The dates from O out and Lisbon are no later than before received. From the army of Don Miguel they are several days later.
We make the following translations.
From the Cromica de Oporto, published at Coimbra, August 22d and 25d.

The corps of cavalry, which arrived here vesterday, left this morning at day light to join the army of operations which is marching upon Lisbon. Several pieces of artillery have also been sent forward, as well as other implements of war.

The Archbishop of Evora has addressed a pastoral letter to the faithful within his jurispastoral letter to the faithful within his juris-diction, exhorting them to take up arms in de-fence of their King. Don Miguel, and against Don Petto and his Lorder of the faithful from breeze. Don Pedro and his Lordes of toroign adven-turers, who are alike the enemics of Portu-guese independence and Portuguese religion. The Bishop of Guarda has likewise, and with equal energy, addressed pastoral exhor-tations to the people of his charge, in defence of the country, the throne and religion. They write from Tomar.—We arrived here yesterday, and at two o'clock in the morning, we leave for Sintarem, or to cross the Fagus at Barcuinha. The chief of a rebel guerilla from Santarem, and seven soldiers. have been killed by the volunteers of this vill age. I think our brigade will to-night arrive opposite Santarem [Santarem is 33 miles N. N. E. of Lisbon.] General Lemos, and o ther troops, departed yesterday for that destination. We have here a battalion of faithful Azorians who have done excellent service. United with the volunteers of this village, they have routed the rebel guerillas.

Lerra, Aug. 19.—His majesty Don Miguel passed the night of the 17th at Soure, and on the 13th set forward for this city, at 11 o' clock he halted in a grove near the road, and remained there during the heat of the day, at 5 P. M. he continued his journey, and two hours afterwards arrived in this town, where he was received amid the acclamatic s of the inhabitants, of the troops, and of perper from the adjacent country, who had assembled from several leagues around to see his Manaty.

At night-there was a general illumination. Yelves, Aug. 25.—The cholera continues in this place with increased violence; for although the number of new cases is not augmented, there have been some in which the symptoms have been more malignant than beore, and the victims have died in a few hours after being attacked. In the city and hospitals there are 53 patients in a state of convalescence.

General Count Jacquelin, Governor of this province, continues his march along the southern bank of the Tagus.

The main army of operations moves regularly forward, and it is certain that its advanced guard is at Mafra (Mafra is five miles northwest of Lisbon.) The number of troops in all the armies which are marching upon Lisbon on the north and south of the Tagus, is believed to exceed 20,000 men. In Alentijo and Algarres the greatest tranquility pre-illness have been much exaggerated. Veregret to announce that the Cholera made its appearance in Spain with great ignity, —particularly in the towns of Secand Grenada.
