BY virtue of a decree of the Court of Chancery, the subscriber will offer at Public Sale, at the head of St. Clement's Bay, on FRIDAY the 22d day of August next, (if fair, if not the next fair day) the following tracts or parcels of Land, situate in St. Mary's county, Maryland, to wit: a tract of Land called 'Farming's Fortune,' containing one hundred and fifty acres—a tract called 'Farming's Fortune and Addition to Farming's Fortune,' containing one hundred and thirty-three acres—a tract called 'Mill Seat,' containing fifteen acres—a tract called 'Edenborough,' containing twenty-five and one half acres, with its improvements, a Tavern, Store house, Dwelling House, and the usual out-houses—a tract called 'Part of Newington's Survey,' containing one hundred and thirteen and one half acres—a tract called 'Part of Fielding Berry,' containing sixty acres—a tract called 'Landing Neck,' being part of Hopton Park, containing seven and one half acres—a tract called 'Part of Hopton Park,' containing ninety seven and one quarter acres—a tract called 'Part of Edenborough,' containing twenty six and one half acres, and a tract called 'Part of Thompson's Expense,' containing forty-one and one fourth acres.
The whole of this property is valuable, and lies not more than six miles from Leonard Town. It was formerly owned by Bennet Walker, and upon his death passed to James Walker, who died seized of the same, having elected to take said property at the valuation of the commissioners on a commission of partition. The said several tracts or parcels of land constitute several farms, each having all the usual conveniences of residence &c. And on that tract called Edenborough, containing as aforesaid twenty five and one half acres, is situate a valuable Tavern, Store House, Dwelling House, and the usual out Houses, generally called the Head of Saint Clement's Bay. Ac.' containing eleven acres; and a tract called 'Clark's Rest,' containing twenty acres. The said several tracts or parcels of land last mentioned are contiguous and make one farm, called and known as 'Greenbriar.' This tract of land was long in possession of the late John Leigh, Esq. of St. Mary's county, under a purchase from James Walker, subsequent to the rendition of the judgments, to satisfy which the decree above mentioned has been passed.

TERMS OF SALE.
One fourth of the purchase money to be paid on the day of sale, or the ratification thereof by the Chancery Court, one fourth in six months, one fourth in twelve months, and the residue in eighteen months from the day of sale—the purchaser or purchasers giving bond to the trustee, with approved security, bearing interest from the day of sale. Upon the ratification of the sale by the Chancellor, and the payment of the whole purchase money, the trustee is authorized, by a good and sufficient deed or deeds, to convey to the purchaser or purchasers, in fee simple, the lands to him, her or them sold free, clear, and discharged from all claims of the parties to the suit in which the said decree was passed, and those claiming by, from or under them, or either of them.
