

Mr. GREEN You are authorized to announce SPRIGG HARWOOD, Esquire, as a Candidate for a seat in the next General Assembly.

COMMUNICATED. TEMPERANCE CONVENTION. A Convention of Delegates from the several Temperance Associations in Anne-Arundel county, will be held in the city of Annapolis, on Friday the 20th of September next.

JACKSON REPUBLICAN NOMINATIONS. FOR CONGRESS. Third District—Charles S. Sewell. Fourth do. Benjamin C. Howard.

HOUSE OF DELEGATES. Anne-Arundel County. John S. Sellman, Wesley Litchicum, Thomas Snowden, Jr. Charles D. Watfield.

Queens-June's County. Lemuel Roberts, Thomas Wright, 3d. Samuel R. Oldson, Robert Larimore.

Cecil County. William Knight, Levi H. Evans. John S. Maffi, Lewis Thomas.

Frederick County. David Schley, Joseph M. Palmer. Adiel Unkefer, John Sifford.

Washington County. Fred. Humrickhouse, John O. Wharton. John H. Mann, John D. Grove.

SINGULAR DEATH. On Saturday afternoon about one o'clock, a young man, about thirty years of age, was seen gathering some apples at the place of Mr. Westenburgher at Long Lane, two miles from the city—and was observed by four men afterwards in proceeding, to have been sitting on a gate, and to have fallen off in a short time—and instantly to have become a corpse.

EXTRAORDINARY EARTHQUAKE. The Montreal Gazette of Saturday last, contains an account of an earthquake that recently happened at St. Leon, in the district of Three Rivers, which if true, is one of the most remarkable on record.

BANK ROBBERY. The Mechanics' Bank of Augusta, (Geo.) was broken into on the night of the 28th ult. and robbed, by picking the lock of the teller's vault, of five thousand four hundred and twenty eight dollars, in notes of the Bank. The robbers made great efforts to pick the lock of the cashier's vault, but did no damage to it further than spoiling the lock.

THE SLAVE INSURRECTION IN CUBA. We have received additional information in regard to this rebellion: It appears that 500 or 600 slaves had been smuggled in Africa, and landed at a place about 30 miles West of Havana.

MARRIAGE AT SEA. In the ship Economist, which left Cromarty about ten days ago, with emigrants for Quebec, a marriage took place under circumstances of an unusual description. After the vessel had been a day at sea, a disconsolate damsel made her appearance on deck from the hold, in which she had contrived to secret herself amidst the baggage.

INTERESTING TO PHYSICIANS. We find the following in the New York Evening Post:—By an accidental discharge of a musket, the side of a young man was so much lacerated to perforate the abdomen, and by the skill of an army surgeon, assisted by the efforts of nature, it was nevertheless so healed as to leave the patient in perfect health.

RICHARD LANDER'S EXPEDITION. To the Editor of the Literary Gazette. Cestro House, Liverpool, 31st July, 1838. Sir—Knowing the lively interest you take in your brother's welfare, and the success of the expedition of which he has the command, I am happy to say, many of these reports are highly acceptable to you.

STABBING. On Friday evening, two blacks, named Prince and Johnson, were brought before Alderman Badger, charged with having desperately wounded a white lad named John Ellet, by stabbing him several times in the left breast, with a sword which one of them drew from his case for the purpose.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

three weeks, a great many have died on board the brig. Still more recent accounts, which I have been able to collect from individuals who have been within these few days arrived from Bonny, confirm the accuracy of these statements, and add give a still higher colouring to the distresses of the crew of the Columbine.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.

DESPERATE ATTACK UPON OPORTO. The following are the particulars of the attack upon Oporto, July 25th:—Shortly after five o'clock on the morning of the 25th, a heavy fire of artillery from the batteries upon both sides of the river began upon Lordello, and the Quinta Pasteller, announcing the intention of the enemy to revisit the scenes of previous defeat, and to hazard his last stake on attack.