SNOWDEN, Jun'r, bas consented to be a j Candidate to represent Anne-Arundel county in the next House of Delegates, and will be supported by

MANY VOTERS.

Ruderick Darsey has been nominated by the friends of the administration, as a circledate for Congress in the district composed gomery and a part of Frederick country

At an Election held on Monday last at the Banking House, the following gentlemen were elected Directors for the Farmers Bank of dall, William S. Green, Brice J. Wortling

Joseph Harris, St. Mary's Com Nicholas Stonestreet, Charles County. Thomas H. Wilkinson, Calvert County. Henry Howard, of Juo. Montgomery County Joseph L. Smith, Fre wick County. Frisby Tilghman, Washington County. William M. Mahon, Allegany County. Samuel Moale, Baltimore County. Henry Dorsey, Harford County.
DIRECTORS FOR THE BRANCH BANK

AT FREDERICK-TOWN, William Ross, John Tyler, George Bilt-Lewis Medtart.

Annapolis, August 2d, 1833. The Committee of Vigilance and Inspection | will be broken. met, pursuant to adjournment.

On motion, Somerville Pinkney, was appointed chairman pro tem.

Reports were received, from the sub-committees of wards No. 2, 5, 8, 9, & 11, which were read and referred to the consideration of the Corporation. On motion, it was ordered, that the proceedings of the Committee be published every SOM. PINKNEY, Ch'n.

ed early or late, all depend upon August lob-lolly rains, without them there is no good crop—and fine as the crops appear now, if there was to be a drought of four weeks only tention of those present, and concluded by the subject for which it was called, and such other resolutions as shall by them be thought minated Mr. McKim as a candidate for Congress, and they but partially, asks why the names of the delegates were nut published, and asserts that our bare denial will never assisfy the people of Anne-Arundel that they have not been tricked. It is our business, and not an idea or incident can I recollect until yesterday, about 10 A. M. when I found myself in the steerage of a ship bound from the steerage of a ship bound from the Hagerstown (Md.) Torch Light, August 1.

One death of Cholera, occurred in town, on Sunday—a woman—from the line of the following particulars. They first met with the season. There has not been a single case and they be death, that has occurred, in town during the justice, pursued, unchecked a career of critical sum of the process of the sum of the condition of the condition of the condition of the sum of the condition of the condition

From the best information we can obtain the word to meeting which took place prior to county, we are induced to believe, the regular meeting; as but one vote was tak.

Resolved. That this meeting highly appre
15 miles to find a safe harbour—for the shore From the best information we can better the from the county, we are induced to believe, that with proper exertion, a full ticket of the friends of the present administration of the friends of the present administration of the General Government may be elected, and we to meeting which took place prior to upper touce.

Resolved. That this meeting highly appreticates is generally rocky and dangerous. Landed on upon the normalization of the General Government may be elected, and we have the first of the present administration of the general Government may be elected, and we have the first of the Biltimore fidently believe that in the selection of the first of the present administration of the general Government may be elected, and we have the first of t hope to see in a few days two other gentlemen associated with those now achieved.

We are authorised to state, that JOHN S.

SELLMAN of the First District, is a Candidate to represent Anne-Arandel count; in the next House of Delegates.

Section that no member of the Brittmore indentity believe ferting in the selection of the community.

The above report and resolutions were reground of Mr. Nickim's being preferred, lie ceived and adopted by the meeting.

Dr. Duvall now moved that the committee
the next norming, when the excessive cold acted with much more wisdom, and from much ligher motives. It was not known, previous of three, as recommended by the report, be water knee deep to the shore, and from there to the reading of list in the region of the selection of the single found us again on the next norming, when the excessive cold
of three, as recommended by the report, be water knee deep to the shore, and from there

We do not, like our antagonists in this con- as the committee, troversy, undertake to assert positively what BENJ, OGLE, Chairman. passed in the Convention of our opponents. Col. Secwart's nomination was produced by Mr. FROTHINGHAM.—We rejoice to ness and several infles in circuit.

The captain informed me that I engaged as whole number of deaths, by cholers, since it is a reduction of one, from a cabin passenger, but as he found I had only lith June, is fifty.

FOR ANNAPOLIS AND ANNE-ARUN.

