SUPPLEMENT TO THE GLOBE.

PROSPECTUS

FOR THE CONGRESSIONAL GLOBE.

The Congressional Globe, which we commenced publishing at the last Session of Congress, will be continued through the approaching one. It will be published in the same form, and at the same price; that is, once a week, on a double royal sheet, made up in quarto form, at ONE DOLLAR per copy, during the session. When any important matter is discussed, we propose to print an extra sheet. Subscribers may calculate on at least one or four extra sheets. At the close of the session, an Index will be made for the volume, and sent to all the subscribers. We shall pay to the reporters, more than one hundred dollars per week, during the session. In publishing, therefore, at one dollar for all the papers printed during the session, we may be said to afford the most important information at the cheapest price.

Editors with whom we exchange, will give this Prospectus a prominent notice, and please friends to whom we may send it, will please procure subscribers.

TERMS.
1 copy during the session, $1.00
11 copies during the session, $10.00
Payment may be made by note payable to our order. The notes of any State Banking will be received.
No attention will be paid to orders unless the money accompany it.
O. R. S.

NOTICE

I WILL sell my Farm on South River Private Sale. It contains upwards of THOUSAND ACRES, and possesses more advantages than most farms. Any information which may be required will be afforded to those who will call upon my residence in this city, or on the Farm, or at the Farmers' Bank of Maryland. The Land will be sold to the highest purchaser.

RICHARD HARWOOD, of the Jan. 25.

The Editors of the Baltimore Gazette, American Farmer, will insert the above a week until otherwise required.

FUNERALS.

THE subscriber begs leave to inform his friends, and the public in general, that he has discontinued the Catholic Burial Service, and now confines himself to the future altogether to that of an UNDER-TAKER.

All orders for Funerals will be attended to at the shortest notice, either in the usual manner, or according to special direction.

He returns his thanks to the public for the patronage during the last twenty years, and hopes that his promptness and attention will continue to merit their notice.

WASHINGTON G. TUCKER.

to the 'Library' and 'Companion' both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage

(a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscribers, to the 'Companion,' will be taken either with or without the 'Library.'

The proprietor, trusting that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the 'Library,' will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

POETRY.

THE MAD POET'S ADDRESS TO THE MOON.

I cannot endure thy frowny glow,

Thou moon, so bright and round;

A tide like rash with a burning dew

Through my weak and worn-out brain doth go

With a harsh continual sound,

And my dulcified eye I am forced to throw

Up from the cool dark ground.

It is strange—strange as a year, with its burden of ills,

That I should be so fond of thee, my dear,

Since I felt in my bosom the sweetest of thrills,

And joyously trode o'er the lone mossy hills,

With mine eye ever up to thee cast;

And drank with delight of thy clear raining rills,

Made pure by thee as they passed.

But now, should I think of a remnant of thine,

Which deeply reflects thy strange ray,

I seem as if drunk with the strongest of wine,

And my brain heaves with a noise that I cannot define.

And, dearest, I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,

And I have a year, and I have a year,
