A NEW, CHEAP AND POPULAR PERIODICAL.

SELECT CIRULATING LIBBABT.

THE striking features of this periodical are, that books are published in it in a form which allows of their being carried by mail, and at a rate to reasonable, that every intelligent educated person in the community can procure them. The publisher receives from England all the new books of merit; and from these, selections are made from the best class of Novels, Memoirs, Travels, Sketches, Tales, and Biography. These are printed as rapidly as an extensive printing office will admit, and forwarded by mail, carefully packed so as to carry to the most distant pust office in the Union, uninjured.

This periodical commenced in October, with the popular novel of Wakhstein, or the Swedes in Prague, which cost in London six dollars; it is contained entire in two numbers and a half of the Circulating Library, costing subscribers less than twenty-five cents. This was succeeded, by the Memoirs of Lavallette, which cost the publisher to import eight dollars; it was likewise constrained in the same space and at the same price. The sixth number commences the travels of Mr. Vigne, costing in London six dollars; it will be printed entire in the "Library" for at most thirty cents! This enumeration of prices the publisher trusts, with the facility of trapsportation by mail, will be sufficient to induce those who receive this prospectus, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighbourprospecture, to induce those who receive this prospecture, to use some exertion to extend the circulation of the work in their respective neighbourhoods, as, if encouraged dicreafter as he has so far been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in this form all the best books which issue from the form the second t been, it is his intention to lay before the American public in this form all the best books which issue from the London press.

The price is five dollars for 52 numbers, which will contain as much matter as 1200 pages, or three solumes, of Rees's Cyclopacilia. This volume will comprise at least from twenty-five to thirty entire works, printed on good paper, and with the same accuracy as book work. It will form two volumes of 416 pages each, well worthy of preservation for reference, and a valuable addition to every public and private library. The pathium feels confident in stating, that the entire 52 numbers, when bound, will sell for more than the subscription price, as after a few more numbers are isqued, no more will be printed than will supply actual paying subscribers.

Still further to increase the facilities of subscribers, the publisher has added another inducement for clubs to join together in their remittance. Twenty dollars will be received in full for the subscription of five individuals. This defication will pay all postage.

Those who design to patronize this new and appular mode of publishing good books, will oblige the subscriber by forwarding their remittances as early as practicable. A five dollar note deposited in the post office will supply good reading to a family and circle

The gentleman who makes the selections for this periodical, to literary taste and education, has, from his situation, facilities for knowing what is popular and of high reputation possessed by few; to this he adds a proper sense of the responsibility he has assumed in catering for an extended and moral community. BELLES LETTRES. A MEN AND STRIKING CHARACTER ADDED TO WALDIE'S

CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE Proprietor of this work, anxious to gra-tify his readers to as great an extent as his means will allow, respectfully announces to the public that the very liberal patronage he has received has enabled him to add a new feature to this periodical, which he believes cannot fail

THE JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES, embrace ing three to four pages of additional new matter, will be given every week as an accompa niment to the Circulating Library, and will

1. Early reprints of the reviews and notices of new books, from the weekly and monthly periodical press of London, &c. These reviews will be carefully selected with reference both to imparting correct information respecting such new books as are reprinted in America, and to convey literary intelligence in regard to works which rarely fird their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to make this department instructive and entertaining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will frebooks as are printed on the calculation that their titles or the reputation of their authors will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts novels, and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the Union, by means of the facilities of mail transportation.

for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the London Metropolitan, the Monthly, New Monthly, the Gentleman's, Blackwood's, Tait's, Edinburgh, Fraser's, and other zines, already regularly received by the editor will be freely used.

2. Varieties, embracing literary anecdotes. new discoveries in science and the arts, sketch learned transactions, short notices of new books. and every species of information interesting to lovers of reading, with occasional speci -reading, with occasional specimens of the humourous departments of the London press, which are within the bounds of good taste, and are now published in no other journal in America.

S. A regular list of the new books published and in progress in London and America

PNo additional charge will be made for this great increase of reading matter. It will be contained on the pages of the cover of the Library, and therefore subject subscribers who receive their numbers by mail to no additional expense of postage.

Several applications having been made to ascertain the manner in which the original de-partment of notices of new books will be con partment of notices of new books will be con-ducted, we take the present early opportunity of stating that, at least they shall most une quivocally be—UNBOUGHT. The presenta-tion of a copy by the publisher shall not be a passport to praise, when the merits of the work-do not warrant it; so that our readers may be assured of two things: First-books shall not be noticed the next day after they are received; and, secondly, they shall not be reviewed be-fore they have been read. We have no royal road to puffing, and will be the less likely, therefore, to fall into the error of an unlucky wight, who, in his anxiety to be the first to blow the bellows of criticism, read the preface only of a duodecimo, and gravely entered his approbation of two chapters which, unfortunately for his critical acumen, had been omitted, while the prefatory reference to them had been, by mistake, retained! This predicament was worse than that of the London editor, who criticised some passages of Cooke's acting, and found when he rose next morning, and his pa per was all over London, that the play had been postponed.

For the rest, time must develope our course and our capabilities; in cases' where the usual courtes of the trade'is not extended to this journal, unlike most of our cotemporaries, we shall buy what books we want, and give to such as deserve it a careful perusul.

The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new journal, meke the present number but a partial pecimen of its future promise.
