conquered. I had made many attempts to Golgan. The argument of this case was comquestion my attendants, and they as often pomencod by McMahon for the Appellant. sitively refused to talk with me. raw me really convalescent, my queries wer satisfied. How had I been saved? Who had satisfied. How had I been severy one was for the stranger, when every one was for the Appellee, intent on his own safety and that of his pro-Who but woman, weak, timid woman; who careless to the impulses of ambition.

Perils all when she can serve humanity!
-My lovely neighbour had been awakened by her father a few minutes before, and hurried off to a place of safety. As soon as the inquates of the hotel were assembled, and she saw that one was missing that I was not there, commenced by Kennedy for the Appellants.

Tuesday, Dec. 16th—Present as yesterday. officers, her old father to save me. They declered with one voice, that the attempt was and Mayer for the Appellecs, useless—madness. Hardly had her father Wednesdays Dec. 17th—Pr wednesdays Dec. 17th Present as year of the physic better to look after his trunks, when again she begged and implored the firemen, until moved by her tests and a full purse, two of cluded by Mayer for the Appellees, and John-Phil. Inq. the question could well be asked, she rushed before them, while a screen was neard from severy one rear her. She led the way to the room sac and so tately occupied, now almost as ank as night with smoke. The firement of the special price to protect them from the rigours as ank as night with smoke. The firement of the special price to protect them from the rigours of the special price to protect them from the rigours as ank as night with smoke. The firement of the special price to protect them from the rigours of the common window, and the short of the special price to protect them from the rigours of the special price to protect them the strongest and most resolute offered to go, son for the Appellants.

But who was to show them the way? Before some time his companion had to catch and hear wife in a propored to have our expectations so off the herote girl, who had sunk on the floor coon malized.—Chronic's. of the heroic girl, who had sunk on the flair the moment she had seen by presented form.

And where is ny presentary to exclaimed.

The Wirl Conditions of Shieling contributions on because I had heard the history. She is in the same had of the sine with the nit Show Hill. The hill convalence that contributions of the physician yout with nor deficate thanks, in the convalence that the area rapid as your.

The first use, you may be tassition that.

TO THE HOLE of MANY CAND.

The first use, you may be tasked that made or my returned the second of the second to alke second t still am—a hope in-box

Maryland Chazille.

An Examination of the several Chases in by enerity. Some whose circumstances, two weeks the institution will take place at the College, since, were confortable, must begin the labours of life th present month. The hours of Examination clier ones, that he results of a life of tool, were consulted from 9 o'clock. A. M. till one o'clock; saided in one hour.

ar I from 3 fill 5 P. M. The intends of the Not for ourselves, but for others, would we excite by. and from 3 till 5 P. M. The mends of the College, generally, are respectfully invited to HEC FOR HUMPHREYS, President.

Waldie's Circulating Library.

Subscribers in Annapolis, and vicinity, are notified, that the annual subscription will become due on the 1st of January next, when payment, in aleance, will be expected.

the Library, will be six dollars.

vessel during the severe gale of vesterd y, and cant name.

By order of the Committee appointed by the property of the Committee appointed by the committee appointed b to their comfort and sucty, at the time of the to the sufferer by the life fire at that place, donations greatest peril. Jon.; Ridgely. S. G. Dononoe, II. BASSFORD, H. J. THOMPSON.

DAN'L. T. Hyen, Jones H. HALL. ROBERT LECKIE,

The ladies desire to unite in this expression of thanks to Copt. Seeds. Pataysco Raer, Dec. 9, 1834.

Court of Appeals, December Term,

C. J. and Stephen & Chambers, Judges. On application George W. Nable, Esq. of the R Pincire, was admitted as an attorney of the court.

see vs. William Weems et al, was conclud. ed by Brewer for the Appellants.

No. 15. Solomon G. Albert vs. Geo. Wilkin. on. This case was argued by V. H. Dorsey for the Appellant, and Brower for the Appellant

No. 19. Michael Ranahan vs. Wm. O'Neale This case was argued by Brower for the Appellant, and Magruler for the Appellee.
No. 47. Gott & Wilson vs. Ann Carr.

argument of this c so was commenced by Pinkney for the Appellants.

