MANSION HOUSE HOTEL.

JAMES MILLS.
 RESPECTFULLY informs his friends, and the public, that he has taken that SPACIOUS HOUSE on the Church Circle where he has opened a HOTEL. The location is central as regards the business of the place, and the House is conveniently arranged for the accommodation of Families or Single persons, either as regular or transient boarders. His Bills and Furniture, are both new, and he flatters himself, especially his Table and Bar will always be furnished with the best market affords, and no pains will be spared to render comfortable and agreeable, who may favour him with their custom. Convenient stabling is provided for the accommodation of such as may favour him with their custom. He has provided an attentive Oiler and Waiters.
 He has attached to his House an Ordinary, where Terrapins, Oysters, Wild Fowl, &c. can be had at the shortest notice.
 He respectfully solicits a share of the public patronage.
 He likewise keeps Saddle Horses for hire for either Ladies or Gentlemen.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.
 THE Board of Trustees, at their next meeting, will elect one scholar from Anne Arundel County to be educated gratuitously, under provisions of acts of assembly, passed for that purpose. By a late order of the board, applications are to be made to the subscriber, and it is desirable that the state merit concerning the age, circumstances, talents, acquirements, &c. of the candidates, should be full, and accompanied with good references.
 The notice is also repeated, that provision has been made by the Trustees to receive, free of tuition, one student from each county in the State, if possessed of good moral character, and superior abilities. Application to be made as above. This privilege is of the average annual value of fifty dollars.
 Editors friendly to science will confer a favor by copying this notice.
HECTOR HUMPHREYS,
 President of St. Johns College.

LAND FOR SALE.
 THE subscriber offers at private sale a Tract of land, near the City of Annapolis, containing about Eight Hundred Acres of Land, more or less. This land adjoins the Farm of the late Charles Carroll of Carrollton, Esq. and is bounded on one side by Severn River, and Creeks, constituting good landings for vessels to take wood from the shore; there are on this land an almost inexhaustible quantity of wood, principally Pine, intermixed with Oak and Hickory; it has been estimated that thirty thousand cords of wood may be cut from this land for Market, and from its proximity to the different landings upon the river, will make it a desirable property to Gentlemen engaged in the wood business, or Factories requiring this most indispensable article. The improvements upon this estate are indifferent, the soil is well adapted to the growth of Indian Corn, Rye, and fine Tobacco may be made upon it. Any person who may be inclined to purchase, is invited to view the premises; and the Terms, which shall be accompanying, can be known by application to me on Elk Ridge, near Elkton's Mills, or to Robert Welch, of Ben. to the City of Annapolis, who will at any time show the premises.

THE JOURNAL
 BY BELLES LETTRES.
 A NEW AND STRIKING CHARACTER ADDED TO WALDIE'S
CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

The Proprietor of this work, anxious to gratify his readers, to as great an extent as his means will allow, respectfully announces to the public that the very liberal patronage he has received has enabled him to add a new feature to this periodical, which he believes cannot fail to prove interesting and valuable.
 The Journal of BELLES LETTRES, embracing those to four pages of additional matter, will be given every week as an accompaniment to the Circulating Library, and will contain:
 1. Early reprints of the reviews and notices of new books, from the weekly and monthly periodical press of London, &c. These reviews will be carefully selected with reference both to imparting correct information respecting such new books as are reprinted in America, and to convey literary intelligence in regard to works which rarely find their way across the Atlantic. As great exertions will be used to make this department instructive and entertaining, the proprietor is confident that it will be considered an important addition, by means of which his numerous subscribers will frequently avoid the expense of purchasing such books as are printed on the calculation that their titles or the reputation of their author will sell the edition. This part of the Journal will embrace a considerable amount of extracts from new books of travels, memoirs, biography, novels, and in fact present a bird's eye view of new publications, early diffused through the Union, by means of the facilities of mail transportation.
 The London Literary Gazette will be culled for this purpose, while the "Critical Notices," of the London Metropolitan, the Monthly New Monthly, the Gentleman's Blackwood's, Fair's, Edinburgh, Fraser's, and other Magazines, already regularly received by the editor will be freely used.
 2. Varieties, embracing literary anecdotes, new discoveries in science and the arts, sketches of society and manners abroad, literary and learned transactions, short notices of new books, and every species of information interesting to lovers of reading, with occasional specimens of the humorous departments of the London press, which are within the bounds of good taste, and are now published in no other journal in America.
 3. A regular list of the new books published and in progress in London and America.
 4. Occasional original notices of new American publications, with extracts embracing their prominent features of excellence or defect.
 No additional charge will be made for this great increase of reading matter. It will be contained on the pages of the cover of the Library, and therefore subject subscribers who receive their numbers by mail to no additional expense of postage.
A. WALDIE.
 Several applications having been made to ascertain the manner in which the original department of notices of new books will be conducted, we take the present early opportunity of stating that, at least they shall most unequivocally be UNBOUGHT. The presentation of a copy by the publisher shall not be a passport to praise, when the merits of the work do not warrant it; so that our readers may be assured of two things: First—books shall not be noticed the next day after they are received; and, secondly, they shall not be reviewed before they have been read. We have no royal road to puffing, and will be the less likely, therefore, to fall into the error of an unlucky wight, who, in his anxiety to be the first to blow the bellows of criticism, read the preface only of a duodecimo, and gravely entered his approbation of two chapters which, unfortunately for his critical acumen, had been omitted, while the prefatory reference to them had been, by mistake, retained! This predicament was worse than that of the London editor, who criticised some passages of Cook's acting, and found when he rose next morning, and his name was all over London, that the play had been postponed.
 For the next time, must develop our course and our capabilities; in cases where the usual courtesy of the trade is not extended to this journal, unlike most of our contemporaries, we can buy what books we want, and give to such as deserve it a careful perusal.
 The prospectus, and some technical difficulties always attending the first issue of a new journal, make the present number but a partial specimen of its future promise.

 This method of repairing is general to his friends, and for general to the liberal patronage he has heretofore bestowed upon him, and he wishes to inform them that he has been compelled from the heavy calamity which befell him on the 29th October, to remove his shop to a brick building, located by Washington U. T. Esq. one door below the Store of Messrs. & Franklin, and nearly opposite the residence of Dr. Dennis Cloud, where he intends to continue his business in his usual manner, where he will be happy to accommodate his friends in the line of his profession, by the aid of his fellow-citizens, on the morning of the above calamity, a portion of his stock in hand, and some short time, to be enabled to re-visit his stock. He therefore confidently solicits the former patronage of his friends, together with that of the public at large.
