[The following lines are from Baldwin's London Magazine.]

evening was glorious, and Ught through the Played in sun abine the rain drops, the hirds and the breeke, the landsespelout stretching, is levelines lay,

On the lap of the year in the occurry of May,

For the bright queen of Spang, as she passed down Left her robe on the trees, and her breath on the

We gazed on these scenes while around us they glow when a vision appeared on the clouds Two not like the sun, as at mid day we view, Nor the moon that rolls lightly through par-light and

Nor the moon lifat rolls lightly through star-light and blue. of the blue of t

Whose arch was refraction, its kev-stone-the sun. C pavilion it seemed, with a deity graced, And Justice and Mercy met there and embraced. As I Justice and Mercy met there and embraced. A white, and it sweetly bent over the gloom, Like love ofera death-couch, or hope ofer the tomb. Then left the dark scene, whence it sails retired, As Lové had just ranished, or Hope have expired. I gazed not flone on that source of my long. To all the beheld it, these sersechelong. Its presence to all was the path of the Lord; Each full heart expanded, grew warm, and a fored, Like a visit—the converse of friend—or vigor. That how from my sight nossed forever war: Like that visit, that converse, that does to my be That how from remembrance can never depart,

A TALE FOR THE TIMES.

From the French. A good persant was returning to his house one evening, after having worked all day, a-bout a league from the city. He left his house early in the morning, and was very much fatigued and downcast like the setting sun. As he was entering the gates of the city, he met one of his comparions, who said to him thave you heard the hist our purson is just dead." On Heaven! Tried the worthy fellow, what will become of the parish? Wranged in might reflective, he continued Wrapped in painful reflection, he continue to walk towards his abode. What will the do?' sold he; to-morrow is Sanday-there will What will they say in the cits when they have no high mass. The young girls wish to communicate the old ones to pray, and my wife wants to confess. What shall we do? White he was including in Ah Peter, said he, do you know the news?
Yes our poor parson is dead.
Yes our poor parson is dead, and will be bu-'Good Heaven!' cried the ried to morrow." poor countryman, 'what will become of the district? no judge, we are undone! If we had bit of a revolution, who would come and har-rangue us in the market place? who will protect us now? who will be our refuge now the judge is dead? few steps onward our worthy friend me a third person whom he knew .- There is bad news, terrible news stirring!' said the new comer. 'What is it? Holy Virgin! what more terrible news than the death of the Why the King is dead, neighbour Peter. It is in the newspaper to day Gra-cious Providence, who will defend the King-

The reflections of the honest peasant were loped themselves in so short a space as a quar-ter of hour, so that when he entered his cottage, he seated himself with a sorrowful air, by the chimney corner, without saving a word to his wife, or without lifting his little girl and it was agreed to be decided the morrow produce? Will the sun rise? We

AUTHERITE REVOLUTIONALY ANEODOTES.
Mr. Eden, the last proprietary Governor of the deceased was. Witness: I always thought and to bring the villains to justice, an excitement will be raised among us that never has weeks or fined to are bed and wanted the comhad a parallel.

Who that is a father or a mother, a brother
Mr. J. and C. and many more of the most

List Wednesday night she went to bed with under sood in England that the Congress are ceased expired. In the country she played may be the next bloody sacrificer about forming a Treaty of Alliance with under the name of Miss Edwards, ig the first. about forming a Treaty of Alliance with France. A momentary silence prevailed, when Mr. Johnson answered. Governor we will answer ome from us.? It was agreed to ever play under any other answer one from us.? It was agreed to ever play under any other overtures have been made to France, but that they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the King, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the King, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king, your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand that the king your master, is about they are not yet accepted. Now, sir, we understand the name of the letters read by the sister, that she was introduced on the stage by the celebrated Talma. Mary Mortimer, residing in Union court, stated, that she had known her about ten or eleven years. Never knew her sex, until the facts that have reached us can be depended upon, the affair demands a much more rigid investigation, than what has been experienced in this city she following article. Not a little anxiety has been experienced in this city since Saturday, in consequence of the makes by in this city she following at least the following at Britiin. Chase exclaimed, by G-d I am She always appeared as a most lady-like wo for declaring ourselves independent. The man. I have slept with deceased repeatedly. for declaring ourselves independent. The man. I have slept with deceased repeatedly, Governor immediately dropped his knife and fork and did not est another mouthful. Thus was a man. The Coroner expressed the greatest astonishment at the evidence adduced est astonishment at the evidence adduced. pendent, was expressed long before it was A Juror: Look at the head of hair, and the done in Congress, Messrs. J. and C. were among the list of proscribed patriots, with Hautrandinary case I ever met with; I almost mong the list of proscribed patriots, with Hau-cock, the Adamses, Jay, Dickinson, the Lees doubt the evidence of my own senses, of Virginia, and Rutiedges, of S. Carolina, number of letters and of other documents, and, together with Paca, Stone and Hall of found on the person of the deceased, were the Western, and Tilghman, Goldsborough and Hammond, of the Eastern Shore, composition ed that noble band of patriots which guided the Councils of Marytand in that trying and al-most hopeless effort, to secure the liberties of America.

