Out of opposition to me, eh?

And let her gain the day, then?-that would be cowardly, ceplied the farmer, drawing hymself up: 'No I wont.-

I to manage? Sure, the parst binself will be here to-morrow morning exercited he's built like a basis between the station now—so there's speak to enjoy this extraction, and has for a basis built be here to-morrow morning exercited he's built like a best, too, second vasily shop as a cleak to his other business. His built upon a station now—so there's speak to enjoy has extracted and how to be a resort for coloured blacklegs, some ing with him:-he's no way quick, either, -- leve we'll be bothered entirely if he com sin on a au Ident.'

·Leave it to me, dear father-leave it all to me,' exclaimed the animated gare; andy pluck up a spirit, and whenever Motors's name is mentioned, abuse him but not were all y'er heart, fir er-only from the tect

When they resentered, the fresh-builted potitioes sent a warm curling steam to the very ratters of the lofty kitchen; they were poured out into a large wirker dish, and on the top of the pile rested a plate of coarse alt; noggin- of butter-milk were filled on the dresser; and on a small round table . cloth was spread, and some delf places await ed t e more delicate repast which the farm's wife was nerself prevaring.

*What's for supper mother?' enquired Norah, as she orew her wheel towards her, and employed her fairy foot in whirling it round Plaguy snipeens,' she replied, 'dits o' bog chickens, that you've always such a fancy for;

Barney Leary kilt then herself. *50 I did, said Barney, grinning; and that stock wid a hook of Morris Donovan's is the finest thing in the world of knocking 'em

If Morris Donovan's stick touched them they shant come here, 'said the farmer, strik- clim refection instrict, will be supported as ing the poor little table such a blow with his clenched hand as made not only it, but Mrs. Cl ry, jump.
And why so, pray?' as'end the dame.

Because nothing belonging to Morris, let alone Morris himself, shall come into the house,' replied Clary; the's not to my liking, any how, and there's no good in his bothering here after what he won't get.'

*Excellent!? thought Norah.

*Lord save us!? ejaculated Mrs. Clary. s

she placed the grilled snipes on the table.

*what's come to the man? Without heeding his resolution, she was proceeding to distri-bute the savoury buddens, when, to her astonishment, her usually tome husband threw dish and its contents into the flowes; the good woman ansolutely stood for a moment agreet She soon rallied, and with blezing tace and fiery torque, thus commenced hist-lities. office dans ve. ye spalment turner away any Wrat do you mate. I say? cotoning touched by Money under the roots, and that girl of mine tooking at the same I'll tear the eves out of her head, and send You will! And dare you to say that to my tace, to a child o' mine! You will-will yo?-we'll see; my boy! I'll ell ye what, if Like Morris Donnovan shall come into this house, and what's more be master of house; and that's what you never had the heart to be yet, ye poor oul smail! So said Mistress Clary as she endeavoured to rescue from the fire the hissing remains of the burning snipes. North attempted to assist her til at last the farmer's helpmate swore, ay, and roundly too, by cross and saint, that before the next sunset, Norsh Clary should be Norsh Donavan. I wish you could have seen Norry's eye, dancing with joy and exultation as it peped through the latch-hole; it spark. Ied morach's crown, for the period to the spark of a monarch's crown, for it was filled with hope

The next morning was clear and frostylong slender icicles hung upon the branches of the wild hawthorn and holly, and even under the wind nawmorn and nonly, and even under the light footsteps of Norah the glazed herbage crackled like feathery glass. The mountain rill murmured under a frost-bound covering; and the poor sheep, in their warm fleeces, gaze mournfully on the landscape, beautiful as it was in the healthy morning light for neither on hill or dale could they ois cover a mouthful of grass. The chill December breeze rushed unneeded over the glowing cheek. of Norah Clarx, for her wise thought had prospered, and she was hastening to the tryating tree. where hy chance, either more had prospered, and she was hastening to the trysting-tree, where by chance, either morning or evening, she generally met Morris ing or evening, she generally met Morris Do ovan. I don't know how it is, but the moment that the course of true love suns and tis believed will make servery uninteresting, except to the parties concerned. So it is only now left for me to say that the maiden, after a due and proper time consumed in teasing and tandard proper time consumed in the intimate friend of Baron on the term the pious nuns and their innocent public but the dioto burn the edifice, and took that they did not burn the pious nuns and their innocent public but the the didoc, and took the time innocent public but the didoc, and took the time innocent public but the the didoc, and took the time innocent public

