ANNAPOLIS: Thursday, June 13, 1888.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH. In future Mass will be celebrated in St Mary's Church at six o'clock A. M. on Thurs. days, and at half past eight on Sundays. A Sermon will be delivered at half after ten in spectfully requested to hold meetings to attend said Convention.

For the Maryland Gazette.

Review, we have the following account of are not many wise. what a teacher of youth should be-the character he should maintain—and the estimation. On Wednesday the 5to instant, the corner in which he should be held. All who sustain stone of Nyuck College was aid in New the character will be respected; none was feel. York, by the clergymen of the Ruman Cathoor would act otherwise ought to be entrusted with the education of American youth: "To ought to be entrusted lie Church. every instructer of youth, a sphere is opened COURT OF APPEALS, June Telm 1853, for the exertion of the publicst virtues and ta and av, June 10th.—This being the day still prevail, that such a min is not required the following Judges attended: to possess great tilents, that he may be a dult! Hon. John Buchanan, Chief Judge. and plodding man; that he may be dull in his moral sensibility; that he need not be a religious man, and yet may well discharge the duties of his station. But if Neaven has given to any man talents, or entousiasm, or virtue, or piety, let him know that it is all want-pellees, moved for a rehearing, or a modificanobler field for its action. Let a man enter No. 67, Skipwith H. Coale et al. vs. Hannah the field therefore, not to go through a dull K. Chase. In this case Mayer, for the Apround of prescribed duty; let kim throw kimpellants, moved the court to modify its deround of prescribed duty; let him throw himself into the sphere of action with his whole mind and heart; with every skeful energy to the Court of Chancery forefather proceedof thought, and kindling ferrour of feeting, to think and to act, to devise and to do all that his powers permit for the minds that are committed to him; to develope and exhaust his inhale and in this work; to labour for and for costs. his whole soul in this work: to labour for and for costs. his whole soul in this work: to labour for and for costs, with his pupils, to win their enfection, to quicken in them the love of knowledge, to interpret, with every noble impulse, the breast of ingenuous youth; to raise up sound scholars of Prace-Gorge's county, was admitted as for literature, and devoted pastors for the county, and patriotic citizens for the county, and patriotic citizens for the county, and glorious men for the world; let him an all many shell have bricher scenation. the chair of a University, or in the numbers argued by the Appeller's.

village school; whether as a Stewart and a Cousin, or as an Oberlin and Peztelozzi, he may

On application, Wen. J. Cole, Esquire, of sin, or as an Oberlin and Peztelozzi, he may On application, Won. J. Cole, Esquire, of the following parting address of the President fill the land with grateful witnesses of his Baltimore, was admitted as an attorney of the United States, delivered vesterday worth, and cause a generation unborn to rise this court.

Such men are wanted, and only such men are fit to be engaged in the education of our youth—men of unblemished character, of exemplary conduct; men who are more intent. U. S.) for the Appellees, and A. C. Magruupon the work, than upon the wages, and who der, for the Appellant.

No. 33 Valentine Birely et al. vs. John, bally, in raising the tomahawk against the shun those occupations and places in which it is forbidden to the youth to be seen.

To this case was commenced by Duckett for the children upon the frontier. Your conduct struction, and wisdom to preside at its helm. The warfare of opinion is already begun, and for its safe direction, knowledge must take the leading staff. In this war not the mighty captain but the schoolmaster is to marshal the hosts to battle. It is he who is to train the minds that are to engage in this context: It is he that is to train up orators and legislations, statesmen and rulers; and he too is to form the body politic of the world. Would the free spirits of the world look to the defence and hope of their cause? It is no dubit to the addition of Buchanan. the free spirits of the world look to the defence and hope of their cause? It is no dubious question where they must look. Their outposts are free schools, their cause? It is no dubious chief judge.

Nicholas L. Goldsborough and William Tomen and children, but such a force would be son, of Loui Universities; their munitions are books, and Goldsborough, Esqra. of Dorchester county, the mighty engine that is to hurl destruction and James B. Ricaud Esq. of Kent, were ad-

Wisdom.

Every body seems to think themselves judges of wisdom, and who are and who are not wise and as may reasonably be expected very many indeed judge erroneously when they undertake to decide who are, and who are not wise men. The late Robert Hall has undertaken to tell us, and no one has told us more correctly, what constitutes wisdom.—

The argument in Stewart's Lessee vs. Jones, was concluded by Bayly for the Appellant—not decided, not perhap more than one person in ten remaining is the desire your prosperity and improvement. But if you again plunge your knives into the breasts of our people, I shall send a force, James Fulsome, do. one sailor, unknowns, which will severely punish you for all your cruelties.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued by Bayly for Appellant—not decided.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued by Bayly for the Appellant—not decided.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued guide by Bayly for the Appellant—not decided.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued guide by Bayly for the Appellant—not decided.