dered of one company from each regiment in the state, or volunteers would be accepted in their place. The regiment company from accepted in their place. The regiment commanded by when they again met, but the crowds of medical James Johnson, in the upper part of Fre- cal students and others, attracted by the ex-Col. James Johnson, in the upper part of Kre-full of bitterness and sorrow, when he cogita-ted on the terrible misfortunes which deve-loped themselves in so short a space as a quar-ter of hour, so that when he entered his out and double the required number of officers, among whom were two Captains named Smith and Greeger. The question now arose who should take command of the company, the news-papers, and understanding that the news-papers and understanding that the and it was agreed to be decided by throwing his knee, as was "the west custom white afternoon."

The family were all in consternation almost, equalling his own. "Peter, Peter!" said in what commends and the search when the command, better as and sometimes passed for a man and sometimes a woman. She had lately perceived the factor of the word." The Pope's dead; the news is stuck up against take the command, and I will serve as cheven of the world was governed by the pope, and that he were land in the text was found more and shaking the principle tragic characters; Jaror: Did you worken, some fifteed on the stage text, and the believed he was taket then then highest of sait he, who where you cum fraud!"

The Pope's gone, thought he; the king's the wind the world was governed by the pope, and that he world was governed by the pope, and that he world was governed by the pope, and that he world was governed by the pope, and that he world was governed by the pope, and that he worl

the morrow produce? Will the sun rise? We still no longer labour, no longer sow, no longer reap, and the poor will die of famine!' EXTRAORDINARY INVESTIGATIONS Poor fellow he sometimes got hold of a nawspaper, and remembered to have often seen, 'the country is in mourning.' This phrase now occurred to him—he depicted to himself the whole of France in black, and sighed deeply.

His night was almost sleepless; at the first ray of the sun, however disturbed at what had His night was almost sleepless; at the first ray of the sun, however disturbed at whathad happened and anticipating all sorts of this city on reading it, has kind-ters, atill more fearful, he went out quietly, and instead of taking the way to the fields, the turned towards the grand source which particulars.

A spring sun was rising in the horizon—the Maryland, was very much beloved and highly She had lived with the deceased constantly well as the leaders of Annapolis, as well as the leaders of the regolutionary party. Some time after the commencement of hostilities, and long before the Declaration of Witness mostly slept with the deceased.—

The deceased was a line clocks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the commencement of the country and played female characters.—

The deceased was a line clocks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the commencement of the country and played female characters.—

The deceased was a line clocks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the comments of the country and played female characters.—

The deceased was a line clocks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the comments of the country and played female characters.—

The deceased was a line clocks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the comments of the country and played female characters.—

The deceased of the night, for which he deed so first line for the last ten years.

The course of the night, for which he deed so first line from the transfer of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the country and played female characters.—

The decision of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the country and played female characters.—

The decision of the Galaxy, with a featless—

The decision of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement to the country and played female characters.—

The decision of the Boston Bauks are case, they threw down their implement to the country and played female characters.—

The decision of the Boston Bauks are case, they threw down their implement to the country and played female characters.—

The decision of the Boston Bauks are case, they threw down their implement to the country and they case, they are case, they are case, they are case, they are c read to the Jury, by which it appeared that she had passed under various names. documents excited the most intense interest.

Maria Edwards was again recalled and examined. In answer to questions she said that America. She was only 17 years of age. She never After the Maryland militia returned from knew the deceased to use a razor or a pair by the visitation of God."

-000-

From the Boston Daily Atlas.