Father, dear father,' said Norah, 'suppose derstand are swifter and stronger in Ireland ye were to say nothing about it, good or bad, and just pretend to take a sudden dislike to Morris, and let the priest speak to her him-ing, what dancing, gave the country lolks e-that side of the city, to have a few extra po-nough to talk about a uring the happy Christ-lice officers in that vicinity.—Phil. Gaz. hymself up: 'No I wont.—

'Fither, dear, you don't understand,' said the cunning lass: Sure, ye're for Morris; and when we are—that is, if—I mean—sup; ose—
when we are—that is, if—I mean—sup; ose—
and the bridegroom—but, pashaw bridegrooms

From the Philadelphia Herald. and the bridegroom—but, pashaw bridegrooms are always uninteresting. One lact, howev-er, is worth recording. When Father Dono-

Lary & Chazette.

A VNAPOLIS: Thursday, August 28, 1834.

TO THE CHIZENS OF ANNE ARUN-DEL COUNTY.
EDWARD HAMMOND, of Elk Ridge, is Candidate to represent Anne Acundel Coun in the next House of Delegates of this

We are authorised to say WILLIAM J. W. COMPTON will be supported as an Independent Candidate for the next Legisla-

BUSHROD W. MARRIOTT will be supported as an Independent Candidate to represent Anne Arundel county in the next General Assembly of Maryland.

WILLIAM BAKER DORSEY of the Arundel county in the next General Assembly of this State, by R MANY VOTERS.

COUNCIL CHAMBER Annopolis, Aug 25, 1-34. There will be a making of the Execute

Council, on Saturday the 6th of September next. Its order, THOMAS CULBRETH, CPk.

of the Council.

Communicated. Mn. Govern A cross a manifest disposi | street, where it was their intention to level tion on the part of many of our citizens to to the ground every house inhabited by a co present this city in loured strength," and converted action is best cal collated to some species, normit me, through If it is medium of some power, to suggest an idea.

I popose that a most goe forthwith called, nasio, in snother direction, cursing and shout ting two young men as candidates for a scat in the next Legisla- the ture of Maryland. A VOIER.

been handed the following

seat in the next Legislature of Maryland, are requested to attend a meeting for that purpose, to be held in the Ball Room, on Saturday Evening next, at early candle light.

The Honourable Edward Everett has re-to rake and bind 25 dozen of oats in60 minutes; and to the astonishment of all present, he performed the task in 51 minutes: every dozen judged to make one bushel of clean Dats .- Doylestown Intel.

CASPER HAUSER.

We learn from a letter lately received from Germany, that one of the first jurists of that coturry is writing a new work on the unfortunate Casper Hauser, of whom Baron Fenerback has given so interesting an account, which, about two years ago, was translated in this country, and of which, by the way, the London Penny Magazine has given many was to be (to say nothing of the wedding sup-per and the profits arising therefrom too well not to aid their merry just.

What bustle, what preparation, what feast-

From the Philadelphia Herald. contents effusion, an chouse is a resort for colou of blacklegs, some let or no, I her so some whites have occasionally lodged unthat the der his roof. Our informant also states that jevous Norman versus and the state of the Battis has two white women hybrid at this time Battis has two white women hybrid with him as his wives.

It appears that early in the evening Battis quarrelled with a white man, and beat him s to the hospital. The rinters hearing this, gathemed in the night and completely destroy-d Bettis's property.

It was currently reported last night, that the man taken to the hospital was dead.

We hope that a general and united effort will be made to put down these disturbances instantly, as the good name of our city is a a severe sufferer by such tign handed mea

MORE RIOTS.

It seems a settled matter that our city is to be vexed and disturbed by continual turmoils between the white and coloured population. Lost night a mob assembled at the near Shippen street, and totally demolished his property, -breaking in his windows, and ttering his perfumery and barberous articles bither and thither. It seems that ar al ercation had arisen between Battis and some white perso; in his shop, which was ended by Fifth Election District, will be supported as B's striking him on the head with some heaas implement, and with such force as to frac ture nis skull The victim was taken to the prospect of his recovery. The mob did not had Battis, and the fury of their disappointment was directed to his persona. One of his wives was seen running Sommen street, at the top of her speed, cry ing for help. Battis, it is said, has three wives one of them, it is notorious, is a white wo

The mob in question, after completely de molishing the premises as far as possible, pro-ceeded in a strong, howling body, to Crat person. Fortunately, they did not Fire disposition is ex- seem to be acquainted with their of a sope particular p

At a late hour the mob swept off like a toring, insatiate for prey, singing occasionally the watch words of Rum men' and Big

It is useless to comment on these disgrace-Since the above was put in type, we have een handed the following NOTICE.