DEL COUNTY.

Hency Maynadier, Richard Harwood, of the fact of murder we almost all are satisfied with what was done. So Mr. McKim's mame was proposed and seconded from that quarter, and the nomination dall, William's County and the nomination of them that all are satisfied with what was done. So tee of investigation, however, was raised, two had just come down into the hold, when Mr. McKim's smaller was proposed and semilatto fellows were arrested, and one of them mind in an instant was as clear and as rate conded from that quarter, and the nomination implicated a tavern keeper; but all of them all as ever.

The captain remarked that he had so Besides the letter of Mr. Sellman, who has it was sufficiently powerful to pervert the fa-symbolic were his name, from high and honoura-

The truth of the matter is, that our opponents are shockingly discomposed at a view of the prospects before them; and are resorting to every expedient in their power to produce distraction in our ranks, and to heal the William Ross, John Tyler, George Bilt. differences among themselves by representing My Drar Parents:—
What can you have Brien, Henry Kemp, Horatio M. Pherson, and avail them nothing. We shall move in a solid of tune, and at the next election the strings

SOM. PINKNEY, Ch'n.

John H. Wells, See'y.

The Easton Gazette of the 3d instant says of the Crops in that section of the state:

Upon threshing, the wheat crop is found to be very short indeed, and the weight light of from loss in weight and diminution in quantity of grain by scab and various disasters, the wheat crop of this year is put to its greatest extent at a calculation of between one half and two thirds of an ordinary crop.

The corn crop is promising and is in a fair out to the planters of the forest, as well as to the rail road company, the views and senting very little exercise. The effects of this close application from sunrise till nine in the evening. I soon perceived, and several times was sensible that my thoughts for a mode of the state:

Upon threshing, the wheat crop is found to be very short indeed, and the weight light of the meeting, discoursed for some prefatory remarks in explanation of the ordinary crop.

The corn crop is promising and is in a fair quarter of the forest, as well as the well and two thirds of an ordinary crop.

The corn crop is promising and is in a fair quarter of the proposed rail road dompany itself, by the adoption of the stute:

The reason Gazette of the 3d instant says of the Crops in that section of the state:

Upon threshing, the wheat crop is found to the proposed rail road from Baltimore to ordinary crops. The corn crop is promising and is in a fair quarter of the proposed rail road from Baltimore to of this close application from sunrise till nine in the evening. I soon perceived, and several times was sensible that my thoughts for a mode of the state:

Upon threshing, the wheat crop is found to the indication of the intervening the weight of the meeting, discoursed for some prefatory remarks in explanation of the death of the mode and to think of the remarks of the son pound and to think of the remarks of the son pound and to think of the remarks of the son pound and to think the sum of the times was sensible that my thoughts for a mode of the trong head of

THE NUMINATION.

The correspondent of the Chronicle, who as in their opinion shall be considered exnindertook to induce the public to believe that but three districts in Anne-Arundel county the subject for which it was called, and such and not an idea or incident can I recollect until yesterday, about 10 A. M. when I found

WALTER W. W. bown, Sech.

Mr. FROTHINGHAM .- We rejoice to ness and several miles in circuit. the support him.

The are told that tothe name of Col. suddenly from his brarding-house in Utica, but as I had none he sold me or lent me eveand what was fair and is satisfactory in one excitement was not so great as that which case, is, we think, likely to be so in another. the considerations, is before the public, while stances an under weight and bearing. It now we have seen no letter from Mr. Stewart, of appears by the following letter, addressed by Anne-Arundel county, and are not likely to the young man to his parents, that his departure was owing to mental alienation, and that on the 27th May, he was safe in England. -N. Y. Adv.

Atlantic Ocean, 12 May 1833. About 500 miles E. of New Foundland Banks thing is wrapt in confusion—"shadows, clouds and darkness rest upon it," I have there was to be a drought of four weeks only from this time, it would blast the prospects of farmers most cruelly. On the coutrary, two of the most enriching of all crops, Indian Corn.

From the Balt. Republican.

