

9 years in a very distance was brought me, and the shore mother, ought a they were unreputable taking for as he was with as possibly man among them, than had been made up to vent Earl Grey from resigning.

The London Courier of the 20th says "Lord Mulgrave is to succeed Lord Card as Lord Privy Seal, having, of course, in the Cabinet." The same paper of the 21st says, "Lord Durham is again mentioned as Lord Lieutenant of Ireland."

Where is Don Carlos.—In the House of Lords, July 29th, the following conversation took place.

The Marquis of Londonderry said he had asked the Noble Lord at the head of Majesty's government whether any authorized information had been received of Don Carlos' arrival in Spain. (Hear, hear.)

Viscount Melbourne said some information had been received of Don Carlos, but of a nature that could not be relied (Hear, hear.)

The Marquis of Londonderry then noticed that on Monday next he should make a motion to the House relating to the foreign policy of the country, particularly regard to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then moved upon a basis which it is believed will be adopted by the majority of members, that the greatest enthusiasm prevailed in favour of Don Carlos. The Marquis of Londonderry then proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give the British people time to consider the bill, and to give the Government time to consider the foreign policy of the country, particularly regard to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

On the last afternoon I have been received by Mr. O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

The bill for admission of Dissenters
into Universities, was passed in the House of Commons, July 20th, and sent to the Lords.

A long discussion took place in the Commons on the 30th, on the proposed bill
of O'Connell, to postpone the 1st of October
next. The debate was long, and
the Marquis of Londonderry then
proposed the adjournment of the House until the 1st of October, to give
the British people time to consider
the bill, and to give the Government
time to consider the foreign policy
of the country, particularly regard
to France, Spain and Portugal.

The London Courier expresses a desire, after all that has been said, that
Don Carlos should return to Spain.

16th at each of which the best spirit was manifested. The cholera still continued, but appeared to diminish in intensity.

Respecting the movements of Don Carlos, Rodolphe French Minister papers continued to be comparatively uniformed, but it was evident that there was every probability that the first general engagement the Pretender and his army would be completely overthrown.

Advices from Switzerland announce that a majority of the Diet has approved of the conduct of the Vorontzoff in its expulsion of the Poles, implicated in the attack on Savoy, and its submission to the demands of Austria and the other States that remonstrated against their violence and intrigues. The important Can-tions of Berne, Lucerne, Argau, Gall, Thurgau and Basle, voted in the minority, and repeatedly bowed.

COTILLON PARTY.

MR. SMITH respectfully informs the Ladies and Gentlemen of Annapolis, that he will give a COTILLON on Tuesday night the 16th inst. at the City Assembly Rooms.

Murray is engaged for Music.

Sept. 11. R.

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The packet ships Columbus, Capt. Cobb, from Liverpool and Charlevoix, Capt.

Pierce, from Havre, have arrived at New York, both having sailed on the 1st of August—the former in the evening.

The Liverpool Standard of the 1st August, mentions and ridicules a report which had been got up, that there was a probability of a failure of the harvest.

The French papers contain various reports from Spain, one of which states that Rodolphe had declined a battle with Don Carlos, and had retreated. Some of the London papers yet doubted whether Don Carlos was in Spain.

The celebration of the Three Days, had been obtained by the French.

The Gazzette contains a decree of Don Carlos dated Salines de Oca, 1st July, declaring in a state of blockade all the places in Naples occupied by the Bourbons.

The British Agricultural Report for July states that the general character of the crops of wheat, beans, peas, & potatoes, was good.

The following is the concluding part of King Louis Philippe's speech at the opening of the French Diet, 22d Aug.

The French Chamber was opened by the King in person on the 23d July, and was closed on the 2d of September.

The King gave no indication of his views on the following subjects.

1. The Colonization of the West Indies.

2. The Colonization of South America.

3. The Colonization of Africa.

4. The Colonization of Australia.

5. The Colonization of New Zealand.

6. The Colonization of the Pacific Islands.

7. The Colonization of the Indian Archipelago.

8. The Colonization of the East Indies.

9. The Colonization of South America.

10. The Colonization of Africa.

11. The Colonization of Australia.

12. The Colonization of New Zealand.

13. The Colonization of the Pacific Islands.

14. The Colonization of the Indian Archipelago.

15. The Colonization of the East Indies.

16. The Colonization of South America.

17. The Colonization of Africa.

18. The Colonization of Australia.

19. The Colonization of New Zealand.

20. The Colonization of the Pacific Islands.

21. The Colonization of the Indian Archipelago.

22. The Colonization of the East Indies.

23. The Colonization of South America.

24. The Colonization of Africa.

25. The Colonization of Australia.

26. The Colonization of New Zealand.

27. The Colonization of the Pacific Islands.

28. The Colonization of the Indian Archipelago.

29. The Colonization of the East Indies.

30. The Colonization of South America.

31. The Colonization of Africa.

32. The Colonization of Australia.

33. The Colonization of New Zealand.

34. The Colonization of the Pacific Islands.

35. The Colonization of the Indian Archipelago.

36. The Colonization of the East Indies.

37. The Colonization of South America.

38. The Colonization of Africa.

39. The Colonization of Australia.