All persons desirous of uniting in select. We observed some of the military in the street. ing and supporting two Candidates opposed last evening, but they seemed in detached to the present Executive of this State, for a groups, and uncertain whither to direct their So subtle and sly are the rioters, that a band of them flies, like an ignis fatuus over pool, from one place to another through the city, revelling the loudest where there is the most corruption .- Com. Intel.

pine, or a particular delusion, is nearly as horrible as any single instance of such bar-barous wickedness, of which we read in the barius wickedness, or which we read in the annals of the Middle Ages or those of the revolutionary epochs of the last century. So supine were the inhabitants of Charlestown and the neighbourhood, while it was perpetrated, that they might be accused almost of connivance.

It is claimed in a newspaper, as a degree. of merit for the incendiaries and plunderers, peither here nor there. As to Blorris, she was very fond of the boy till she found that I tiked him; and then, my jewil she turned like sour milk all in a minute—I'm afraid even the priest il get no good of her.'

Pather, dear father, said Norah, 'suppose derstand are swifter and stronger in Ireland two were to say nothing about it. good or bad.

Which I strongly recommended, as the best of one has been granted; and accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish sacreely any clothing on their persons, they to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We wish accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We lead to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We lead to the most aluggish, and thus to his accordingly Mer. Bliott will have a companion. We have a companion. We have a companion their persons, they to the m and timed of their sex? No sympathy and generosity of the public, however liberal and active, can efface the impressions of the dreadful spectacle and sufferings of that night; and no contributions of noney may suffice to compensate for the loss of personal effects of a kind and peculiar vanot to be retrieved, or replaced. The wearing apparel, books, music, musical in-struments; triukets of every description; sil-ver and gold utensils; elegant and costly fur-niture; fan y work of all varieties; materials for exercise and instruction in the fine arts; a multitude of pictures and drawings; all the vearly epistic of this respectable body apparatus for the various education of females Christians has just appeared. Among of apparatus for the various education of lemales apparatus for the various education of knowledge things it notices the passing of an act, when the most enlarged scale of knowledge by the "affirmation" of the people cild tions of the alter and the study—together Quakers is deemed equivalent to the entity with a very considerable amount of money in other Christians, and this recognition of con specie and bank notes-were either purloin- rights was viewed by the meeting as a mathe

our relied with a white man, and deat not see severely that he was obliged to be conveyed ble to the pupils. It is in our boasted Reto the inspital. The roters hearing this, public,—with our boasted general intelligence horted to intermeddle as little as posspirit of order and refinement of civilization, with political matters, and to manifest spirit of order and refinement of civilization, with political matters, and to manifeit the in the nineteenth century,—that a seminary loyalty as herefore to the King and his control to the control of in the nineteenth century,—that a seminary of females, altogether such as this, could be thus deliberately assailed, sacked and utterly conscience. A suitable admonition is to given to the youth of their congregations in the midst, as it were, of a large, incorporated population! So far as religious in tipathy and excitement formed part of the impulse to these excesses, we might expect, if this formity to the world. poise to these excesses, we might expect, it this formity to the world. Finally, there a pigotry were indulged or excused, to hear that powerful appeal to the Friends to extend the the Sisters of Charity, whose conduct and charity and bounty more iderally to a services during the prevalence of the Chole-sick and poor of every sect in their research ra in 1832, all religious denominations concurred in admiring and extolling, were on similar occasion ruthlessly butchered at the bed sides of the patients in the hospitals, while at the risk of their lives, they served as ministering angels.' But we may trust that religious preju ice had a small share only in the fell proceedings at Charlestown. which have been loudly reprobated by every division of Christians. The outrages that have been committed in our city, last week, on the people of colour, have the same flagitious, anarchical, and ominous character. It is not to be questioned ruin. that those people have an equal right to pro- in the tection with the rest of the inhabitants, and ried away by the torrents, which destre such violence when committed against them every thing on their passage. At Elchalla is as much a breach of all law and frustration one hundred and two houses were levelled of the main ends of the social union, as if the ground by the impetuosity of the Lad done upon the most estimable and eminent of and the number of persons who persons If the increase of numour fellow citizens bers and their peculiar situation require a thirty-six special police, let this be regularly establish priest, wh ed and vigilantly maintained; but suffer them not to be the victims of the most undistinguishing, oppressive and callous of all tyran of that place having obstinately referred to any moment be directed to any other objects. quit it in spite of the entresties of the a few of the rioters is far from being sufficreet to avert or remedy this flagrant and royal road, was partly carried away, and portentous evil:there must be such legislation nd such an array of physical and disciplin d strength on the subject, as shall overawe and check the propensity; and when it is in action, put it down at once before it has comnitted preparable havoc, and left indelible tains on the character of the whole commuity -Phil. Nat Gaz.