Friday, Dec. 12th-Present as yesterday. The argument of the above case was con-Pinkney for the Appellants, and Randall for the Appellees.

On application, Thomas Karney and John E. Howard, Esquared in the city of Annapolis, were admitted as attorneys of this court.

Saturday, Dec. 13th-Present as yesterday The argument of the above case was concluded by McMahon for the Appellant, and Frick

On motion of the Attorney General, the case of the State of Maryland vs. The Trustees of the Bank of Maryland, No. 143, was set for hearing on Tuesday the 30th of this month. Taylor, et al, the argument of this case was or business can now be heard within them, and few and for between are the shops of its handier descen. If we - the houses in which but a few days since cheerful supplication of threadier those which heretofere Thingsday stocomer 15, 1831.

Wednesday- Dec. 17th-Present as yester.

Exhibiting the France of the THOS. CULBRETH. CPk.
to the Council.

OLINE COLETICE:

Along thy had described in tire. The award grat goal consumed more than minuty houses, of which seventeen were dwelling houses, and has been exampleful in rever in fifty-six chiranics.

Where are the men, women and children, who lately

ANNAPOLIS, Dec. 12, 1534.

An Examination of the several Classes in by energy. Some whose circumstances, two weeks by energy. on the 17th, 18th, 16on, 20th, and 22d days of affects younger persons mourn over blighted prospects, ate, nor give a single colour to the picture. for the carrey of which car co on roty would not voice. We cannot estimate our loss in dell raind cents; but in proportion to the whole value of property in the Village. that loss is enormous. We leave with you a statement of simple facts. The residences, the food, the clothes of children and p rents, of young and cld, of males and females, the goods of merch ats of large amounts in value; the librapayment, in attance, will be expected.

Those who desire "The Compunion" to the ries and offices of professional ment the shops, the tools, above work, will please leave their names with the working material of mechanics, are gone forever. The price for both, to original subscribers to continue a neep of ruins, more painful to the eye of the beholder, than any similar eight in Maryland or perhaps

The undersigned, passengers on board of the Packet Sloop George Berber, on the passenger Captain from Annupolis to Bultimore, require Captain than Annupolis to Bultimore, require Captain that Palladepairs for what she has done for us. The John Sanda to accept their lively thanks for the seaman-like manner in which he manner od his our relief, would alone entitle ner to her very signifi-carrying her into harbour, and for his attention of Show Hill to solicit and receive for, and distribute

William to a solution of the state of the st IRVING PLNCE, Secretary.

Show Hair, D. comber, &. CUMBERLAND COAL.

es Camb rland. We have heard a fact, in con- ty. Then balance the needle on a convex watch used at Wheeling.

years in Wheeling consumed every year six allowing for the variation of course, hundred bushels of coal, in keeping several large Too torgramment of No. 14, Estep & Hall's fir always burning during the cold weatherand found on removing to Cumberland that, although he kept the same number of fires, he only consumed a little over three hundred bushele. Should subsequent experiments go to demonstrate that one bushel of coal on this side of the Alleghany ridge, near Cumberland, is worth nearly two of that found on the Ohio river, the owners of the mines may reasonably expect to find a western as well as an east mar ket for their coal so soon as the canal shall reach Pittsburg. Some short time since, being in Cumberland, we had an apportunity of judging the merits of this coal for grates, and found that it made a beautiful and pleasant fire, in every way equal if not superior to the anthra-

The specimen in quastion was sent to James W. McCulloh, Esq. of this city, by Capt. Blair, and was taken from his mine, near Jennings.

No. 58. Patrick Dougherty vs. Bernard Mc. rum a Allegany county, a few miles above Cum. then narrated to Mr. Van Duerson the following remarberland.—Balt. Chronicle.

