A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

WALDIES SELECT CIRULATING LIBBART.

Tile striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher references from England all the new books of meritiand community can procure them. The publisher receases from England all the new books of meritiand from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Hemoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Hiorgraphy. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, uninjured.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Wallstein, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained entire in two numbers and a half of the Circulating Libray, costing subscriber I less than twenty-five cents.
This was succeeded by the Memoirs of Lavallette, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The dath number commenters the travel-sel Mr. Vigné, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for at nost thirty cents! This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighbourbooks, as if encouraged hereafter as he has so far ation of the work in their respective neighbour-hoods, as, if encouraged hereafter as he has so far ublic in this form all the best books which issue from

The price is five dollars for $2 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three solumes, of Rees's Cyclopædia. This volume will comprise at least from twenty-five to thirty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The publisher feels confident in stating, that the entire $2 numbers, when, bound, will sell for more than the subsectioning price, as after a few interenum.

entire $2 immbers, when, bound, will sell, for more than the subscription price, a safter a few intereminers are issued, no more will be printed than will supply actual paging subscribers.

Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for claims to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of fixe invaduals. This deduction will pay all postage.

Those who design to patronize this new and apparite mode of publishing god! books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as respectively. A fixe dollar note deposited in the post.

enheriber by forwarding their remittances as early as proceioside. A five dollar note deposited in the post-office will supply good reading to a family and carele or acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentleman who makes the selections for this periodical, to interary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation possessed by few; to this he edds a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in catering for an extended and moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the Circulating Library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducas a work which they need have no fear of introduc

PROPOSALS For publishing by Subscription, a small vo lume of

THE SERMONS OF THE LATE

RT. REV. JAMES KEMP, D. D. Bishop of the P E. Church of Md. together with the Funeral Address d-livered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

Drief biographical notices.

CEVERAL considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memo rial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and im portant as that of its Bishops. Their alliance is no doubt peculiarly endearing to the diocesover which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigilance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole ecclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gra accord maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breathing the spirit of that "form of sound words," equally scriptural and beautiful, to which successive ages only add increasing veneration.

At the same time, however, that this end is to be effected, the present volume is regarded principally tas a means of affording to every member of the diocess of Maryland the privi lege of co-operating in the erection of a Monu ment to their deceased and much venerated Bi-shop." To all he has ministered in the discharge of his office as Chief Shepherd of the flock; and was he the instrument of imparting the most precious traths and consolations. It is be liesed that it will be a source of lively gratifi cation to such persons that they may preserve in their own homes and hearts a memorial of his affectionate, and judicious, and evangeli cul instructions, while they perpetuate his name, and manifest their grateful sense of hi rear a monumental worth by contributing to rear a monumental pile upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested to promoting the several ob-jects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed

The work will be printed on fine paper, an omprised in a small duodecimo vo delivered to subscribers neatly bound in cloth backs, at $1 00 per copy. Having ascertained that sufficient patronage will be extended to this work to war rant the publication, it will be immediately put to press. Persons disposed to promote the ultimate object, are requested to furnish their subscriptions to the publisher without delay. Address
