PRICE—THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S COMPLETE WORKS.

A SPLENDID, complete and uniform set of all the works of this celebrated writer ever published, together with a biography of his life, his correspondence and miscellaneous letters, never yet published in this country, is now issued in numbers by Messrs. Cooke and Cook, of New York. The whole work will be comprised in 48 numbers; each number will contain as much matter as two volumes of the ordinary price of 25 cents. It will be delivered, which will be equal to 18 cents a volume; an amount less by 50 per cent, than they were ever before at auction.

Persons wishing part of the works will be furnished on a sufficient number of these, if wished, before they are complete.
Considering the low price at which the work is published, and the means that have been taken to enable almost every family to be furnished with them, (which will be explained to any subscriber upon application,) the subscribers are invited to receive a liberal share of patronage.
Specimens of the work can be seen at the residence of W. R. Lucas, 110 Baltimore Street, and at E. J. Coale and Co. Calvert Street, opposite Barron's Hotel. The undersigned reside in Bannockburn Hotel.
R. K. MOULTON,
Agent for Scott's works.
N. B. Any person or persons who will procure ten subscribers, and forward the amount of subscription to the undersigned, free of post, shall be entitled either to one set gratis, or to the proportionable amount in cash. Four numbers are already published—each subscriber will therefore pay $1.50 on subscribing. The balance on each number as delivered. All communications to the undersigned to be post paid.

500 REWARD.
RAN AWAY from the farm of the late John Andrew Grammer, deceased, in Anne Arundel County, about the 10th April instant, a Negro Man, slave, by the name of

GEORGE,
About five feet four or five inches high, forty years of age, black complexion, and has lost several of his upper front teeth.
said fellow is well proportioned, and upon examination will be found to have a peculiar flat nearly his clothing consisted of faded country cloth of drab colour, and coarse shoes, which he will no doubt change for others having plenty of other clothing of good quality.—George has acted with great ingratitude to the whole of the slaves of the said Mr. Grammer, were directed to be sold under an order of the Orphan's Court of Baltimore county, and in order that they might have an opportunity of providing situations to suit themselves, I had furnished each one with a printed paper, stating the terms, &c. upon which they were to be disposed of, which was a moderate valuation of the inventory price; the whole of the others provided themselves with such situations as they chose, and have been disposed of, except GEORGE, who no doubt has availed himself of the printed paper with which he was furnished, and has made his escape. I will give Fifty Dollars reward for apprehending and securing in any Jail so that I get him again, and if taken out of the State, and brought home to me in the city of Baltimore, or delivered to Robert Welch (of Ben.) in the city of Annapolis, I will give Sixty Dollars reward, including all reasonable charges.

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.
WALDEYS SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit, and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travel, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, unimpaired.
This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Washington, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained entire in two numbers and a half of the Circulating Library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was succeeded by the Memoirs of Lavallée, which cost the publisher more than eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The third number commenced the travels of Mr. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for not more than thirty cents! This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighbourhoods, as, if encouraged hereafter as he has so far been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in this form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 50 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes of Reed's Cyclopaedia. This volume will comprise at least ten to twenty-five to thirty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The publisher feels confident in stating, that the entire 50 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are issued, no more will be printed than will supply actual paying subscribers.
Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added an inducement for clubs, by publishing together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five numbers. This deduction will pay all postage.
Those who design to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the publisher by forwarding their remittance to the post office, where a five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good leading to a family and circle of acquaintance for a whole year.
The gentleman who makes the selections for this prospectus, to literary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation, and he has ever ready an assiduous eye in the selection of the best and most moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the Circulating Library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.
The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Opium Eater.
ADAM WALDEY,
Carpenter-street, near Seventh, under the Apprentices' Library, back of the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received.

BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER.
A FAMILY NEWSPAPER.
Containing the FOREIGN AND DOMESTIC NEWS of the week—a PRICE CURRENT of the Markets, (carefully corrected)—PRICES OF STOCKS & BANK NOTE LIST—TOGETHER with a variety of MISCELLANEOUS MATTER, for the instruction and amusement of its readers.
THE Publishers, on commencing a new volume, have considerably improved the paper, and made such arrangements as will enable them to obtain Selections from the most popular Periodicals of the day. They therefore may confidently promise the patrons of the "VISITER," to present them with Reading Matter of the choicest description, and at an early period as any of their contemporaries. Great care will be observed in the variety served up, to blend the useful with the entertaining.
The plan of the paper is such that an extensive circulation is requisite to delay the expenses incumbent on such a publication. The patronage which has thus far been extended to their work, warrants the publishers in assuring the public that the establishment is certain and permanent.
THE BALTIMORE SATURDAY VISITER is published weekly, on an extra-imperial sheet, by CLOUD & POWDER, No. 1, South Gay Street, Baltimore.
The terms are only 25 per annum, if paid in advance.
Post Masters, and others who obtain five responsible subscribers shall be entitled to a sixth copy gratis, as a gift.
Those Editors who exchange with the "VISITER," and are disposed to aid the circulation, shall meet with a return of favour if they will copy the above.

PROPOSALS
For publishing by Subscription, a small volume of
THE SERMONS
OF THE LATE
Rt. Rev. JAMES KEMP, D. D.
Bishop of the P. E. Church of Md. together with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

SEVERAL considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memorial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and important as that of its Bishops. Their alliance is no doubt peculiarly endearing to the diocess over which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gratifying and profitable to find them with one accord maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that "form of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.
At the same time, however, that this end is to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally as a means of affording to every member of the diocess of Maryland the privilege of co-operating in the erection of a Monument to their deceased and much venerated Bishop. To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and to every man prior to his election to this charge, was he the instrument of imparting the most precious truths and consolations. It is believed that it will be a source of lively gratification to such persons that they may preserve in their own homes and hearts a memorial of his affectionate and judicious, and evangelical instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of his worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested in promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed for.
The work will be printed on fine paper, and comprised in a small duodecimo volume, and delivered to subscribers neatly bound in cloth backs, at $1.00 per copy.
Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work to warrant the publication, it will be immediately put to press. Persons disposed to promote the ultimate object, are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher without delay. Address

Bookseller and Stationer, No. 2, North Calvert street, Baltimore.
