To those who have really ... Library," by prompt payment cription, very sincere acknowledges tendered, and a continuance of their proage respectfully requested.

ADAM WALME.

WHILIAM BENAN MERCHANT TAILOR.

AKES this method of re urning his in manks to his frien s, and the purk general, for the liberal pationage they be heretofore bestowed upon him, and begins o inform them, that he has been conselecom the heavy calamity which belef the of the Dennis Claude, whore he detends coming on his cosiness in his usual marrens my on this fusiness in this usual namena where he will be happy to accommulate friends in the line of his profession. Head by the aid of his fellow-citzens, cashella the morning of the above calamity, to says short time, to be enabled to relateristics stock. He ther fore confidency soil ormer patronage of disfriends, together sin

Anne Arundel County, Set.

FOR ANNAPOLIS CAMBRIDGE AND EASTON.

(Cambridge by Castle Haven,) and Estate return from the Eastern Shore on every Wenesday and Saturday, leaving Easter at 7 M. by Castle Haven and Annapolis. Sheet commence her Chestertown Trip on Mildie 22d April, leaving Baltimore at 6 o'clock. 18 the same day, leaving Chestertowr clock, calling at Corsica wharf, for the Cor

N. B. All baggage at the owners risk. Passage to or from Easton or Cambridge, 32.50 Passage to or from Annapolis. Passage to Chestertown or Corsica, Children under 12 years of age half price. LEM'L. G. TAYLOR, Master.

CASH IN MARKET.

THE subscriber wishes to purchase a number of Slaves of both sexes, for which he wills of both sexes, for which ge may in Cash a higher prechas any other purchaser as the market. Persons having them to ket. Persons having them to the property of will communicate with him at Mr.

James Hunter's Tavern. WILLIAM HOOPER.

The Atarpland Gazette.

VOL. LXXXIX.

ANNAPOLIS, THURSDAY, JULY 17, 1834.

NO. 29.

Richard Forrest. D. C.

Jemes W Cooke, N. (

David McDougal, Ohio. Charles F. McIntosh, Va.

C. F. M. Spootswood, Va. Henry C. Flagg, S. C.

Daniel F. Dulaney, Va.

George L. Selden, D. C. William H. Ball, D. C. Elie W. Stull, D. C.

James E. Brown, Va.

65. J. J. B. Walbach, N. H.

66. Joseph R. Brown, Pa.

Hendrick Norvell, Ky. 64. Charles C. Bartor, P.

FOURTH JULY CELEBRATION.

The Marion Corps, under command of Capt, Win. G. Cook, celebrated the Anniversary of American Independence, about two miles and a half from the City. A Dinner was served up under the shade of a pleasant grove, and the day passed of in good fellowship and hi-

At about 12 o'clock, the Declaration of In-

REGULAR TOASTS.

Our Native Land. May those who serve it

3. The Memory of Washington. He weeds are inscribed upon the living tablets of every freeman's heart.

4. The Memory of Lafayette. The hero of two worlds: he has gone down to the grave

Despots smile at the tears of freemen.

5. The Congress of 76. A Nation's gratitude, their best row rd. A continent made free for their proudest mount ent.

6 The Constitution of the United States. A living proof of man's capacity to govern himself. May it be perpetual.

7. The President of the United States.
8. Maryland. May all her citizens be pas

triots and her patriots honest men.

9. Internal Improvement. Relieving the Ocean offa burthen which time has made it groan under; the intercourse of Naves and mighty souls and tough soles.

Volunteer Companies. May the spirit of emulation, which now exists give them best be rewarded with its highest honours no matisaleum to perpetuate his virtues, the

John F. Mercer, Con. Stephen W. Wilkinson, Ten.

Levin Hanay, Md.

Joseph Mooreh

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY JONAS GREEN, THE BRICK BUILDING ON THE PUB-LIC CIRCLE.

RICE-THREE DOLLARS PER ANNUM.

MISCELLANEOUS. Form the United States Gazette. THE IDIOT GIRL. A Sketch from Real Life.

4 Sketch from New Lyce, as the grew, the was a rectious creasure; as the grew, Echilas wine charm untolled to the siews, Echilas wine charm untolled to the siews, Echilas wine charm, whose opting leaflets fair, I standard to the siews of the continuity of wishing, in a plentenus tide. We dishe in reling plant; and will as polled to the continuity of th so the second of the search of tar Girl was numbered with the blest.

