MR. GREEN: Having seen in your last paper an account of the Catholic Colleges and Seminaries in England, and the United States, and the wonderful increase of that church in Manchester, I send you the following which may be relied on ascerrect: There are at present in Ireland eleven Roman Catholic Colleges for the education of Priests, and thirty-five Seminaries. In Liverpool a few years ago they were few a number; but are now over 52,000. In Bath, twenter ago, the Catholics met to worship in a small hired from They have now two churches in that city, and protected to the proportion thus organized. And the object of this Convention thus organized, and the object for which it was called, having been fully and clearly stated by Mr. Lemmon, President of the Young Men's Bible Society of Baltimore, before proceeding to business. The exercises of the evening were commenced with reading a part of the 19th Psalin, by the Rev. Mr. Musgrave, of the 3d Presbyte rian Church, and an anthem by the Choir.—

The total number of Catholic purchase of another church at present vacant in Bath. The total number of Catholic Churches in England and Scornd in 1851, was 479. From the year 1834 (1831, being the short interval of seven year & England alone shewed an increase of 54 churches, and in Scotland, there was from 1329, being but two years, an increase of 16 churches. During the year 1832, 16 churches were added to the total number, 15 for England, and one for Scotland in Perth. In the United States of America a much calummated, but celebrated Scotland in Perth. In the United States of yesterday, the following gentlemen appeared and learned order, have obtained permission and learned order, have obtained permission from the head of the Order to erect Seminaties and Colleges wherever they may deem it advisable. In England, Scotland, and the United States, the number of churches would increase with much greater rapidity, but the church cannot supply the petitioners with clergymen, as Priests are not manufactured in a day. It would be incredible were you informed of the requests and urgent solicitations which are made to the Bishops of the different dioceses in this country for Priests, with assurances that churches will be built, but the answer is from the Bishops, I have no priest to send. In Boston a College will be immediately commenced in the finest and healthiest part of the town, with extensive dormitories, to be under the superintendence of the Order of Jesus, which order has lately taken into their own hands their church at Philadelphia, and will probably (as circum stances may authorise) resume the occupancy and clerical functions of all their churches in

It is with no ordinary feelings of regret and mortification that we have learnt that a violent assault was committed on the person of the President of the United States, yesterday, on board of the steamboat, whilst at the wharf at Alexandria, on its way to Potomac creek, by Mr. Randolph, lately a Licutenant in the Navy, whose dismission from service by the President has recently been made public.

We have not heard the circum-stances of the assault in such a manner as to justify our atpublication of the proceedings of the Convention.
