THE JOURNAL
OF
BELLES LETTRES.
NEW AND STRIKING CHARACTERS ADDED TO WALDIE'S
CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

The Proprietor of this work, anxious to gratify his readers to as great an extent as his means will allow, respectfully announces to the public that the very liberal patronage he has hitherto enabled him to add a new feature to this periodical, which he believes cannot fail to prove interesting and valuable.
The JOURNAL OF BELLES LETTRES, embrace three or four pages of additional new matter will be given every week as an accompaniment to the Circulating Library, and will contain:
1. Early reprints of the reviews and notices of new books, from the weekly and monthly literary press of London, &c. These reviews will be carefully selected with reference both to the correctness of information respecting the authors, and to the reputation of their works, which rarely find their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to secure this department instructive and entertaining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will freely avoid the expense of purchasing such books as are printed on the calculation that they are the reputation of their authors will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts from new books of travels, memoirs, biography, &c., and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the medium of the facilities of mail transportation.

The London Literary Gazette will be called for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the London Metropolitan, the Monthly Review, the Gentleman's, Blackwood's, Edinburgh, Fraser's, and other Magazines, already regularly received by the Editor, will be freely used.

2. Varieties, embracing literary anecdotes, discoveries in science and the arts, sketches of societies and manners abroad, literary and travel transactions, short notices of new books, and every species of information interesting to lovers of reading, with occasional specimens of the humorous departments of the London press, which are within the bounds of good taste, and are now published in no other journal in America.

3. A regular list of the new books published in Great Britain and America.
4. Occasional original notices of new American publications, with extracts embracing their prominent features of excellence or deficiency.

No additional charge will be made for great increase of reading matter. It will be contained on the pages of the cover of the paper, and therefore subject subscribers who send their numbers by mail to no additional charge of postage.

A. WALDIE.
Several applications having been made to certain the manner in which the original department of notices of new books will be conducted, we take the present early opportunity of stating that, at least they shall most understandably be—UNBOUGHT. The presentation of a copy by the publisher shall not be a support to praise, when the merits of the work are not warranted; so that our readers may be satisfied of two things: First—books shall not be noticed the next day after they are received; secondly, they shall not be reviewed before they have been read. We have no royal edict to publish, and will be the less likely, therefore, to fall into the error of an unlucky critic, who, in his anxiety to be the first to blow the bellows of criticism, read the preface only of a doctored, and gravely entered his approbation of two chapters which, unfortunately his critical acumen, had been omitted, while the preparatory reference to them had been, by mistake, retained! This predicament was more than that of the London editor, who noticed some passages of Cooke's acting, and when he rose next morning, and his paper was all over London, that the play had been postponed.

For the rest, time must develop our course and our capabilities; in cases where the usual course of the trade is not extended to this country, unlike most of our contemporaries, we will buy what books we want, and give to such as deserve it a careful perusal.
The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new paper, make the present number but a partial specimen of its future promise.

PROPOSALS
For Publishing by Subscription, at Bel-Air, Harford county, Maryland,
A HUMOROUS PUBLICATION, TO BE ENTITLED
THE MIRROR OF MIRTH.

"Mirth that wrinkled care derides, And laughter holding both its sides."

THE subscriber, fully aware himself, that innocent mirth tends more to blunt the arrows of adversity, and promote health and happiness among mankind, than almost any other means which can be used, is induced to try the experiment of starting a publication which will bear the above title. It is unnecessary, perhaps, to state, that he will expect, before he commences the publication, the names of a sufficient number of persons to pay all the expenses which will be incurred, and when he assures his friends that his calculations on the score of expense are not very extravagant, he hopes the public may be the more inclined to favour the contemplated publication.

The pages of the MIRROR OF MIRTH will be perfectly free from all party spirit, whether in religion or politics. And while the most scrupulously devout will find nothing to condemn, those who make no profession of religion will find in every line something to please, to a muse, and delight.

The publication will contain witty Anecdotes, pithy Epigrams, Hum. Mots, Enigmas, Conundrums, Epitaphs, Choice Sentiments from the best writers of the age, and a collection of the best Maxims, on various subjects, which are to be found in the most approved writers. The Editor of the MIRROR OF MIRTH will strive to make it worthy of the support of the community in all parts of this State, and indeed of the country.