The case of Gale vs. Lankford was argued guide by Bayly for the Appellant—not decided.

The case of Harr, Ex'r. of Wingate vs. Bell, adm'r. of Wingate, an appeal from England; you again plunge your knives into the breasts of our people, I shall send a force, James Fulsome, do. one sailor, unknowns, which will severely punish you for all your cruelties.

The case of Harr, Ex'r. of Wingate vs. Bell, adm'r. of Wingate vs. Bell, adm'r. of Wingate, an appeal from Bagland; but we would advise all who can converted by us a give you again plunge your knives into the breats of our people, I shall send a force, James Fulsome, do. one sailor, unknowns, and if you again plunge your chiese with will saverely punish you for all your cruelties.

When you go back, listen to the Councils belonging to a passenger.

When you go back, listen to the Councils belonging to a first will plant.—Ochembermaid) Alexandres, the would advise all who can converted by a first will plant.—Ochembermaid) subordinate and inferior to wisdom, in the same sense as the mason who lays the bricks and stone is inferior to the architect who appetite, as shall best conduce to one great leave their homes, or to remain long enough days, and at half past eight on Sundays. A Sermon will be delivered at half after ten in the immoring, and Divine Service at four in the evening.

The Voters in the Third Election District of Anne-Arundel county, friendly to the Administration of the General Government, are invited to meet at the Stone House (formerly Rockhold's) in said district, on SATURDAY the 22d Jane, instant, for the purpose of naminating three Delegates to meet the Convention which is proposed to the held at Mrs. Robinson's Boarding House, Annapolis, on the 20th July next, to nominate a Candidate to represent the District in the uext Constant which are expected to be presented on the convention, and having assistence of the following remarks upon the publication of the details of Avery's trial:

When on an another days the field to the considered as the top, and summit of perfection. It belongs to wisdom to detail the powers of our nature. Hence it is entitled to the considered as the top, and summit of perfection. It belongs to wisdom to detail the powers of our nature. Hence it is entitled to the considered as the top, and summit of perfection. It belongs to wisdom to detail the powers of our nature. Hence it is entitled to the considered as the top, and summit of perfection. It belongs to wisdom to detail the powers of our nature. When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary.

When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary. When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary.

When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary.

When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary.

When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appointed secretary.

When our motion of Mr. Winnesser it was called to the chair, and Cornellius McLean appoi of wis will instruct us how to marshed an the mean time the friends of reform to thought of wis will instruct us how to marshed an the mean time the friends of reform to thought of wis will instruct us how to marshed an the mean time the friends of reform to thought of will instruct us how to marshed an the mean time the friends of reform to thought of will instruct us how to marshed an the mean time the friends of reform to thought of will be straight of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to thought of the mean time the friends of reform to the mean time the friends of reform to the mean time the friends of the mean tin A young lad named FRAMPTON, about 15 years of age, the son of a poor and industrious widow of this place, while ergogod in catching Grabs on Tuesday afternoon last in a batteau, unfortunately fell overboard and was drowned. By this inclancholy event, the widow and two infant children, have been deprived of their principal means of support.

The memoer value of more, whil, taking upon themselves to make the proposition, hope and trust, that their is a tegrated to our nealth, fortune and other circles a regard to our nealth, fortune and other circles and their anxious desire to accomplish the common objects of the purpose of the state, as well as will of their principal means of support.

The memoer value of this proposition, hope and trust, that their is fellow members will see nothing more than their anxious desire to accomplish the common objects of the purpose of the state, as well as of themselves, and believe that the day of making the above proposition was cast upon those now present by the central position of maid to her mistress for direction—and this universal superintendabt is Wisdom." Such THE INSTRUCTION OF YOUTH. is the definition given by this distinguished in a late number of The North American orator of wisdom—and it so, then indeed A. B. is the definition given by this distinguished for the exertion of the noblest virtues and ta lents. It is a more mischievous and absurd fixed by law for the meeting of the Court of idea, but one that has prevailed, if it do not Appeals for the Western Shore of Maryland,

Hon. John Buchanan, Carlin, Hon. William Bond Martin, Judges, Hon John Stephen, Hon Thomas B. Dorsey, In No. 59, Daniel Chambers et al. vs. Pru-

ed here, and that he can scarcely choose a tion of the decree, nobler field for its action. Let a man enter No. 67, Skipwith H. Coale et al. vs. Hannah this, and none shall have brighter signatures commenced by Magruber for the Appellant, upon the record of honoured and well-spent No. 17. Peter Emerson vs. Chesley and lives: Let him do this, and whether he sit in Hance, on behalf of Chesley. This case was the chair of a University, or in the humblest orgued by Boyle for the Appellant, and Ma-

Wednesday Jone 12th .- Present as yes

REFORM CONVENTION.