new novel has been published in New s, want as said to be good. The followapartofa enapter, which describes a whale won the coast of Africa. The look-out aloft has discovered a whate. will. The half eaten mear was broken -and the rush to the boats was tumultugladiators, in the arena of the Coliseum. marm was heard by the crews of other that a whale was entering the bay. Four mthe Graingus in less than haif a minute erthe c.y was uttered aloft. A hundred terboats were instantly in motion, and bearadown upon the animal. Some, however, ditas divided the chances of capture. None

s from their sight for the first time, saw its, that he nad already deviated largely his first course. As a score of others talready near the spot where he would trise to blow, the first pursuers naturally spin their oars;-but they were watch of the event of the chase. Macy, with his two mates, and an approv beteerer, had each command of a boat. The selection of the crews for these is in fact a matter of taste or favour with these officers of the ship. I he a has his first pick of the whole crew; his judgment is good, he chooses those e most powerful limb and muscle, quick is of apprehension, and readiness of exe-fea. The next choice falls to the first tip-the second officer's turn comes next; and the siftings of the crew fall to the therers. It may readify be believed pull was exerted to carry off the poiz, and tair ing hearts. The whale again cast his flooks words of encouragement were offered, and into the air, and sunk from the view of his enforced in the blandest and most persuasive pursues. Now came the tug of war. kle the big with dark moving spots; to people it with life—snown life; in shere, it was an exhibition of the modest of God's creation, both animal and human, wigging a war of extension of the snown and give way for the credit of the Grampus!?

Here Seth bigged himself in the stern sheets, slock of the line, and to coil it away it slock of the line, and to coil it away it should be credit of the Grampus of the credit of the line, and to coil it away it slock of the line.

of the largest class-held on its course up the hay, scooping its food from time to time. and annihilating its thous rids of small fish at Once more!— Again, my mays!— a niver leaving the boats for in the year, and There,—we pass the Spanisrof? darting off in new directions, until the se who were most on the about or at our those was driven before their buge desourer, clusted to gether and concentrated in schools of such

once of its danger, that plainly showed he the English board but the English board the honour of the name of its danger bank closed by the whaler, pure tion, too, was at st Schaon they hend to the honour of the leads to the period the period to the honour of the leads to the period the leads to the period the leads to the leads hannt, that they must not be unnecessarily eter! Seth saw the increase of speed of his scared; for, if they are, the pursuit may as rival with dismay. The whale, too, was just ra ts have been greated, bearing the date 14th well be abandoned first as last.—No crew rising ahead. The bushles of his bowings. June, 1834.—. Temy and Naval Chronicle.

ed. Obeying the instinct of his nature, he now showed his flooks and vanished from the sight, before the boats could get within striking distance. And ulation being made where he would next appear, (for beneath the water the whale does not deviate from a direct line in his horizontal progress) a general cace englor his course was irregular while in reach in stood. The whole is not a viis animal, unless wounded; and if not lifteel, will move off suggishly from his listes, shid appear and disappear at regurifterias:—so that if the direction is well before a hen he sinks, (or shows his hooks. in his horizontal progress) a general race en-sued and each strove, as if life were on the rred shen he sinks, (or shows his Jlooks, in the chise their position at starting eng-orced tail, as he dives) protty accurate bled them to take the lead when the animal training may be made as to the place of began to much for deeper water. But Soth's men had been reating on their oars, will nearly all others had exhausted their strength. distributed fexcitement in turn; while in following the whale among the ships; and see an had beaded the whale, when he the captain judged rightly, that in darting for the captain judged rightly, that in darting ifter this tiney prey, he would lead them all a bootless dance. He had determined to wait for the retreat; and then to lang upon the rear of the enemy. There were others, however, acquainted with the soundings of the Sorh's, and the advantage gained over him by several boats was proof of this, or at least of the superior accuracy of their calculations, It was a long time since Seth had given chase to an animal of the right whale breed;—he had grappled, of late, only with the sperma-ceti-and, therefore, it was not to be wondered at, at this time, and under the circum-stances, that some of those around him should beat him in manœuvering in the bay. But in the steady chase, he knew, that he could count upon the speed and bottom of his boat's crew; and he was now resolved to contest for the

.We have a clear field now, my boys-give *We have a clear field now, my boys—
It may readify be believed that the strong pull—and the pull altered together discretion has choice, and had long pull—the strong pull—and the pull altogether bears men who might be pitted against together:—keep her to it—heave shead my hearties? Such were tire words of Seth, as hearties? Such were tire words of Seth, as that they were Americans, and experienced while fishermen, is sufficient assurance, of itself, that they were competitors for all times, he guided the light whale boat unerring whaling honours, against the whole world. It is still, as it was eminently then, altogeth whale to re-appear. One by one he had drop-enced. er un-American to admit of superiority in this business. It was, therefore, with deep channels three manfully struggling be grin that Macy saw the game escape him; tween him and the prize. The hale again thus far he had led the van of the attack; treathed at the surface, and the distance be while the whalers in some fifty boats in the tween the headmost boat and the animal was car, if not altogether content that he should | toung to be caninished to half a mile-while rear, if not altogether content that he ships in the bay were run shull down be their leader, were at least satisfied, that the ships in the bay were run shull down to be beaten by him was no dishonour.