The Correspondent of the Chronicle, who are the forming of the course of the Chronicle, who are the provinced by the chair, to tail such resolutions and was answered Montreal." For a moment of the Chronicle, who are the provinced by the chair, to tail such resolutions and was answered Montreal." For a moment of the Chronicle, who are the provinced by the chair, to tail such resolutions and was answered Montreal." For a moment of the chair, to tail such resolutions and was answered Montreal." For a moment of the public to believe that it is altogether wrong. If a person is gow what as if standing near a mountain when a volcano burst from it side. To escape the fire wheat as if standing near a mountain when a volcano burst from it side. To escape the fire wheat as if standing near a mountain when a volcano burst from it side. To escape the fire what as if standing near a mountain when a volcano burst from it side. To escape the fire who and land burst from the whole, a pleasant passage. We health of body and mind was never the presumed to the ship, where I am have been on shore that ke is altogether wrong. If a person is gow health of body and mind was never the presumed to the ship, where I am have been on shore that ke is altogether wrong. If a person is gow what as if standing near a mountain when a volcano burst from it side. To escape the fire who and in the course of the coming fortnight will give us a most abundant crop, of that a cost pleasant passage. We health of body and mind was never the treat it is altogether wrong. If a person is gow health of body and mind was never the treat it is altogether wrong. If a person is gow health of body and mind was never the treat it is altogether wrong. If a person is gow health of body and mind was never the treat it is altogether wrong. If a person is go vague, dim recollection of feeling some-

STATE ANNA POLISE:

Interesting January 8, 1888.

COUNCIL CHABURIT, draw of the Convention published the names of the pulic parties of the Convention published the pulic parties of the Convention published the names of the pulic parties of the Convention published the names of the pulic parties of the Foot Event in the dark district. All parties of the Foot Event in the dark district, all point and personal political friends in American district and the pulic parties of the Convention published the names of the delegate at fail length. He to use the pulic parties of the Miller of the necessary to published the names of the dele- | turned and presented through their chair- | Queties about 3 o'clock, P. M. I then follow- mong our citizens, who continue to an

the next House of Belegates.

Mr. Gries,—You are requested to an end of the eading of his letter, even to the delegates from Botimere, that they would all prenounce in your next paper, that THOMAS

SNOWIEN, Jun'r, has consisted to be a lighter motives. It was not known, previous of three, as recommended by the report, by to travel half a mile to a hut occupied by a gates from Botimere, that they would all preincluding itself as charmen of said commit. French family, who understood not a word of the Mr. KcKim, and certainly could not have to the eading of his letter, even to the delegates from the county.

Why response to the report, by

to travel half a mile to a hut occupied by a gates from Botimere, and from the chief of the saire, and from the following itself as charmen of said commit.

French family, who understood not a word of the Mr. KcKim, and certainly could not have seen to the delegates from the county.

SNOWIEN, Jun'r, has consisted to be a

SNOWIEN, Jun'r, has consisted to be a

Nowite in the report, by

to travel half a mile to a hut occupied by a gates from Botimere, and from the county.

SNOWIEN, Jun'r, has consisted to be a

SNOWIEN, Jun'r French family, who understood not a word of we entirely forget to mention the subject nesday, 24th.) While in the Gulf we were cholera, up to 10 o'clock, A. M., of then detained five days by the ice, and afterwards were in great danger from icebergs, some of port made by the Board of Consulting Pin which were two or three hundred feet in thick- cians, at ten o'clock this morning, thatia

> It will be recol- a small amount of money, I was obliged to too who stand high in their party. lected that this young gentleman, who was a take passage in the steerage. Such passagers as it generally is, at this season of the rea must find their own bedding and provisions, grant and proposed and secon led from that last April, and that an impression very generative withing necessary. I was taken seasick quarter, and the nomenative adopted without rully prevailed that he had been murdered, as soon as we had a very high sea, and was dissenting voices, and this is given. The evidence of the fact of murder we all just able to get upon deck after a week's confusive evidence that all was fair, and ways deemed to be inconclusive. A commit-finement, day before yesterday morning, and mind in an instant was as clear and as ration-The captain remarked that he had sometimes suspected me to be a little deranged, and my fellow passengers thought my appearance very odd at Quebec, but as I was frequently engaged on board in reading, they quently engaged on board in reauting, and cy themselv concluded it was owing to tabsence of mind, cy themselv concluded it was owing to tabsence of mind, malignity. and a natural eccentric character.' could hardly believe when I first made known to them my utter ignorance of every transaction since the time I met with them on the St. Lawrence. They told me I had been uniformly courteous and cheerful, and that when we walked from the shore to a house luring the storm, I carried her in my arms anout half the way, she being too cold and weaus to be as much disorded as they are. It will avail them nothing. We shall move in a solid disappearance? Many conjectures must have hought of my sudden disappearance? Many conjectures must have prove the fact. The fidile is altogether out of tune, and at the next election the strings will be broken.

