PROPOSALS
publishing by Subscription, a small volume of
THE SERMONS
OF THE LATE
RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D.
Bishop of the P. E. Church of Md. together with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

Several considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memoir of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their alliance do doubt peculiarly endearing to the diocese in which they are chosen to preside, and the honor of their doctrine and example is most dear to the parishes among which they have ministered, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence among the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gratifying and profitable to find them so engaged in maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that "word of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.

At the same time, however, that this end is effected, the present volume is regarded as a means of affording to every member of the diocese of Maryland the privilege of co-operating in the erection of a Monument to their deceased and much venerated Bishop. To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and by many prior to his election to this charge, he has the instrument of imparting the most precious truths and consolations. It is believed that it will be a source of lively gratification to those persons that they may preserve their own homes and hearts a memorial of an affectionate, and judicious, and evangelical instructor, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his labors upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be sold, and the terms exceedingly low; and the interest in promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed.

The work will be printed on fine paper, and printed in a small duodecimo volume, and offered to subscribers neatly bound in cloth, at $1.00 per copy.

Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work in warrant the publication; it will be immediately printed. Persons disposed to promote the ultimate object are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher without delay. Address JOS. ROBINSON, Bookseller and Stationer, No. 2, North Calvert street, Baltimore.

NORTHERN WIT.
A Scotch woman whose name was Margaret, did nothing but swear and abuse, instead of answering the minister. "Ah, Margaret, you he, donna ye ken where a' the sinners gae?" "Deel tak them, that kens, as well as that that speers," cries she. "Ah, Margaret, they gang where there's waiving and gnashing of teeth." "By my troth, then," says Margaret, "let them gnash that has them, for the deil's stumpp has I had these twenty years."

A wine merchant once left a suspected assistant in his cellar, and said to him, "Now, lest you should drink the wine while I am away, I will chalk your mouth so that I can know it." He then tubbed his nail across the man's lips, and pretended to leave the work of chalk on them. The man drank of the wine, and to be even with his master, chalked his mouth, and this discovered himself.

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

WALKERS SELECT CIRCUATING LIBRARY.

The striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the country can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit, and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, unimpaired.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Waldstein, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained entire in two numbers and a half of the circulating Library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was succeeded by the Memoirs of La Fayette, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The sixth number commences the travels of Mr. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for at most thirty cents. This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighborhoods, as it is intended to be before the American public in its form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 32 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes of Revue's Cyclopaedia. This volume will comprise at least from twenty-five to thirty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The publisher feels bound in stating, that the entire 32 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are issued, no more will be printed than will supply actual paying subscribers.

Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for clubs to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five individuals. This deduction will pay all postage.

Those who design to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and circle of acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentleman who makes the selections for this periodical, to literary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation possessed by few; to this he adds a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in catering for an extended and moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the circulating Library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.

The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Opium Eater. ADAM WALDSTEIN, Carpenter-street, near Seventh, under the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received.

BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER.
A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.

Containing the FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS of the week—a PRICE CURRENT of the Markets, (carefully corrected)—PRICES OF STOCKS & BANK NOTE LIST—together with a variety of MISCELLANEOUS MATTER, for the instruction and amusement of its readers.

The Publishers, on commencing a new volume, have considerably improved the paper, and made such arrangements as will enable them to obtain Selections from the most popular Periodicals of the day. They therefore may confidently promise the patrons of the "VISITER," to present them with Reading Matter of the choicest description, and at as early a period as any of their contemporaries. Great care will be observed in the variety served up, to blend the useful with the entertaining.

The plan of the paper is such that an extensive circulation is requisite to defray the expense incurred on such a publication. The patronage which has thus far been extended to their work, warrants the publishers in assuring the public that the establishment is certain and permanent.

The BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER is published weekly, on an extra-imperial sheet, by CLOUD & FOUDER, No. 1, South Gay Street, Baltimore.

500 REWARD.
RAN AWAY from the farm of the late John Andrew Grammer, deceased, in Anne Arundel County, about the 10th April instant, a Negro Man, slave, by the name of GEORGE, about five feet four or five inches high, forty years of age, black complexion, and has several of his upper front teeth said fellow is well proportioned, and upon examination will be found to have a peculiar flat head; his clothing consisted of full lined country cloth of drab colour, and coarse shoes, which he will no doubt change for others having plenty of other clothing of good quality.—George has acted with great ingratitude, the whole of the slaves of the said Mr. Grammer, were directed to be sold under an order of the Orphan's Court of Baltimore county, and in order that they might have an opportunity of providing situations to suit themselves, I had furnished each one with a printed paper, stating the terms, &c. upon which they were to be disposed of, which was a moderate valuation of the inventory prices; the whole of the others provided themselves with such situations as they chose, and have been disposed of, except GEORGE, who no doubt has availed himself of the printed paper with which he was furnished, and has made his escape. I will give Fifty Dollars reward for apprehending said fellow if taken up in the State of Maryland, and secured in any Jail so that I get him again, and if taken out of the State, and brought home to me in the city of Baltimore, or delivered to Robert Welch (of Ben.) in the city of Annapolis, I will give Sixty Dollars reward, including all reasonable charges.
