

The Maryland Gazette.

VOL. LXXXVIII.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, AUGUST 22, 1833.

NO. 34

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN,
Church-Street, Annapolis.

—THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

SAMUEL C. ATKINSON
PROPOSES to issue from the office of the Saturday Evening Post, in the month of 1833, the first number of a monthly publication, entitled, The BOOK OF NATURE,

As by an Association of Scientific Gentlemen of Philadelphia.

EACH NUMBER WILL CONTAIN EIGHTY TO TEN FINELY ENGRAVED QUARTO COPPER PLATES, of various departments of Natural History, each to contain from four to ten distinct figures, from 50 to 100 figures in each number. With to diversify the publication as much as possible, the plates from each of the following subjects will illustrate each number:

- 1. S. VERMES & ZOO-PHYTES,
- 2. BOTANY,
- 3. VEGETABLE A-NATOMY,
- 4. GEOLOGY,
- 5. MINERALOGY.

Each plate will be accompanied with a brief but concise description of every subject or figure it contains, so written as to convey a good idea of the object, without being either of tiresome length, or technically written. Every department of the great field of Natural History will be explored, its beauties and curiosities unfolded, and the thousand "claims of nature to her votary yields," by the power of the pencil, and the press, will be laid before the intelligent admirer of the great works of Divine Architecture. No collection of engravings valuable, we may confidently promise, can for more than one hundred of these fine engravings be given annually to the man of taste, who loves the study of Nature, and the student in Natural History, may confidently refer to them on all occasions of doubt, while the portable portion of society will become acquainted with the inhabitants of the air, the ocean, and the earth.

Geography can be learned only from maps or travels, in the "Book of Nature," without taking leave from the book-shelf or the closet, will be found the most complete and accurate of the whole of the kind. The increased value of this study, which the late years of our life, induces the publisher to hope for extensive patronage for a work, necessarily involving great expenditure, and which will combine great interest, accuracy and beauty.

The subjects embrace the whole range of Nature, in order to make it as complete as possible. The scientific gentleman has been engaged at great expense to conduct the work; their united efforts, it is believed, will render this periodical highly valuable.
A great source of the patronage anticipated by the proprietor is from schools and colleges, and as the work is represented to be models of elegance and accuracy, it will form a work for consultation in every school, and will be of inestimable advantage in the cultivation of their practice. In short, it will be of the greatest utility and interest to every individual in the community, from the erudite naturalist to the beginner; for the one a book of reference, and a source of pleasing study, amusement and instruction.
The work is not got up with a view to temporary popularity, or to a subscription of two years, in about which it will certainly be completed; it will be a permanent work, as complete as to be valuable as the plates last. After the term of two years, the price will be greatly enhanced, thus making the price on the side of those who now come forward as extensive and novel enterprises.

TERMS.
The "Book of Nature," will appear near the first of the month, from eight to ten fine engraved plates in each number, making above 100 engravings in the volume, which will contain five hundred distinct separate figures. The price will be $100 per annum. Agents or clubs remitting will be entitled to five copies. No subscriber receives without payment in advance, or salary reference. Single numbers 50 cents, to whom wish to examine the work previous to subscribing. Address (always free of postage), S. C. ATKINSON, Philadelphia.
No subscription received for a shorter period than one year or volume, or 25.

SIR WALTER SCOTT'S COM- PLETE WORKS.

A SPLENDID, complete and uniform set of all the works of this celebrated writer ever yet published, together with a biography of his life, his correspondence and miscellaneous writings never yet published in this country, is about to be issued in numbers by Messrs. Conner and Cooke, of New York. The whole work will be comprised in 48 numbers; each number will contain as much matter as two volumes, and will be furnished to subscribers at the unprecedented low price of 57 1/2 cents each, payable on delivery, which will be equal to only 18 1/2 cents a volume; an amount less by one half, it is believed, than they were ever sold, even at auction.

Persons owning part of the works will be furnished a sufficient number of these, if wished, to make them complete.

Considering the low price at which the work is furnished, and the means that have been taken to enable almost every family to be furnished with them, (which will be explained to any one,) the subscriber hopes to receive a liberal share of patronage.

Specimens of the work can be seen at the Bookstore of W. R. Lucas, 110 Baltimore street, and at E. J. Coale and Co. Calvert street, opposite Barnum's Hotel. The undersigned can be seen every day from 2 to 3 o'clock, at his residence, Barnum's Hotel.

