VOL. LXXXVIII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JULY 16, 1833.

NO. 29.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
JONAS GREEN,
Church-Street, Annapolis.
PRICE—THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

SAMUEL C. ATKINSON
PROPOSES to issue from the office of the Saturday Evening Post, in the month of July, 1833, the 1st number of a monthly publication, entitled, The

BOOK OF NATURE,
edited by an Association of Scientific Gentlemen of Philadelphia.

EACH NUMBER WILL CONTAIN EIGHT TO TEN FINELY ENGRAVED QUARTO COPPER PLATES, representing various departments of Natural History, each to contain from four to ten distinct figures, engraved from 50 to 100 figures in each number. With a view to diversify the publication as much as possible, a selection of one plate from each of the following subjects will illustrate each number:

1. AGRICULTURE, 2. MINERALOGY, 3. METEOROLOGY, 4. BOTANY, 5. ZOOLOGY, 6. AGRICULTURE, 7. METEOROLOGY, 8. BOTANY, 9. ZOOLOGY, 10. VEGETABLE ANATOMY, 11. GEOLOGY, 12. MINERALOGY.

Each plate will be accompanied with a brief but accurate description of every subject or figure represented, so written as to convey a good idea of the object, without being either of tiresome length, or too highly colored, but that all may be read with pleasure. Every department of the great field of Natural History will be explored, its beauties and intricacies unfolded, and the thousand charms of nature to her votary yields, by the power of the pen, pencil, and press, will be laid before the eye of the intelligent admirer of the great works of Divine Architect. No collection of engravings valuable, we may confidently promise, can be offered to the public at so cheap a rate as more than one hundred of these fine engravings will be given annually; to the man of taste, they furnish subjects which he can admire from year to year, and present with pleasure to his friends; the student in Natural History, may confidently refer to them on all occasions of doubt; while the juvenile portion of society will become acquainted with the inhabitants of the air, the ocean, and the earth. Geography can be learned only from maps or travel; "The Book of Nature," without taking more than the book-shelf or the closet, will unassisted by the congregated curiosities of the whole world, afford a more extensive and accurate view of the subjects embraced the whole range of Natural History, in order to make it as complete as possible, scientific gentlemen have been engaged to render expense to conduct the work; their united efforts, it is believed, will render this periodical very valuable.

The great source of the patronage anticipated by the proprietor is from schools and colleges, and as the work is represented to be models of elegance and accuracy, it will form a work for consultation in every school, engraving, drawing, and study, and will be of inestimable advantage in the schools of the practice. In short, it will be a valuable addition to the capacity and fitted for the use of every individual in the community, from the erudite naturalist to the beginner—for the one a book of reference, for the other a source of pleasing study, amusement and instruction.

The work is not put up with a view to temporary sale, or to a subscription of two years, in about which period it will certainly be completed; it will be so compiled as to be valuable as the plates that. After the term of two years, it will be greatly enhanced, thus making the price a source of those who now come forward to purchase an extensive and novel enterprise.

TERMS.
The Book of Nature," will appear near the first of each month, with from eight to ten fine engraved plates, which will contain from five hundred to a thousand separate figures. The price will be three dollars per annum. Agents on clubs remitting will be entitled to five copies. No subscriber received without payment in advance, or by reference. Single numbers 50 cents, to those who wish to examine the work previous to subscription (always free of postage).

SAMUEL C. ATKINSON, Philadelphia.
No subscription retained for a shorter period than one year or volume.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S COMPLETE WORKS.

A SPLENDID, complete and uniform set of all the works of this celebrated writer ever yet published, together with a biography of his life, his correspondence and miscellaneous writings, never yet published in this country, is about to be issued in numbers by Messrs. Conner and Cooke, of New York. The whole work will be comprised in 48 numbers; each number will contain as much matter as two volumes, and will be furnished to subscribers at the unprecedented low price of 57 1/2 cents each, payable on delivery, which will be equal to only 18 1/2 cents a volume; an amount less by one half, it is believed, than they were ever sold, even at auction.

Persons owning part of the works will be furnished a sufficient number of these, if wished, to make them complete.

Considering the low price at which the work is furnished, and the means that have been taken to enable almost every family to be furnished with them, (which will be explained to any one,) the subscriber hopes to receive a liberal share of patronage.

Specimens of the work can be seen at the Bookstores of W. R. Lucas, 110 Baltimore street, and at E. J. Conale and Co. Calvert street, opposite Barnum's Hotel. The undersigned can be seen every day from 2 to 3 o'clock, at his residence, Barnum's Hotel.

R. K. MOULTON,
Agent for Scott's works.

N. B. Any person or persons who will procure ten subscribers, and forward the amount of subscription to the undersigned, free of postage, shall be entitled either to one set gratis, or the proportionable amount in cash. Four numbers are already published—each subscriber will therefore pay $1 50 on subscribing, the balance on each number as delivered. All communications to the undersigned to be post paid.