The Englishman, the Dane, the Dutchman, occan. Those who had abandoned the chase the Swede, as also representatives of other in despair, were slowly returning to their European nations, were Macy's ambitions ships. The rigging of the vessels was man competitors, for the honour of killing the first med by anxious spectators, watching the mowhale of the season;—the long and the strong tions of the thy specs out at sea, with beating hearts. The whale again cast his flooks on the surface. The swell of the closing wa placed his right foot against the after our, just below the hand of the oursman.

Now pull for your lives!' said he, while I and the strength of my log to the par:— Once more! - Again, my boys! -Once more.

*Diabolo!" exclaimed the mortified native of spolled to the stroke our, had done the just the boat was again quickly backed oil by the while approached the an horizon month of parting more builts were to be passed,—and the shired and its speed was increased as it questy too,—er all the labour would be lost.

burt by the harpoon. His eager pursual after yours with tree vigor. Five the etc English-find may, however, require for his recklession, each with a here chest that would have ness for, remove ity shocking, the instanct of service for the model of Hercines, with arms ness for, consectly sociking, the instant of street for the appearance of the abability and an unusual object floating upon the water; and at such times the nicest stratugem of the art of the abaler is required to capture them.

The norm of the exemination of the abaler is required to capture the stroke only with the strok The persecute I tribes have been chased so | self in a similar attitute of exertion; -and often-pursued so relentlessly, from bannt to his hoat evidently gamen upon the Nactockcan row a boat, for any length of time, to and of his efforts at rising, were negroining to ascend! It was a moment of intense any cty, whale.

The rushing train or vortex of water, told whale. I st commenced its retreat from the bay; and the boats manouvered to head off as he retire word; and then, as it by murual consent, all

'For old England, my lads!' shouted the Remember old Nantucket, my boys!' was the war cry of the other.

Both plied their oars with apparently equal

1. It buckward upon his leader.
1. but thee good bye!? said Seth, as he shot

.Way enough-peak your ears!' said Seth to his men. The oars bristled apeak, after the fashion of the whale fishermen. The harpooner immediately seized and bilanced his eapon over his head, and panted himself firmly in the bow of the boat. At that in-stant the huge body of the whale rose above the surface; and Seth, with a single turn of his steering bar, brought the bow dead upon multaneously with the striking of the boat, the well poised harpoon was launched deep into the flesh of the animal. .Starn all!' Shouted Seth.

the whale, feeling the sting of the barb, darted off like the wind! The well coiled line flew through the groove of the bow post with incomparable swittness, and it presently began to smoke and then to blaze with the rapidity of the friction. Seth now took the bow with his lance, exchanging places with the harpooner, and quietly poured water upon the amoking groove, until it was cooled. The

The boat was backed off in an instant; and nars were again peaked, and the handles in-serted in brackets fixed on the ceiling of the

that they were Americans, and experienced, with eyes steadily fixed upon a certain point, immoveable, rested from their long, but successful pull:—and much need did they have of the relief,—for a more arduous, or a bet-out, and the boat-steerer, with a thick buckskin mitten or nipper, as it is called, for the protection of his hand, seized hold of the line. sad, in a twinkling, caught a turn round the loggerhead, to enable the man at the tub-oar to bend on another line.

ploughed deeply and laboriously, leaving banks of water on each side, as she parted rush. The second line was now allowed to Some, uselessly enough, where so many were said Seth, to his men, for crack your oars; or plank about eighteen in hes square, with a engaged, pulled after the mim d in his decious they are of good American ash, and will bear time proceeding from each corner, and meet course after food; while others rested on their pulling, continued be a Give way with a will ing at a point like a pyramid, was fastened to gars to watch the result, and to take advant Pull pulling, that whale will not sink it, and thrown over to deaden the speed of

> It now became necessary to haul in the Here Seth braced himself in the stern sheets, slack of the line, and to coil it away in the seized the steering oar with his left hand, and tub carefully, while the men pulled with their ours, to come up with the whale when he should rise to the surface. All this gs were > > the light of day, a deep wound, close to the barbed harpoon, was instantly inflicted by the hand of Seth. It was the death plow.

The influiated animal roared in agony, and lashed the ocean into toam. The broad gushed from his spout-holes, falling in torrents up-The whole, in his last acony, is a fearful creamagnitude, that the superior may be made of animal material wave, with a dense mass of animal material wave, with a dense material wave of the sea with such force, may despite the retreating boats, though ten miles destinately material wave material wave to see an include of the sound distinctly that may be material wave to see an include of the sound distinctly that may be made and the funder of the s head downwards, and again writhed and lach the retreating boats, though ten miles distant, san! The waif of the Grampus floated tri-arred on the 10th June, basing examin-

The fell wing is a list of those found qualifiel for promoti to arranged in the order of May honour forget us when we forget them. merit, to which are added the names trames of the st tes to which they belong War-

1328 1. Thornton A. Jenkins, Va. 2. Joseph C. Walsh, Pa.