The members elected from the city of Bal-timere, to meet in the Reform Convention drew the plan and superintends the work.—
The former executes only what the latter contrives and directs. Now it is the prerogative principle, to regulate the exercise of every power, and limit the indulgence of every appetite, as shall best conduce to one great end. It being the province of wisdom to preside me appetite, as shall best conduce to one great end. It being the province of wisdom to preside it is not being the province of wisdom to preside it is not province of wisdom to preside it is not province of wisdom to preside it is no new province of wisdom to preside it is no new province of wisdom to preside it is no new province on every difficulty, and objects of the purpose of the state, as well as ences, chastening zeal with knowledge, and making the above proposition was cast upon the public generally will regard these efforts those now present by the central position of of the numerous and highly respectable soci-

Resolved. That these proceedings be pub lished in all the papers of the state.
WM. H. MARRIOTT, Chairman.

Connelius McLean, Secretary.

this city on Saturday morning in the Steam-boat Kentucky, b longing to the People's This preference is easily accounted little incident occurred at the time of the de parture of the boats, which shows that ever during the present animated opposition be tween the two lines, all other feelings were made to yield to the desire of showing respect of his own church.—Boston Courier. to the Chief Magistrate of the nation. position of the boats, as lying at the wharf, is such that the Charles Carroll, belonging t the Union Line, has the advantage in start ing; but Capt. Chaytor, her commander, with which characterize him, on this occasion way ed his privilege, and permitted the Kentuck manner in which it was performed, excited warm feelings of approbation among the crowd whaif to witness the departure of the Presilent .- Bult. Gazette.

We were in error on Siturday in stating that the President visited the Theatre on Fri day evening. It was reported early in the afternoon that he would be present, the managers having prepared a box for his reception. managers were apprised in the course of the evening—having first secured the benefit of an "over-flowtize house."

ed to recognise in the sum of $550, for his appearance at the next (June) term of the S.

J. Court for trial on the charge of manan "over-flowtize house." an "over-flowing house."

THE PRESIDENT AND THE INDIANS has been obligingly favoured with a copy of the following parting address of the President morning; to which the Prophet made a reply, a copy of which follows the address.

Black Hawk and his party were introduced to the President, who addressed them as

My CHILDREY, -When I saw you in Wash-

My FATHER, -My cars are open to your

A young lad named FRAMPTON, about wage war or to make peace. The art of the printment has not been already made.

A young lad named FRAMPTON, about wage war or to make peace. The art of the printment has not been already made.

The members elect from the City of Baltiviage and that at Meadville will be one of the printment has not been already made.

The members elect from the City of Baltiviage and that at Meadville will be one of the pricious fruits of the earth; it belong to more, while taking upon themselves to make consequence also. There may be other colthis proposition, hope and trust, that their legiste institutions in this country under the fellow members will see nothing more than patronage of that church. We have pleasure in noticing this attention to the arts and sciof themselves, and believe that the daty of preparing men to teach; and we are sure that ety of Methodists to diffuse knowledge, as an advantage to the nation, as well as to the particular sect in which they originate. —Phil.

U. S. Gaz.

The New England Conference of the Methodist Dpiscopal Church holds its session this of the skull was carried away, leaving the year in this city. It numbers about one hun-maining part as completely empty and completely empty. dred and twenty ministers, who will assem-ble this day at the Methodist Church in Bennett street. Bishop Undding will preside. It is stated in the Globe that the Rev. Mr. Avery is ordered to be in attendance on the supposed murder of Miss Cornell, will pro-bably be investigated according to the rules

IMPORTANT TRIAL. gentleman just arrived from Bangos (Me.) has given us the particulars of a case of recent occurrence there, which is said to have excited considerable sensation. An unlicensed grog dealer, named Treadwell, keeping a shop at what is called the Point, with the assistance of an understrapper, named Wood-ward, undertook, on Tuesday last, to furnish an Irishman with as much wine as he counsel table with his usual collected: could drink for twenty-five cents. The Irishman drank a pint of stuff which was drawn. The Court were detained some minus man drank a pint of stuff which was drawn for him as 'port wine,' and walked off. In about half an hour he returned and drank two was at that time in church. During this pints more. The result was death. Wood- riod of painful suspense, a silence alm ward was apprehended, on complaint of the death-like pervaded the whole court hex. Coroner, who held an inquest over the body. On Friday last he was examined, and required. Mr. Randolph having appeared, the prison Coroner, who held an inquest over the body.