What can you have thought of my sudden disappearance? Many conjectures must have passed through your minds, all ending where they commenced, in dark are funxious uncertainty. But the Gol of Heaven has been my protector through unknown dangers, and now the cabin of a ressel, and when I knew from the tune that I was in the cabin of a ressel, and wear-ried to walk. They were well wrapped up in least the walk. They were well wrapped up in least to walk to walk. They were well wrapped up in least to walk to walk. They were well wrapped up in least to walk to walk to walk. They were walk to walk to walk to walk to walk to walk to walk. They I felt when reason first told me that I was in the cabin of a vessel, and when I knew from protector through unknown dangers, and now on the unfathomed occum, in health and safety.

From the National Intelligencer.

A large and very respectable meeting of the planters of the forest of Prince George's county was convened at the Franklin school house, on Friday evening the 19th ult, to take into consideration the propiety of memorializing or otherwise bringing to the notice of the President and Directors of the Baltimore and Ohio rail road company, the views and sentiments of the people of this section of this close application from sunrise till nine to make a second attempt. But I think no dangers, and now the cabin of a vessel, and when I knew from the cabin of a vessel, and when I knew from the cabin of a vessel, and when I knew from the pircling and tossing that that vessel was the pictoling and tossing that that vessel was to only in the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the liquid on the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the liquid on the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan represent when the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the occan represent in the occan. I am in hopes of meeting with the liquid on o'clock this morning. Spoke several vessels during the passage, but the bound to any port nearer home than St. Johns and New Orleans. We had, on the whole, a pleasant passage. My health of body and mind was rever better than now. I have been on shore or vessel, as possibly it may be detained by contrary winds.

R. W. Davis, Frederick Dorsey, John Reynolds, Charles Macgil, John C. Dorrey. T. B. Ducket, Joseph Martin.

July 29, 1833. From the Pittshurg Gazette, July St.

It is pretty good evidence that all alarm, bout the cholera, has disappeared bere, to our last paper. In the Gazette, of Tuesda the 23d inst, we gave an account of case cholera, up to 10 o'clock, A. M., of the 22 deaths had occurred in this city, and that

They declare that the city is now as health From the Cincinnatti Gazette, June 29 .. CHOLERA.

Interments in the several burying groun's of Cincinnatti on Saturday and Sundiv.

From the Cincinnati Republican ABATEMENT OF THE CHOLERA It is quite certain that the cholera has been abating for several days. Whether it is about to disappear from the city, or will revivent has more than once, during the summer, mains to be seen. Meanwhile, all shoulder ry themselves as if the disease provailed mi

USE OF ICE. Many persons are uncertain as to the sife of using ice. Some even have a prejudice-gainst meddling with it at all. Ice, in mer, mer, is undoubtedly, not less salutary, the it is pleasant, and may be used in all our drinks. That large draughts of excessivity cold ice water are sometimes pernicious, isto objection to the prudent and regulated use that article. Ice creams, also, are safe in They should always, however, it dissolved in the mouth. It is a mistake the ce, ice duinks, and ice creams should sake taken when the body is surrounded wifith

America, the people have been inclied to bury their friends, who have had the Cholerat an earlier period than is customary. The is alteration. is altogether wrong. If a person in good health die from Cholera, after an iliness of it the same day not the funeral of the same day with the death, as has the place in several instances this summer.

DANIEL DRAKE, M. D.

July 30, afternoon.

From the Philadelphia Chronicle.