R. K. MOULTON,
Agent for Scott's works.

N. B. Any person or persons who will procure ten subscribers, and forward the amount of subscription to the undersigned, free of postage, shall be entitled either to one set gratis, or the proportionable amount in cash. Four numbers are already published—each subscriber will therefore pay $1 50 on subscribing, the balance on each number as delivered. All

ON application to the subscriber, a justice of the Orphans Court of Anne Arundel county, by petition in writing, of William Willigman, of Anne Arundel county, stating that he is now in actual confinement, and praying for the benefit of the act of the General Assembly of Maryland, entitled, An act for the relief of sundry insolvent debtors, passed at December session 1803, and the several supplements thereto, on the terms therein mentioned, a schedule of his property, and a list of his creditors, on oath, so far as he can ascertain the same, being annexed to his petition, and the said William Willigman having satisfied me by competent testimony that he has resided two years within the state of Maryland immediately preceding the time of his application, and the said William Willigman having taken the oath by the said act prescribed for the delivering up his property and given sufficient security for his personal appearance at the county court of Anne Arundel county, to answer such interrogatories and allegations as may be made against him, and having appointed James Hunter his trustee, who has given bond as such, and received from said William Willigman a conveyance and possession of all his property real, personal and mixed, I do hereby order and adjudge, that the said William Willigman be discharged from imprisonment, and that he give notice to his creditors, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in Anne Arundel county, once a week for three months, before the fourth Monday in October next, to appear before the said county court at the court house of said county, at ten o'clock of the any they have, why the said William Willigman should not have the benefit of the said act and supplements,

THE JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES.

A NEW AND STRIKING CHARACTER ADDED TO WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

THE Proprietor of this work, anxious to gratify his readers to as great an extent as his means will allow, respectfully announces to the public that the very liberal patronage he has received has enabled him to add a new feature to this periodical, which he believes cannot fail to prove interesting and valuable.
THE JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES, embracing three to four pages of additional new matter, will be given every week as an accompaniment to the Circulating Library, and will contain:
1. Early reprints of the reviews and notices of new books, from the weekly and monthly periodical press of London, &c. These reviews will be carefully selected with reference both to imparting correct information respecting such new books as are reprinted in America, and to convey literary intelligence in regard to works which rarely find their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to make this department instructive and entertaining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will frequently avoid the expense of purchasing such books as are printed on the calculation that their titles or the reputation of their authors will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts from new books of travels, memoirs, biography, novels, and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the Union, by means of the facilities of mail transportation.
The London Literary Gazette will be culled for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the London Metropolitan, the Monthly, New Monthly, the Gentleman's, Blackwood's, Tait's, Edinburgh, Fraser's, and other Magazines, already regularly received by the editor, will be freely used.
2. Varieties, embracing literary anecdotes, new discoveries in science and the arts, sketches of society and manners abroad, literary and learned transactions, short notices of new books, and every species of information interesting to lovers of reading, with occasional specimens of the humorous departments of the London press, which are within the bounds of good taste, and are now published in no other journal in America.
3. A regular list of the new books published and in progress in London and America.
4. Occasional original notices of new American publications, with extracts embracing their prominent features of excellence or defect.
No additional charge will be made for this great increase of reading matter. It will be contained on the pages of the cover of the Library, and therefore subject subscribers who receive their numbers by mail to no additional expense of postage.
A. WALDIE.
Several applications having been made to ascertain the manner in which the original department of notices of new books will be conducted, we take the present early opportunity of stating that, at least they shall most unquivocally be UNBOUGHT. The presentation of a copy by the publisher shall not be a passport to praise, when the merits of the work do not warrant it; so that our readers may be assured of two things: First—books shall not be noticed the next day after they are received;
and, secondly, they shall not be reviewed before they have been read. We have no royal road to puffing, and will be the less likely, therefore, to fall into the error of an unlucky wright, who, in his anxiety to be the first to blow the bellows of criticism, read the preface only of a duodecimo, and gravely entered his approbation of two chapters which, unfortunately for his critical acumen, had been omitted, while the prefatory reference to them had been, by mistake, retained! This predicament was worse than that of the London editor, who criticised some passages of Cooke's acting, and found when he rose next morning, and his paper was all over London, that the play had been postponed.
For the rest, time must develop our course and our capabilities; in cases where the usual courtesy of the trade is not extended to this journal, unlike most of our cotemporaries, we shall buy what books we want, and give to such as deserve it a careful perusal.
The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new journal, make the present number but a partial specimen of its future promise.

learned transactions, short notices of new books,

London press, which are within the bounds of
good taste, and are now published in no other
journal in America.

4. Occasional original notices of new Ameri-

their prominent features of excellence or defect.

receive their numbers by mail to no additional

A. WALDIE.
ascertain the manner in which the original department of notices of new books will be con-
of stating that, at least they shall most un-
be noticed the next day after they are received;
road to puffing, and will be the less likely,
criticised some passages of Cooke's acting, and
found when he rose next morning, and his paper
postponed.
as deserve it a careful perusal.
The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new
specimen of its future promise.