FOREIGN.

STILL LATER. The ship Humboldt, Captain Bliss, arrived t Boston on Tuesday, brings London and Liverpool papers to the 20th July.

THE NEW MINISTRY. The change in the Ministry of England had occasioned a general suspension of business, and that stillness so natural on sudden and momentous events. The London Courier of the 17th has the following account of the new alled to the House of Peers. Only two Secretaries of State can, in the terms of Mr. Borke's Act, sit in the House of Commons.

The Right Honourable Sir John Cam Hobehouse is to be Chief Commissioner of Woods and Forests, in the room of Viscount Duncannon. Sir John is, we are glad to hear, to have a seat in the Cabinet. It is expected that he will be a candidate for the representation of Nottingham, vacant by Lord Duncannon's promotion to the Peerage. No other a change, so far as we have heard, is to take place in the Administration, as constituted while Earl Grey was Prime Minister; the Marquis Wellesley remaining Lord Lieutenant, and Mr. Littleton Secretary for Ireland We presume that if any explanations are required respecting the way in which the Ministerial arrangements have been effected, they will be afforded this evening in the Houses of Parliament." same kind which are recorded of the licen-tious populace of Europe. The destruction of the Convent at Charlestown, Massachu-setts, whether the motive was fanaticism, ra-cannon's promotion to the Peerage. No other they will be afforded this evening in the Houses of Parliament."

And many friends of that cause in the are prepared to expect, as a consequence the arrival of Carlos, an invitation to describe the arrival of Carlos, an invitation to describe the arrival of Carlos, an invitation to describe the arrival of Carlos, and the happened is next to the massacre of the whole of the inmates; for who can even imagine the consternation, the anguish of mind, the lasting and dreadful affections of the nerves and spirits, to which a scene and events of this nature must have subjected the most recluse and timid of their sex?

The House of Common, and among the requisitionists of Lord Aithorp, we may be that many men of his paces must be found as a subject to the manufacture of the prize fight at Andover, has been the manufacture of his paces must be fortunate opponent, Authory Noan, and among the subject to the investment of the prize fight at Andover, has been the manufacture of his paces must be fortunate opponent, Authory Noan, and among the subject to the investment of fortunate opponent, Anthony Noan. He found guilty, but atrongly recommended mercy. The learned judge acknowled he had acted with humanity, but it was cessary to make an example. He was tenced to six months imprisonment and he labour on the tread mill.

Liberalism seeds to have triumbels
England, with which the King was putil
According to the London Chronicle, befluence' of the Tories is at an end, and influence of the Irish interest will prend.

Yearly Epistle of the "Friends."—1 specie and bank notes—were either purionor destroyed.

The site of the institute is about $\frac{1}{2}$ miles from Boston; the edifice was large and commodious; the farm belonging to it embraces twenty-seven acres, of which two yere beautifolly laid out in a garden, always accessithe purion. It is in our beasted Recial travellers, cautioning them against call travellers, cautioning them against call travellers, there against the world. charity and bounty more liberally to the ive neighbourhoods.

The weather in the French capital had ben oppressively hot-the mercury rising to mine two-degrees of Fahrenheit.

The following is an additional account the hurricane at Bayonne and vicinity, gira of the most terrific storms ever remembered broke out at Bergara and its vicinity. The inhabitants were thrown by it into the utner consternation; many lost their lives and those who survived are doomed to misery and . In the street, and twenty six houses were or the village must be immense. At Places priest, who were proceeding to the chipe he present at a marriage ceremony, wen vertaken by the inundation, and all of friends, were buried under its ruins. Ame tain near Prudentia, which is crossed br leep precipice now exists at its base. The twelve or fifteen feet above the ground. huge stones are the only vestige that remains of an extensive water-mill. A cart loaded of an extensive water-mill. with iron has totally disappeared. Along coast of Bayonne dead bodies, trunks of tr and cattle are hourly thrown up by the sea The difficulties which delag the marriag of Prince Leopold, of Sicily, with the Princes Mary, second daughter of the King the French, arose, it is said, from the gret sions advanced on the one hand relative $ the dowry, and on the other to the apparag of the royal bridegroom. It seems that Ki Louis Philip insists that the income of the Vocerny of Sicily, which is only between 200,000 and 300,000 france, should be to creased to 1,200,000, equal to the income # wed by the reigning King to his uncle, the Prince of Salerno . According to letters free