On Friday last he was examined, and requir-

RAIL ROAD ACCIDENT.

The Editor of the Baltimore Republican as been obligingly favoured with a copy of vening, soon after leaving the Rail Road Car. This is the first serious accident since this into Court, and sat close by his side out road has been in operation .- Phil. Nat. Gaz. this awful crisis.

destruction of a steamboat by fire, and the loss of a number of valuable lives, is related in the New Orleans Courier of the 25th ult. The destruction of lives was occasioned, it his reception and in which he embarked is agton, I told you that you had behaved very appears, by the explosion of a parcel of gunpowder, stored in the hold of the host: LOSS OF THE STEAMER LIONESS.

that Sheckak, your principal Chief, and the rest of your people, are anxious you should return, and Keokah has asked me to send you back. Your Chiefs have pledged themselves for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct, and I have given discontinuous for your good conduct. The lives of 15 or the following information.

The Cholera IN THE WEST.

An extract from our Correspondent of the following information.

The following information.

To this the Prophet and the others answer- of the Hon. J. S. Johnson; Michael Chin. Natchitoches; J. V. Bossier, de; R. Bond.

do.

Crem.—Mr. Isaac Wright, (pilot.) slight, Mr. John Roberts; (engineer;) John Gilmanilor; and 2 other sailors and 1 free. names not known.

All others on board escaped without injustment of the baggage and some money being ing to passengers was lost.

How the fire originated is not known;

supposed however to have been communed

New Orleans, on board S. B. Huron Ming. boat from the fire in the hold.

MELANCHOLY ACCIDENT. On the 25th ultime a melanchely acles distressing accident occurred at Hopking presented to the forehead of young Fair In this position it went off and about one maining part as completely empty and de avs our correspondent, as it it had be Mr. Finley the fither of the unfortunate was near at hand, and entering the shople his son dead, and his brains scattered a the room and the gunsmith's back, when rowly escaped being also killed .- Louis

From the New York Journal of Comment the 6th. ACQUITTAL OF THE REV.E.L.

AVERY. Our Reporter arrived from Newporter vesterday morning. At twelve o'clock of Sunday noon, the jury returned into count ter an absence of sixteen hours. In afe moments the prisoner was brought in I walked with a firm step and took his sex

The cheek and brow of Mr. Avery bear instantly and violently suffused he leading head on his right hand, raised his spends and wept. His hand was classed first re-

There was not the least exhibition of fed-A melancholy occurrence, involving the extraction of a steamboat by fire, and the in order and quietude.

Mr. Avery was conducted out of Coart of board a schooner which had been prepared for was entirely consumed. The lives of 15 or rections, that you should be taken to your own a country.

Maj. Garland, who is with you, will conduct you through some of our towns. You will see the strength of the white people. You will see, that our young men are as numerous, as the leaves in the woods. What can you do against us? You may kill a few wo.

Passengers—dead—Hon. Josiah S. John. Passengers—dead—Hon. Josiah S. Johngon, of Louisianna; B. Q. Riggs, Esq. of Alexandria; Michael Boyce, Esq. do; Mr. Michael Clifford, New Orleans. Mr. H. Hertz, Texas, Mr. —— Irwin, a deck passenger,
Mr. ————, do.

Crew—dead—John Coley, (mate,) Louisville; John Clark, (steward) late from England; Samuel Landis, sailor; Wm. N. S. Cant, do.

James Fulsome, do. one sailor, unknown;
James Fulsome, do. one sailor, unknown;
by temporal of the disease. With in the last twenty four hours there have been so violent as there are for a four deaths, and generally, when well attended to, now yield to the remedica applied. The city is literally depopulated, not perhapmore than one person in ten remaining is the place. Persons occasionally begin to return the text we would advise all who can convenient the last twenty four hours there have been so violent as they are the coloured persons. The star for a person to the last twenty four hours there have been so violent as they are the coloured persons. The site of the death are the four deaths, and generally, when well attended to, now yield to the remedica applied. The
there is the coloured persons of the star first, and generally, when well attended to, now yield to the remedica applied. The
there is the coloured persons of the star first, and generally, when well attended to, now yield to the remedica applied. The there is the coloured person in the last twenty four heart acks have not been so violent as they are the coloured persons. The size of the coloured persons of the coloured persons. The size of the coloured persons of the coloured persons of the coloured persons. The size of the coloured persons of the coloured persons of the coloured persons of the coloure is a few days our country friends will venture | sh to visit the town without fear of contracting the disease.