DREADFUL TRAGEDY. man, devotedly attached to each other, it would seem, but between whom a quarrel had lately of it in the purchase of two houses which adjoined each other, and which before he had effected an insurance on them, were burnt to the ground. Considering this a shout to relate. It is stated that the body of about to relate. It is stated that the body of judgment of heaven upon dishonesty, he determined to the female was found, late in the afternoon, in devote the remainder of his life to a severe course of in-No. 16. James C. Sellman, et al. vs. Robert the female was found, late in the afternoon, in daylor, et al. the argument of this case was formeneed by Kennedy for the Appellants.

The above case was further argued by Gill and Mayer for the Appellees.

The above case was further argued by Gill and Mayer for the Appellees.

The died shortly for the Appellees. lar manner. He died shortly after the arrival nist; and although his trade was a retail one, and he had of the physician. A case knife was on the floor again suffered a heavy loss from fire, he had succeeded of a girl named Mary Davis, y stord y uffernoon, and then, with the same instrument, cut his own throat. They are both dead.

ARRIVAL OF THE SHIP UNITED STATES. The U. S. frigue United States, C. p. du B. strived at New York, on Wednesd v. night from Communder-H. E. Billard, Esq. Licatements-F. Buchenan, G. A. Megrader, S. O. Parser- J. N. Todd.

Surgeon-S. Rapelye. Chaplain-C. S. Stewart S. Hing Mister-F. W. Moores. Second Most r-S. A. Hant.
Officers of M. rines-Capt. M.conber and Licuten-

Presed Milshipmen—Brehe, Contee, Cummings, Faerley, He-p. Kennedy, Lynch, Megrader, M'Don-ell-M'Lone, Pitcher, Richardson, Schenck, Tilghman, id Willi reson. Purs r's Clerk-J. J. Kondall. Acting Boutswain-J. Marsey. Gunuer-G. S. City.

Sailmaker-J. Beggs. Passengers - Lieutenants Ridgway, Woolsey and Lard

Passed Midshipman-Gillet and Midshipman Bever-

From the New Bedford Mercuif.

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.—We are indebted on intelligent and highly respected correspondent for the following communic aton which, or the information it contains, will be of much interest to seamen:-

Mr. Lindsey,-I herewith send you a description of a simple mode to make a temporary compass without the aid of a megnet. It may not be generally known to my sensuring brethren, and might prove of great willing to some of them stroyed by lightning, which has happened to me twice in my experience. If it should be found worthy a place in your paper you are at liberty to insert.

Fairhaven, Nov. 27, 1934. Take a common sized sail-needle, break off the eye and about a quarter of an inch of point lected. so as to present about the same surface at the end, then take a common fire poker or an iron belt from half to one inch in diameter, and from two to three feet long, set it in a perpendicular position, then with a moderate sized hammer strike the upper end of the iron 10 or 12 smart taps in quick succession, then place the needle as quick as possible on the upper end of the iron also a right and productful specimen or the needle several slight taps quickly, the lower this coal exist of a little fine. Increase Indicov ment and of the needle will become highly impreg-Convention, such as we may expect to find in community and consequently the upper common use in this city when the canal reach. and will become equally so with a south polarinection with this coal, which serves to illustrate crystal or on any smooth convex surface, or sus-1231.
Thursday, Poc. 11th—Present Buchanan the great advantages it possesses over the coal pend it in balance with a fine thread of hair, of floor it on a piece of cork in a basin of water floct it on a piece of cork in a basin of water,
A gentleman who resided for a number of and it will tend immediately North and South,

CONSCIENTIOUS MISER.

An old Dutchman, named Shamm, who lived in one of the wretched hovels that stand in the roar of Sheriff Frelinghuysen, Tipton, Swift, and Smith, were street, died on Friday last of asthm. and a complication of ether diseases. He was well known to be of a very obstinate and eccentric disposition; and, although h had been confined to his bed several weeks, he not only rejected all medical aid, but persisted to the last in his Leigh, Preston, Smith, and Bell, were elected. singular habit of elceping in the whole of his wardrobe, which consisted chiefly of a pair of breeches, that at some remote era had been constructed of blue velvet, sailor's jacket and a frieze over cost; which all exhibi accumulated proofs of the old man's attachment. On Wodnesday he sent for Mr. M. Van Duerson, a respecta ble countryman of his residing in the neighbourhood who had often given him charitable relief, and privatel requested him to make his Will. To this gentleman's great surprise he bequeathed various sums of money, nounting; altogether to $3,700, to children and grand children residing at Newark and Albany; and confiden ly informed him where this property was deposited. He sen, were elected,

kable facts in his history.