The return of Lord Althorp to the Minis- Mina to take the command of the arrival of Catlos, an invitation to the arrival of Catlos, and the a General Radil reactied Pampeluna on the General Radii reactied rampetuus on the halfuly, with 6000 men, but if as is reportable on the favourable to Don ries, their arrival will only add to the siles, their arrival will only add to the regts of the Queen's enemies.

Sate the expulsion of Don Miguel from Sate the expulsion of Don Miguel from origal, several offic al accounts have apported in the Lisbon papers of the proclamarised of, as the Portuguese call their joyous or anny, the acclamation of the Queen Donmanny, the acceptance of the Interior of the I Maria, in parts of the interior, where, un-Maria in partia of completely suppressed for rebellion was completely suppressed for people had no opportunity of expressing of felings. It appears from these docuthe state of such occasions it is usual, to the state of applause on the state of the constitutional charter, Hower, the fact of the acclamation of the lathad not it seems, been mentioned in the ort from a place called Monsaras. This o isin has drawn from the Government the laving reptroof, which is published in the ttes received by the last arrival from Dake of Brigatze, Rogent in the prof the Queen directs the Camara of the celamition of the right of her most Majesty to the Portuguese throne, med in said city amidst the general ap-tion of the inhab tents, on the 29th of fist, has been received at the Home Although in the abovementioned act essions are to 5- met with well denoting gainer with which that acclamation ction which the Camara profess for leguinate Sovereign, still his impegment the result of one of the most solemn which the Municipal Chambers have to m, insmuch is through them is expresthe wishes of the people whom they reent, in ation is not even once made of constitutional charter of the monarchy, the most precious gilt the nation has red from his unex impled magnagimity, as to its liberty, and diffuses a prilliant wer the Portuguese soil. His Im-. guilty of a similar omission it administration.

MENTO PUREIRA DO CARMO. ere of Quenez. June 26.

Royal For steam vessel is about to Pe 10, the Empress, and Query on a visit to the city of Oporall carry about £100,000 in specie million.

RELATER SE AS ECA OBITUARY.

Dies, in this city, on Tuesday evening the st. in the sixth year of her age, MA A SELLMAN, daughter of David and ord Redgely. Sweet infant! thou art re-ord from all earthly pains, and hast enter-on the joys of Heiven—thou hast put off oil, and art clothed with immoritr: "Suffer little chil fren, and forbid not, to come unto me, for of such is the ingdom of Heaven."

IN CHASCERY,

26th August, 1834. trators of Francis Murdock

Peter Griffin, Adm'r. of Precious Griffin. THE bill in this case states, that the complainants as administrators of Francis lock, air entitled to one-half of certain mes begreathed by a certain John Griffie a will bearing date the 21st of October, to his two daughters Mary Griffin and ecious Griffin, to be equally divided be een them by his executor—It further states the negroes were paid over to Mary Grif his dividing them-That Precious Gr.ffin time of her intermarriage with Francis were the increase of the other negroes -That Peter G iffin has administered on the said regroes. The object of the bill is to varising from the sale to be equally di onfin. Die bill further states, that Peter Griffin, the administrator of Precious Griffin, raides in the District of Columbia, and be-read the jurisdiction of this court. Whereupon it is Ordered. That the com lamants, by causing a copy of this order to published in some newspaper once a week or three successive weeks before the Sott lay of September next, give notice to the said sent defendant of the filing of complain ats bill, and warning him to appear either in erson, or by solicitor, in this court, on or be bre the 26th day of January next, to she passe, if any he hath, why a decree should t be passeed as prayed.

True copy—Test.

RAMSAY WATERS, August 28.

JUST RECEIVED. From New York, a supply of fast inhable HATS, of various qualitie among them the Satin Beaver, a ne article. ALSO, a fresh supply of Philadelphi

Stem Refined Loaf Sugar. HART & FRANKLIN. Aug. 21, 1894. 7