EXHIBITION OF PLANTS, &c.
The following is a copy of a Circular being addressed to the Reverend Clergy of the Bible Societies of our State:
HARRISBURG, March 23, 1835.
Reverend and Dear Sir:
The Young Men's Bible Society of this city, in connection with other Societies, has recently commenced a second time to supply the destitute families in our state with Bibles.

In the general supply of the states for years since, there was often found a want of Bibles in our operations; in consequence of which the work was not so thoroughly accomplished in all cases as has been desired. Having learned something from the past, we are of opinion that with a little timely attention and exertion, the errors of former experience may be avoided in the present undertaking.

A system devised, which will insure a steady and permanent supply of the Sacred Scriptures hereafter to every destitute household in our state.

In view of this contemplated re-specification has been thought by some of the friends of the cause here, that it would be extremely advantageous to establish such uniform operations throughout the state as would secure the harmonious and efficient co-operation of ALL. For this purpose it has been suggested that a BIBLE CONVENTION for the city of Baltimore on the first day of May, to which every Christian congregation and Bible Society in the state, and that of the District of Columbia lying north of Potomac, shall be invited to send one or more lay delegates, without regard to age; and neither expected nor desired that they should devote exclusively upon the business of Maryland. The Society we report is but the organ of this call upon our brethren throughout the state, and we hope it will heartily responded to by those of every age and condition in life. When infidelity boldly to show its hideous front, and its broad wings in open day; or its deceptive, but not less dangerous shape, attempts to subvert those precious articles of our faith which are alike the refuge of the sinner and the consolation of the saint; surely it alarms the Christians of America to take alarm in time, and make and keep a land of Bibles.

Many important suggestions are expected to claim the serious attention of the Convention, and its proceedings cannot fail, we think to be regarded with no ordinary interest. It will prove a salutary example to the states of our confederacy, and by the blessing must give a powerful impulse to the Bible cause throughout the Union. It is believed that it will be judiciously and benevolently attended, affording gratifying evidence to our brethren abroad how much the Christian Church in Maryland love the truth and simplicity of the Bible, and how deep is the anxiety they feel that others may possess the heavenly blessing which they feel assured that no Bible Society of our confederacy can consent to remain unrepresented in it.

Respectfully,
DAN'L T. HYDE.

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

WALDIE'S SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit, and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, unharmed.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Waldie, or the Swedes in Prussia, which cost in London six dollars; it contained thirty-two numbers and a half of the circulating library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was succeeded by the Memoirs of Lavallete, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The sixth number commences the travels of M. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for not more than thirty cents. This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive the prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighborhoods, as it is intended to do, before the American public has seen from all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 32 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes of Boylston's Cyclopaedia. This volume will comprise at least ten or twelve entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book works. It will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worth a year's subscription for a library, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The publisher feels confident in stating, that the entire 32 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers have been issued, no more will be printed than will supply the demand of subscribers. Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for clubs to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five individuals. This deduction will pay all postage. Those who design to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and circle of acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentlemen who make the selections for this periodical, to literary taste and education, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation, and possessed by few to his adds a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in catering for an extended and moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the circulating library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.

The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Orator.

BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER, A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Containing the FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS of the week—a PRICE CURRENT of the Markets,—(carefully corrected)—PRICES OF STOCKS & BANK NOTE LIST—together with a variety of MISCELLANEOUS MATTER, for the instruction and amusement of its readers.

The Publishers, on commencing a new volume, have considerably improved the paper, and made such arrangements as will enable them to obtain Selections from the most popular Periodicals of the day. They therefore may confidently promise the patrons of the "VISITER," to present them with Reading Matter of the choicest description, and at an early period as any of their contemporaries. Great care will be observed in the variety served up, to blend the useful with the entertaining.

The plan of the paper is such that an extensive circulation is requisite to defray the expenses incumbent on such a publication. The patronage which has thus far been extended to their work, warrants the publishers in assuring the public that the establishment is certain and permanent.

The Baltimore Saturday Visitor is published weekly, on an extra-imperial sheet, by CLOUD & POWDER, No. 1, South Gay Street, Baltimore.

•• Post Masters, and others who obtain fee responsible subscribers shall be entitled to a sixth copy gratis, as AGENT.
•• These Editors who exchange with the "Visitor," and are disposed to aid the circulation, shall meet with a return of favour if they will copy the above.

PROPOSALS
For publishing by Subscription, a small volume of

THE SERMONS OF THE LATE
RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D.

Bishop of the P. E. Church of Md, together with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

SEVERAL considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memorial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their alliance is no doubt peculiarly endearing to the diocese over which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gratifying and profitable to find them with us—accompanying and maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that "reform of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.

At the same time, however, that this end is to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally as a means of affording to every member of the diocese of Maryland the privilege of operating in the erection of a Monument to their deceased and much venerated Bishop. To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and to every many prior to his election to this charge, was the instrument of imparting the most precious truths and consolations. It is believed that it will be a source of lively gratification to such persons that they may preserve to their own homes and hearts a memorial of his affectionate and judicious, and evangelical instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested in promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed for.

The work will be printed on fine paper, and comprised in a small duodecimo volume, and delivered to subscribers neatly bound in cloth backs, at $1.00 per copy.
•• Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work to warrant the publication, it will be immediately put to press. Persons desirous to procure the ultimate object, are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher without delay. Address
