with the Funeral Address delivered in St. Paul's Church, containing some brief biographical notices.

EVERAL considerations combine to recommend the publication of the proposed volume. It is desirable to preserve a memorial of all who have held a relation to the Church in this country, so interesting and im portant as that of its Bishops. Their alliance is no doubt poculiarly endearing to the diocess over which they are chosen to preside, and the power of their doctrine and example is most felt in those parishes among which they have gone, with the authority of a ruler, the vigi-lance of a shepherd, and the tenderness of a parent. Yet do their character and influence belong to the whole coclesiastical body of which they were legislators; and it is both gratrying and profitable to find them with one accord maintaining "the faith once delivered to the Saints," and breating the spirit of that "form of sound words," equally scriptural and heaville.

At the same time, however, that this end is to be eff-cted, the present volume is regarded principally "as a means of affording to every member of the diocess of Maryland the privi to very many prior to his election to this charge, was he the instrument of imparting the most precious troths and consolations. That the privilege may pile upon his grave. That the privilege may be universally enjoyed, the volume will be small, and the terms exceedingly low; and those interested to promoting the several objects of the publication, can attain their end by increasing the number of copies subscribed