Augastus W. Provost, Pa. Franklin Clinton, N. Y. James K. Bowie, Md.

John Rodgers, Jr. D. C. John B. Marchand, Goo. 9. William R. Taylor, Mass. 10. H. J. Harstene, S. C. Lloyd J. Bivan, D. C.

Benjamin F. Sands, Ky. Henry French, M ss. William Leigh, Va.

William H. Burges, Va.

Henry S. Stellwagon, Pa. James L. Henderson, D. C. Damel B. Ridgely, Ky.

John L. Ring, S. C. Henry J. Paul, N. C.

Henry J. Paul, N. C.
Robert E. Hooe, Va.
James M. Lockhert, Ten.
William T. Muse, N. C.
William H. Brown, Va.
Charles Steedman, S. C.
William L. Herndon, Va.
John C. Graham, D. C.
John P. Parker, N. H.
John F. Borden, Ohio,
Lames Allen, Jr. Me.

James Allen, Jr. Me. Augustus L. Case, N. Y.

Augustus L. Case, N. Y.
Roger Perry, Md
William S. Ringgold, D. C.
John T. Williams, N. C.V
Joseph W. Revere, N. Y.
Alexander M. Pennock, Fen.
B. S. B. Darlington, Pa.
George F. Emmons, Vt.
Edward Middleton, S. C.
Montgomery Lawis Pa.

Montgomery Lewis, Pa. George Mc. A. White, D. C. C. E. L. Griffin, N Y. William S, Swann, Va. Thomas T. Hunter, Va. Albert A. Holcomb, Ky. Gustavas H. Scott, Va.

The line in the tub was now well nigh run while was inconceivable. The boat now the wave that overtopped the mens heads, and presently be suddenly desce ded, though not dependence was read by Mr. W. B Cram, immediately after which a feu de joie was fired by the whole corps. The following are 1. The day we celebrate. May every re-Liberty we now enjoy. soon ready again for the deadly attack

The ripple of the white, as he ascended, was carefully marked; and when he again saw

"Stara a'l!" was the cry once more-and westige signal of his dissolution. His blood

EXAMINATION OF MIDSHIPEN.

11 Congress Fewer words, and all to the purpose. Let those fight who have no brains to lose, and those cabal who have no The pour for the exemination of Matship-men, which assembled at Baltimore in May, honour to stake.

12. Dismion. When our glorious compartia broken, welcome the wreck of mat-ter, and the crush of worlds.'

13. The Ladies. Though last not least.

June, 1926. Charles W. Pickering, N. H.

1827. John De Camp, Fie. W. J. H. Robinson, D. C.

Messrs. Editors- copper coin [a cent] was recently dug up in garden in this of ce American bistory — It has no note side a head of George III and the words "Georgius III.

Rex' around the edge — On the opposite side, are represented the coats of aros of ingland, Scotland, Ireland and Virginia, quartered; and on the edge, are the word and figures 'Virginia 1773.' The following historical facts are here distinctly referred to. During the usurpation of Cromwell, the Colory of Virginia refused to acknowledge his authority and declared itself independent. Shortly after, finding that Cromwell threatened to send a fleet and army to reduce Virginia to subjection, and fearing the ability of this feeble state to withmossenger to Charles II, then an Exile at Breda in Flanders. Charles accepted the invitation to come over and be King of Virginia and was on the eye of embarking for Virginia, when he was recalled to the throne of England. As soon as he was restored to the crown of England, in gratitude for the loyalty of Virginia, he caused her coat of arms, to be quartered with those of England, Scotto be quartered with those of England, Scot-land and Ireland, as an independent me aber of the Empire. The above coin is clearly con-firmatory of these facts. Hence the origin of the phrase 'Old Dominion' frequently applied to Virginia.

From the Washington (Pa) Reporter.

Pithy Answer to a short Advertisement .-Pithy Answer to a short Advertisement.— A shop keeper in Grand street, the other day, stuck upon his door the following laconic ad-vertisement: 'A Boy Wanted.' On going to his shop the next morning, he beheld a smil-ing little urchin in a basket, with the follow-ing pithy label: 'Here he is.'

N. Y. Transcript.

-030-

SCARCITY OF WIVES.

It is said that in South Wales an old maid is a much rarer article than a black swan. It is asserted that the fair emigrants from this country receive offers of marriage through empking trumpets, before they land from the speaking trumpets, before they land from the ship. In this country, however, it requires something louder than speaking trumpets to make them keep their distance!-N. Y. Star.