Our forever beloved parent possessed a Copexplate, on which was inscribed the first engraved copy of the American Declaration of pendence, and his last intention, in departing this world, was, that the precious plate should be presented to the Congress of the U-nited States, to be deposited in their Library, as a last tribute of respect, patriotic love and affection; for his adopted country. Will it be permitted to me, a faithful disciple of that American School, whose principles are so admirably exposed in that immortal declaration, to hope that you, sir, would do me the honour to communicate this letter to both Houses a Congress at the same time that, in the name i his afflicted family, you would present to them my venerated father's gift,