THE SUICIDE OF MR. CURTIS. FATAL CONSEQUENCES OF GAMBLING.
The paragraph we published yesterday respecting the cause which led Mr. Curtis to the commission of self-marder at Providence.

flowers covered with dew, were drying themselves, and rished their beads to the light beauty the birds were an entirely in the training the tritty flad perfect ones. This is of the revival lay reflecting the training the tritty flad perfect ones. The interpretation beauty the birds were an entirely flat predicting. But assented revived by the reviews of the wight the first were an entirely flat predicting the prediction of the review of the self-desired prediction. The self-desired prediction of the review of the self-desired prediction of t sister, was next examined. She stated that go by one of these worse than high-way robshe was born in Dublin, and was 17 years old. bers, and infamously swindled out of $1125, squad of men, armed with becomes but in the course of five nights, for which he drew sooner were they apprised of the state of his checks upon one of the Boston Bauks. Is case, than they threw down their implement hostilities, and long before the Declaration of Witness mostly siept with the deceased suplindependence, he requested Barrister Carroll Coroner: How long have you been in Lonto insite Mr. Johnson, afterwards Governor, don? Witness: We have been about three drawn the character of two persons, well he was saluted by the well known rolleds known among us as unprincipled and abands keeper, who had waylaid him with the car to insite Mr. Johnson, afterwards Governor, years.—Coroner: How was the deceased supknown among us as unprincipled and abands keeper, who had waylaid him with the car to insite Mr. Johnson afterwards Governor, years.—Coroner: How was the deceased sup-The editor of the Galaxy, with a fearless- the market examining the varied content ness that demands public approbation, has the stalls and shambles, until to his surpli-Mr. Chase and the most distinguished mensures the coroner: How was the deceased supported during this time? Witness: By different gentlemen. Juror: Do you know of villany, vice and crucity that cannot fair representation to startle and alarm our citizens.—What to startle and alarm our citizens.—What we have referred, but the representation to which we have referred, but the representation to the properties of the public morals. these vile incendiaries of the public morals, gambols to which we have referred, but we know not. One thing we do know, and that was told to us with so much satisfactor is but the request, and that he was at a loss how to act. Mr. J. immediately answered that it would be the best plan for him, Mr. C. to institute to his own house as many gentlemen as take to siy that you did notknow what sex he choise and the Governor with them; he re these vite incentuaries of the publications, gamous to which we have five we know not. One thing we do know, and that we still due with so much satisfaction is, that unless something be done and that quickly, to save the young and the unwary vite to his own house as many gentlemen as take to say that you did not know what sex income the same still have the same still have the same that are set in their paths, and to bring the villains to justice, an excite have fired we know not. One thing we do know, and that we still due with so much satisfaction we know not. One thing we do know, and that one who said he saw it, that we have the quickly, to save the young and the unwary irom the snares that are set in their paths, and to bring the villains to justice, an excite have fired we know not. One thing we do know, and that one who said he saw it, that we have that the same is the same in the same in the state of the same is the same in the same in the same is the same is the same in the same is the same is the same is

Mr. J. and C. and many more of the most possible possible

P. S. Since the above was written, we have tis arrived in this city, he was known to have in his possession a large amount of money; when tound dead, his money had disappeared. It is a fact, that there was a deep wound on the back of the dead man's neck, that could not have been inflicted by a handkerchief; and it is no evidence that suicide was commilted because three doors which led to the room of the stranger were fastened. There are other circumstances connected with this affair, which are singular, dark, and mysterious, and call upon the people of this city, for rigid examination of the suicide.'

We understand that the deceased borrow ed 8125 of a friend before be left Boston, and that he was induced to go to Providence by a letter he received from one of his robbers, which assured him that if he would come hither, he would be able to recover his money The paragraph from the Providence paper intimates that he was murdered.

Mr. Curtis lived in Cambridgeport, and has left a wife and seven children, the oldest about 16 years of are.

From the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette.
THE LION'S VISIT TO THE MARKET.
We published yesterday an account of a Panther, who amused himself by keeping shop' a little while in New York, and we reply, that pray tell me if your father is blue as you are?—New Bedford Gaz. From the Philadelphia U. S. Gazette. THE LION'S VISIT TO THE MARKET.

No, sighed the other, the clark will be along soon to clear us out—though, by the way, what is that coming down the street?' Good Heavens! exclaimed the first we man that is a customer indeed-is it a dog, on as I am a sinner.

The two beldames seized their moveables, and shot actors the atrect into a cellar, pull-an absence of passengers.

The clerk of the market arrived with

The editor of the Providence (R. I.) Microcusm retires from his editorial ciair to the

This is the last number of the Microur P. S. Since the above was written, we have received the Providence Guzette, which contains the following article.

'Not a little anxiety has been experienced in this city since Saturday, in consequence of the melancholy suicide of Mr. Curtis, who, it is alleged, hanged himself in his room, at Jones' Providence Hotel. Many stories are a public press, I have had a good opportune. to know it, and do not wish to be convined by any further experience. Whatever my be the enjoyments which others derive from situation like mine. I feel no reluctance exchange them for the plough and scribe-Give me a snug little farm, and I care at how soon I see the back side of a printing of-

Calumny is like the wasp that teases, as against which you must not attempt to be fe ad yourself, unless you are certain to be tray it; otherwise it returns to the chip more furious than ever.'

