors of the present plan confident of a liberal support from an enlightened and generous public, love issued this prospectors with an intention of devoting themselves to useful hess, increasing (as far their humble means will extend,) the general stock of information, and enlarging the sphere of useful knowledge. Its columns will be yielded to Literature and the Muses. The current news of the day will be faithfully and correctly given, whether of a foreign, or domestic relatives and the manual foreign, or domestic relatives and the manual to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that foreign or domestic nature; and the general principles of Religion and Morality strongly inculcated. Several considerations combine to revolume. It is d strable to preserve a memo-rial of all who have held a relation to the rial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their are need to mode to be so done to preside, and to power which they are chosen to preside, and to power of their doctrine and example is most feit in these parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a narroit. Yet do their exacter and influence accord maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that "form of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only and increasing sound time. and increasing veneration

At the same time, however, that this end is to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally "as a means of affording to corry member of the diocess of Mary and the privimember of the diocess of Mary and the privi-iege of co-operating in the erection of a Monu-ment to their deceased and much venerated Bi-shop." To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chaef Shepherd of the flock; and to very many, prior to his election to this charge, was he the instrument of imparting the nest precious truths and consolations. It is becation to such persons that they may preserve in their own homes, and hearts a memorial of in the own hones and hearts a memorial of his affectionate, and judicious, and evangelical instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave.
