TO THE PUBLIC.

THE subscriber, in justice to himself and business, feels called upon to appear before the public and state that he has been misrepresented in the prices given by him for the material in the line of his business, namely, Hides and Skins. It has been told that I have but 4 cents for Hides, while the speculator, I will give you 41 cents—and in some cases the speculator has doubled his money on country-man for his hide. I have not, since I have been in the business, given less than 5 cents per pound, for good green Hides, and at all times give a fair Baltimore price, now offer the public in cash, the following prices:

GREEN HIDES, 11 cts.

DRY HIDES, 11 cts. per lb.

Persons having Hides to sell, ought to sell to the manufacturer of the Hide, who will at all times give more than the speculator. I have at all times been found at my Tan Yard next to the store of the Messrs. Millers, where will give the highest Baltimore price.

Respectfully,

DAN'L T. HYDE.

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

WALDIE'S SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE striking features of this periodical are, that the books are published in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit; and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, uninjured.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Waldie, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained in two numbers and a half of the circulating Library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was selected by the Memoirs of Lady Lettice, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The sixth number commences the travels of Mr. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the Library for at most thirty cents. This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, will fully testify to the facility of mail, which will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighborhoods, as, if encouraged hereafter, as has hitherto been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in his form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 32 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes of the Cyclopaedia. This volume will comprise at least from ten to twenty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will contain volumes of 46 pages each, will be well preserved for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library.

The publisher feels confident in stating, that the price 32 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are issued, no more will be printed than will supply several months subscribers.

Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for clubs to join together in the purchase. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five monthly issues. This deduction will pay all postage.

Those who desire to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and circle of acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentleman who makes the selections for this prospectus, to literary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation, possessed by few; to this he adds a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in catering for an extended and moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the circulating Library to the heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.

The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Opium Eater.

ADAM WALDIE, Carpenter-street, near Seventh, under the Apprentices Library, back of the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received. Dec. 13

A specimen of the Work may be seen at the office of the Maryland Gazette, where Subscriptions will be received.

BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER, A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Containing the FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS of the week—A PRICE CURRENT of the Markets, (carefully corrected),—PRICES OF STOCKS & BANK NOTE LIST—together with a variety of MISCELLANEOUS MATTER, for the instruction and amusement of its readers.

THE Publishers, on commencing a new volume, have considerably improved the paper, and made such arrangements as will enable them to obtain Selections from the most popular Periodicals of the day. They therefore may confidently promise the patrons of the "VISITER," to present them with Reading Matter of the choicest description, and at as early a period as any of their contemporaries. Great care will be observed in the variety served up, to blend the useful with the entertaining.

The plan of the paper is such that an extensive circulation is requisite to defray the expenses incumbent on such a publication. The patronage which has thus far been extended to their work, warrants the publishers in assuring the public that the establishment is certain and permanent.

The BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER is published weekly, on an extra-imperial sheet, by CLOUD & POWDER, No. 1, South Gay Street, Baltimore.

The terms are only 82 per annum, if paid in advance.

Post Masters, and others who obtain free remittance subscribers shall be entitled to a sixth copy gratis, as usual.

Those Editors who exchange with the "Visiter," and are disposed to aid the circulation, shall meet with a return of favour if they will copy the above.

PRINTING Neatly executed at this OFFICE.

PROPOSALS For publishing by Subscription, a small volume of

THE SERMONS OF THE LATE

RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D.

Bishop of the P. E. Church of Md, together with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

SEVERAL considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memorial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their alliance is peculiarly endearing to the diocese over which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators, and it is both gratifying and profitable to find them with us, as if they were still with us, and their spirit still in the same, and breathing the spirit of that "form of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.

At the same time, however, that this end is to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally as a means of affording to every member of the diocese of Maryland the privilege of co-operating in the erection of a Monument to their deceased and much venerated Bishop. It will be his ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and to very many prior to his election to this charge, was the instrument of imparting the most precious truths and consolations. It is believed that it will be a source of lively gratification to such persons that they may preserve to their own homes and hearts a memorial of his affectionate and judicious, and evangelical instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested in promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed for.

The work will be printed on fine paper, and comprised in a small attractive volume, and delivered to subscribers neatly bound in cloth backs, at $1.00 per copy.

Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work to warrant the publication, it will be immediately put to press. Persons desirous to promote the ultimate object, are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher without delay. Address