·Little minds triumph over the errors men of genius, as the owl rejoices at at clipse of the sun.

A new method of shocing horses .- Is advertisement in one of our exchange para-we find a stray horse described as being the all around with a switch fuil. Whether itsp his own tail er a similar member from som sympathising fellow quadruped, we at so informed. Perhaps the mystery might bett plained, by the judicious use of a commi-

ANECDOTE.

A protty little brunette of, 14, was passing answering the minister, 'Ah, Margrel,' 1915 he, 'donna ye ken where a' the sintal gasp Deel tak them, that kens, as weel as the that speers, cries she. Ah Margret the that speers, cries the. Ah Margue gang where there be wailing and gnashing teeth. By my, trow, then, says Margue let them gnash that hae them, for the dedication hae I had these twenty, years.

A wine merchant once left a suspected

VOL. LXXXVIII.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN, Church-Street, Annapolis.

ICE THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM

THE MARYLAND RTICULTURAL SOCIETY. the improvement and encouragement of rdening and the promotion of Horticul-loce in the state of Maryland, with a accomplishment of those important determined on having an XHIBITION OF PLANTS, &c. er of other Horticultural Socieneld an exhibition of Plants. Culinary, Vegetables, &c. &c.

more, on the eleventh and month of Jone, 1833.tragement, they have re I be a piece of silver e third a silver medal

Lanmely engraved further information or ne subject, ad hairman Committee of Arrangement, Balt. - Kittors of papers throughout the state. requested to give the above a few insertions. PROPOSALS publishing by Subscription, a small vo-

THE SERMONS

OF THE LATE RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D. shop of the P. E. Church of Md. together with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices. EVERAL considerations combine to re-commend the publication of the proposed ne. It is desirable to preserve a memo-of all who have held a relation to the rch in this country, so interesting and im gren in this country, so interesting and in tant as that of its Bishops. Their alliance o doubt peculiarly endearing to the diocess r which they are chosen to preside, and the er of their doctrine and example is most t in those parishes among which they have ne, with the authority of a ruler, the vigi-ice of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a ong to the whole ecclesiastical body of

and to the whole ecclesiastical body of ich they were legislators; and it is both graying and profitable to find them with one ord maintaining "the faith once delivered the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that orm of sound words." equally scriptural descriptural described, to which successive ages only d increasing veneration.
At the same time, however, that this end is the effected, the present volume is regarded tripally "as a means of affording to every meer of the diocess of Maryland the privi e of co-operating in the erection of a Monu at to their deceased and much venerated Bi p." To all he has ministered in the discharge is office as Cheef Shepherd of the flock; and tery many prior to his election to this charge, he the instrument of imparting the most red that it will be a source of lively gratifion to such persons that they may preserve in to such persons that they may preserve their own homes and hearts a memorial of affectionafe, and judicious, and evangell instructions, while they perpetuate his me, and manifest their grateful sense of his pith by contributing to rear a monumental e upon his grave. That the privilege may universally enjoyed, the volume will be all, and the terms exceedingly low; and one interested in promoting the several obts of the publication, can attain their end increasing the number of copies subscribed the subscripers neatly bound in cloth, cks, at 81 00 per copy.

The work will be printed on fine paper, and oprised in a small duodecimo volume, and direced to subscribers neatly bound in cloth.

Let Having ascertained that sufficient parage will be extended to this work to war at the publication; it will be immediately to promote a utimate abject, are requested to from the subscriptions to the publisher without lay, Address 100 DOBNEON.

JOS. ROBINSON, Bookseller and Stationer, No. 2. North Calvert street, Baltimore. March 14.

March 14.

Mary's County Court,
March Term, 1833.

RDERED, by the Court, That the Creditors of Edward Spalding, a petitioner for a breast of the Insolvent Laws of thus State, and appear before the Court, to be held at some Tewn, Saint Mary's county, on the oil Monday of Agrist peri, to file alfegation of Monday of Agrist peri, to file alfegation of Trustee for their benefit.

By order,

Trustee for their benefit.

lation.

seen at zette. 1

ceived.

Contain

ME

PRI

strue

ders

popular fore ma

the "V

Maller Great co

ed up, t ing. penses i patrona, their w ing the and per publishe by CLC Street.

paid in a sixth

*Visite hey wi

Ret 120