This unfortunate and miserable man, where rests, and succeeded by the aid of a pre- | Sa sessing exterior, and a considerable degree hot sustrance, in throwing a veil over his get the alternative which deceived even those who two most intimately acquainfed with him. was not suddenly arrested by a crime of bruland appalling magnitude without have previously been initiated into acts of wickess, by which his feelings were hardened his heart corrupted.—No man becomes dealy and desperately wicked.—The Ro-to poet long ago said, 'Facilis descensus', the descent to hell is casy, and it has ever been found by the heedless unthinking youth, who despising paren-estruction hardens his neck against re-f. Clough was a young man of good adand well calculated to win his way into steen and confidence of the unwary and spection. The principle of evil, to whose inion he submitted, was the mure danger-ard prejudicial to the interests of society, of the auhtlety in which it moved. igi was ambitious of the character of a nan; and so far as his exterior-his dehis address were concerned, he pass for one; but he had not the essenqualities :- !le was a spirit of evil, and freumstances came into collision with favourite object, some cherished plan, od on no ceremony, was intimidated by ears, and disheartened by no difficulties. were but the goads to awaken his spirarouse him to deeds of desperate and achievement; but he is gone-and the or regret for the murderer of innocence. ss assassin of youth and beauty, s from a morbid and squeamish sensiter on the highway or the buccaneer fac h was a hardened villian, fost to a sense ot love which prompted him to the act as not the consequence of his attachment; wounded self-love; he had never been bee to curb his feelings; or if he had, in-ion was lost on him.

Desilver, in Walnut street, has this ablished his life, from which we will the following extract. This is a fair nea of Clough's style, and a lasting and ng monument of the evil which he nourand which finally overwhelmed him. ave seen the original in the hand writing ough himself, and can therefore answer a authenticity. time; not being engaged in any particu-usiness, I soon fell, gradually, into the of playing cards, and acting dishonestte so engiged, either by taking advan-

of the ignorance of those whom I was with, and cheating others in the best ale in the village of R. I went frequentcompany, and soon formed an intimacy a famale of that village: She was young nandsome, and enjoying a reasonable share to happiness of this world, with a respecand wealthy aunt-having lost both her and mother. Our intimacy soon grew strong attachment, particularly on her Jence, and misted her; I ruined her by vows, and lying protestations of love; have often prayed to my God to forgive for my this blackest act of villainy.—I er situation, and I fled from the placeortly after I heard of her death. o giving birth to the fruits of my vil-I went to Bristol, Pennsylvania, and ed in contract with Morris and Dorto build an aqueduct across Knowl's t, on the Delaware division of the Pennatire satisfaction of Mesers. Morris and While engaged in Bristol I indisall kinds of dissipation, except that | m perance; almost every night playing or some other games for money-acting ost dishonest manner, cheating and nding whenever a proper opportunity of--Upon one occasion, while at that place, anging money for an old gentleman, 1 on him two counterfeit five dollar bills | O e 'Camden Bank,' which I had but a few before purchased for fifty cents.

etired to my room, and threw myself on th ed. About ten o'clock Mrs. Longstreth | g Mrs. Hamilton as they were going to their og room, stopped at my door and inquir fould have any thing. I thanked them answered I wanted nothing. They retire their bed. I arose and went down stairs. s gone about fifteen minutes. I returned my room, unlocked my trunk, and from it ok a Dirk. I unsheathed it. I held it ire my eyes. Fatal instrument! It was a ent from Mrs. Hamilton-the property of eceased husband, and given to me at a when I supposed she loved me, and when ras anticipating every happiness. I exam-id it again and again. I recollected when gave me that fatal instrument she also me a lock of her hair. I sought her hair ound it. I examined it, also, and after horrible, demonlike reflection I fully red, that she must die. I smiled to think the dagger she had given me, and which hen held in my hand unpolluted, should be instrument in my hands, to seek her heart's od, and see it ooze for vengeance.'

the Editors of the Pennsylvanian: GENTLEMEN:—Passing through Woodbury is morning, on my way to visit some of the othern parishes of this diocese. I met with unera parishes of this diocese. I met with ur paper of this morning, containing a note of the execution of Joel Clough, in which was stated that he was attended, among ort clergymen, by myself. You will oblige by stating in your next paper that such is not the case. Being at Mount Holly that o Sanday's succeeding the conviction of Mr. ough, to supply the place of the Rector of