Ann-Arundel County, Es.
ON application to me the subscriber, a justice of the Orphans Court, of said county, by petition in writing of Thomas C. Donaldson, of said county, praying for the benefit of the act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at November session 1805, and the several supplements thereto, a schedule of his property and a list of his creditors, on oath, as far as he can ascertain them being annexed thereto, and the said Thomas C. Donaldson, having satisfied me by good and sufficient testimony that he has resided in the state of Maryland two years immediately preceding the time of his application, and that he is now in actual confinement for debt only, and having given security for his appearance at court, it is therefore ordered and adjudged by me, that the said Thomas C. Donaldson, be discharged from his confinement, and that he by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in one of the newspapers in Annapolis, once a week for three successive months before the 4th Monday in October next, to give notice to his creditors, and to answer such allegations as may be made against him by his creditors, and comply with the requisites of the insolvent laws of this state.

RICHARD WILLIAMS,

A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

WALDIE'S SELECT CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

The striking features of this periodical are, that the books are published in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate so reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit, and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant post office in the Union, uninjured.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Waldie, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained entire in two numbers and a half of the Circulating Library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was succeeded by the Memoirs of Lavallie, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise contained in the same space and at the same price. The sixth number commences the travels of Mr. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for at most thirty cents! This enumeration of prices the proprietor trusts, with the facility of transportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighbourhoods, as if encouraged hereafter as he has so far been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in this form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 32 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three volumes, of Rees's Cyclopaedia. This volume will comprise at least from twenty-five to thirty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as books which will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The publisher feels confident in stating, that the entire 32 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are issued, no more will be printed than will supply actual paying subscribers.

Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for clubs to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five individuals. This deduction will pay all postage.

Those who design to patronize this new and popular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and circle of acquaintance for a whole year.

The gentleman who makes the selections for this periodical, to literary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation possessed by few; to this he adds a proper sense of the responsibility he assumes in catering for an extended and moral community. The publisher therefore confidently recommends the Circulating Library to heads of families, as a work which they need have no fear of introducing into any circle.

The ensuing number will contain a highly popular novel, by the English Opium Eater.

ADAM WALDIE,
Carpenter-street, near Seventh, under the Apprentices' Library, back of the Arcade, where subscriptions will be gratefully received.

CABINET MAKING BUSINESS.

THE undersigned takes this method of informing his friends and the public generally, that he has taken the shop on Church street, adjoining the store of Mrs. Levey, and nearly opposite the store of Jeremiah Hughes, Esquire, where he intends carrying on the

in all its various forms. He will superintend the management of Funerals at the shortest notice, and in the most workmanlike style; and from his long experience in, and general acquaintance with the business of his profession, he hopes to meet with the patronage and encouragement of a liberal and generous community.

DANIEL DASHIELL.

THE JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES.

A NEW AND STRIKING CHARACTER ADDED TO WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE Proprietor of this work, anxious to gratify his readers to as great an extent as possible, means will allow, respectfully announces to the public that the very liberal patronage he has received has enabled him to add a new feature to this periodical, which he believes cannot fail to prove interesting and valuable.

THE JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES, embracing three to four pages of additional new matter, will be given every week as an accompaniment to the Circulating Library, and will contain:

1. Early reprints of the reviews and notices of new books from the weekly and monthly periodicals of London, &c. These reviews will be carefully selected with reference both to imparting correct information respecting such new books as are reprinted in America, and to convey literary intelligence in regard to works which rarely find their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to make this department instructive and entertaining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will frequently avoid the expense of purchasing such books as are printed on the calculation that their titles or the reputation of their authors will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts from new books of travels, memoirs, biography, novels, and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the Union, by means of the facilities of mail transportation.

The London Literary Gazette will be culled for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the London Metropolitan, the Monthly, New Monthly, the Gentleman's, Blackwood's, Tait's, Edinburgh, Fraser's, and other Magazines, already regularly received by the editor, will be freely used.

2. Varieties, embracing literary anecdotes, new discoveries in science and the arts, sketches of society and manners abroad, literary and learned transactions, short notices of new books, and every species of information interesting to lovers of reading, with occasional specimens of the humorous departments of the London press, which are within the bounds of good taste, and are now published in no other journal in America.

3. A regular list of the new books published and in progress in London and America.

4. Occasional original notices of new American publications, with extracts embracing their prominent features of excellence or defect.

No additional charge will be made for this great increase of reading matter. It will be contained on the pages of the cover of the Library, and therefore subject subscribers who receive their numbers by mail to no additional expense of postage.

A. WALDIE.

Several applications having been made to ascertain the manner in which the original department of notices of new books will be conducted, we take the present early opportunity of stating that, at least they shall most unequivocally be—UNBOUGHT. The presentation of a copy by the publisher shall not be a passport to praise, when the merits of the work do not warrant it; so that our readers may be assured of two things: First—books shall not be noticed the next day after they are received; and, secondly, they shall not be reviewed before they have been read. We have no royal road to puffing, and will be the less likely, therefore, to fall into the error of an unlucky writer, who, in his anxiety to be the first to blow the bellows of criticism, read the preface only of a duodecimo, and gravely entered his approbation of two chapters which, unfortunately for his critical acumen, had been omitted, while the prefatory reference to them had been, by mistake, retained! This predicament was worse than that of the London editor, who criticised some passages of Cooke's acting, and found when he rose next morning, and his paper was all over London, that the play had been postponed.

For the rest, time must develop our course and our capabilities; in cases where the usual courtesy of the trade is not extended to this journal, unlike most of our contemporaries, we shall buy what books we want, and give to such as deserve it a careful perusal.

The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new journal, make the present number but a partial specimen of its future promise.