Friday, So'clock, P. M. tisfaction of congrafulating their fellow citizens upon the almost entire disappearance of the Choiers, and the present favourable con-dition of the public health. Within the last of hours there have occurred but 2 decided tases of the Epidemic one of them a child of 6 years of age, [already convalescent,] the other a feeble old woman, [doubtful.] Reports from all the Physicians in town, have his day been toade to the Board, all giving se same encouragement to hope that the disesse is about to terminate.

REDICK McKEE, Sec. pro. tem.

The River is 6 feet above low water irk. There have been 21 steamboat arrials, and 22 departures since one last. LEXINGTON, Ky. June 4. Cholera. - To prevent exaggerated rumors, nd to do our duty as a public journalist, we save a second edition of our this week's pa-

The Cholera has been doing sad work aong us within two days. All the co-es and the up to this hour, of which we can obin certain information, we record-1. Mrs Duvall, taken sick Sunday evenz, and died on Monday morning.

Antony, a free coloured man, attacked Senday evening, and died that night.

3. Mr George Boswell, taken sick on oadsy, and died in the night.
4. A negro man of Col. Comb's taken sick

A nego mand died in the evening.

Mr. Barnett Rucker, day-watchman, sick last night, and died this morning. Mr. Cooke, an aged and infirm man, r the old steam-mill, taken at 11 o'clock st night, and died about three o'clock this Henson Brown, gun-smith, a coloured an, on the hill, taken vesterday, and died . morning. Spirit of Washington.

[Ten cases, most of which are expected to minate fatally, are also added.] The Steamboat Sandusky, on her passag rom New York to Albany, took fire, but it has extinguished in about an hour. The Steamboat Forrester was destroyed by re on the 28 ult. on her way up to Nashville o lives were lust. TRIAL OF CLOUGH.

To the Editors of the Philadelphia Gazette.

Moust Holly, June 6, ?

Thursday, 5 o'clock, A. M.

Gestlemen, -I am happy to inform you, at the testimony, in the case of Clough, was bught to a close, last evening about 5 clock. The court having set from 8 in the orning, with a recess of about two hours onat noon adjourned as soon as the evidence sed, for the purpose of allowing counsel on th sides an opportunity of arranging their tes, preparatory to the grappling of words nd arguments, that takes place to day. The road, yesterday, was greater than it had evbeen before; so great indeed that when the our Judges were obliged to escape by climb-g over their desks. More than two hund ladies were present. Indeed this trial the sex, and the absorbing feeling they enerogatives are at stake, for they have enty, and as their numbers increased, have sted the men from their strong holds, invaore violent against the prisoner from day lay, now rages with intense fury against be no longer safe. But a verdict of not Jis out of anticipation of every one-init is one of the improbable things no one expect. It was Clough's particular dethat his trial should come on this court, e and his counsel were well satisfied that would be looked upon with universal exe-tion, if the story of his life and crimes bene familliar to the public as would certain: re been the case had the trial been delaybaracter has been concealed until it fell from he lips of the witnesses. Should the Jury eable to render a verdict to day, which I annot think will be the case, it will be exectly two months from the perpetra ted, to his consiction.—But the pleading of conset will occupy the court until night, if t should close even then. So great is the cubic saxiety to witness the context between he distinguished men concerned, that at this ery moment, a quarter before 6 in the morning one half the court house is alled with paient listeners, and the crowd pressing for admission will very soon choke up the remaining space. The Court meets this morning at inthe o'clock, so you may form a faint idea of he absorbing interest feld by all parties to be reseat.

The counsel for Clough have been truly ineed, to his consiction .- But the pleading of

The countel for Clough have been truly in-flatigable. They have spared no labour or agenuity to shield him from the operation of dverse testimony, and none has been admittdverse testimony, and none has been admit-d but such as the strictest legal scrutiny al-awed. Indeed I should not be surprised if he degrading testimony wrung, by the prose-stion from its own witnesses, were made use I as proof positive of his aberration of mind Train it was subservation. It displayed a of as proof cositive of his aberration of mind Traly, it was subservation, it displayed a urplinde, considering the relation he professed to hole towards his amiable; and virtuous sictim, and deep as must destroy all sympathy and testing for his fate, in the mind of every udicious person. The evidence has shown hroughout, that Clough regarded only the ratification of his own desires, in the progress of his inflexible and pertinacious admiration of their object. How, fast a discrimination miracle he were to be acquitted, his life