TERMS.
The MIRROR OF MIRTH will be printed on a royal sheet of beautiful paper, and good type, and will contain 8 octavo pages weekly, at the very low price of $1 per annum, payable on the delivery of the first No; $1 25 if paid at the end of six months; and $1 50 if payment be deferred until the end of the year. Fifty-two numbers will comprise a year, or one volume of 416 pages.

*Should a sufficient degree of encouragement be given, the MIRROR will be embellished, occasionally, with humorous engravings.
*Gentlemen procuring five responsible subscribers will be entitled to a sixth copy gratis. Those who procure ten or more subscribers, and forward the money, will receive an extra copy and ten per cent. on all money which they collect.

*If a sufficient number of names shall be obtained to justify the expense, the publication will be commenced as soon after the first of January as practicable; of which due notice will be given.
*Persons holding subscription papers will please return the same previous to the first day of January, 1834.

*As there is no work of the kind printed in Maryland, and as the price will suit the convenience of almost every one, the subscriber confidently calculates on a large number of patrons.

LYNDE ELLIOTT.

*Our Editorial brethren who copy the above, will confer a favour on the publisher, and thereby entitle themselves to the publication without sending their papers. Please mark the advertisement when you insert.

WILLIAM BRYAN,
MERCHANT TAILOR,

TAKES this method of returning his sincere thanks to his friends, and the public in general, for the liberal patronage they have heretofore bestowed upon him, and begs leave to inform them, that he has been compelled, from the heavy calamity which befel him on the 29th October, to remove his shop to the brick building owned by Washington G. Tuck, Esq. one door below the Store of Messrs. Hart & Franklin, and nearly opposite the residence of Dr. Dennis Claude, where he intends carrying on his business in his usual manner; and where he will be happy to accommodate his friends in the line of his profession. He was, by the aid of his fellow-citizens, enabled, on the morning of the above calamity, to save a portion of his Stock in hand, and hopes, in a short time, to be enabled to reinstate his whole stock. He therefore confidently solicits the former patronage of his friends, together with that of the public at large.

LINNEAN BOTANIC GARDEN AND NURSERIES, FLUSHING, NEAR NEW YORK.
WILLIAM PRINCE & SONS, announce to the public, that, from the immense extent of their Establishment, they are enabled to furnish such Trees of the various kinds as cannot fail to give satisfaction by their superior size, vigour, &c. and their Nurseries at present contain more than a million of Trees and Plants in the most thrifty state. Among these are above 50,000 Pear-trees of 3 and 4 years growth, from the graft, comprising the most choice new Flemish and other varieties of modern origin. Their new Catalogues, with the reduced prices, will be forwarded to every applicant, and are as follow:

1. Fruit and Hardy Ornamental Trees, Shrubs and Plants, p p 93.
2. Bulbous and Tuberos rooted Plants and Dahlias, &c. p p 24.
3. Greenhouse Trees, Shrubs and Plants, p p 50.
4. Catalogue of Vegetable, Field and Flower seeds.

To the Proprietors of Nurseries, and to those who may wish to establish new Nurseries, they will furnish all articles desired at a liberal discount and a convenient credit and in all other cases where large quantities are wanted, a reasonable abatement will be made. They will also supply all readers of Seeds, and those who wish to engage in that business, with every variety of Vegetable, Field and Flower Seeds, at very low rates. These seeds possess the advantage of being raised under their own observation, or when imported, of being tested to their satisfaction, and their accuracy and fidelity are expressly guaranteed. Many new and choice varieties will be found in the Catalogue which have never before been offered to the public. The collection of Bulbous Flower roots and Dahlias is particularly rich and extensive, and of the latter they have a specimen bed covering an acre of ground, and comprising 600 varieties now in full splendour.— Bulbous roots and Dahlias can be easily transported, and may be vended in a dry state in sealed stores, &c. and an establishment for the Sale of these articles ought to exist in every town in the Union.—It will be readily perceived that the great number of Trees, &c. living in the Nurseries, enables the Proprietors to make superior selections, and secure to all applicants this particular advantage.
It is desired that all orders be sent direct per mail to the Proprietors, and the utmost attention will be given to forwarding them by the speediest route, &c.
Catalogues may be seen at this office.
