Indeed there was scarcely a single question agitated here list full in relation to national posities—But this year the onestion national partial wolly links on or Anti-Jack son, and the Aristocracy, who have always had a majority when they could write their forces, got tack to their races of two were disaffected, or of little faith—The Jackson party proper have lost no ground, although they have lost the Election-Studdert will get next fall a greater vote than Waster has this, because the prople will have processed by that time that they have been deceived by the Bank prosses.

MATTHIAS THE IMPOSTER.

It will be seen by the report below, that Matthews, alias Matthias, has undergone a further examination and been committed for trial. His speeches, by way of reply to the questions of the magistrate, bear strong evidence of partial insanity; although we doubt not that roguery is coupled with the hallucination. Within the last few years, we have seen individuals, both in and out of the Insanity did not commence the same species of derangement. It is but just to say, that Matthias did not commence the religious mania which has deluded his followers in this family.