He stated that about 20 years ago he was a porter a mercaniile house in Hamburg, and, having been long in its employ, was frequently entrusted with considers A great sensation was produced in Southwark last evening, in consequence of the death of two individuals under circumstances of the most melanchor character—a young man and woman, devoiding attached to each other, it would be the product of the interest of the interest of the product of the country with a large sum. Having arrived, he invested the greater part of it in the purchase of two houses which adjoined each of the physician. A case knife was on the noor between them. Both parties were quite young, —Phil. Inq.

again susceed a neary ross from me, he had succeed a five years since, in acquiring sufficient property to accomplish his just and elevated purpose. It then, accordingly sold his stock in trade, and was proparing to PARTRIGES.

The Patterson N. J. Gazette of the 3d inst. diverties a for 500 of these birds, offering a Ti.

Inscreentor, ilr. Van Duesrsen, found the above named same of $3700, principalty in doublooms .- New TWENTY-THIRD CONGRESS. SECOND SESSION.

IN SENATE. Wednesday, December 10, 1534. The Same proceeded to the special order of the standing Com-

The Vice President announced that the severai Chairmen would be first chosen, and the balats bring taken, the result was as follows: For the Committee on Foreign Relations, Mr. Clay was elected.

For the Committee on Finance, Mr. Webster For the Committee on Commerce, Mr. Silabee was elected.

For the Committee on Manufectures, Me Frelinghuysen was elected. For the Committee on Agriculture, Mr.

Brown was electe a For the Committee on Military Affairs, Mr. Benton was elected.

binson was elected. For the Committee on Naval Affairs, Mr. was by law placed at the disposal of the Southard was elected.

For the Committee on Private Land Claims,

Mr. Black was elected. For the Committee on Indian Affairs, Mr.

White was elected. For the Committee on Claims, Mr. Beli was of said Districts, respectively, for the mid elected.

Clayton was elected.

Mr. Hendricks was elected. For the Committee on Pensions, Mr. Tomlinson was elected.

For the Committee on the District of Columbia. Mr. Tyler was elected.

Mr. Moore was elected. penses of the Senate, Mr. Knight was elected. I tive States.

For the Committee on Engrosced Bills, Mr. Shepley was elected. The Senate then proceeded to ballot for the day: remaining members of the several committees,

Mesers, King of Georgio, Mangum, Sprague, and Alonor appointed by the States of Mangum, Tallmadge, were elected.

For the Committee on Finance, Messrs. of the Cumberland Road within the Wright, Tyler, Mangum, and Ewing, were e. those States respectively; and to creek

For the Committee on Commerce, Mesors, mount of money which may be necessary King of Alabema, Spregue, Waggaman, and complete the repairs of the said real growth Wright, were elected.

Knight, Morris, Prentiss, and 't year, were elect-

Kent, Robinson, Morris, and Swirt, were elect-ed. which has been located anew, under the state of the state Mossrs. Tipton, Clayton, King of Alabama, and For the Committee on the Militio, Messrs.

Hendricks, Waggaman, McKean, and Swift, were elected. For the Committee on Naval Affairs, Messrs.

Bibb, Robbins, Tallmadge, and Black, were elected. For the Committee on Private Land Claims, Messrs. Naudain, Kane, Porter, and Shepley, were elected.

elected.

For the Committee on Claims, Messra, Naudain, Brown, Tipton, and Shepley, were elected. For the Committee on the Judiciary, Messrs. For the Committee on Roads and Canals

Messrs. Kent, Robbins, Robinson, and McKean, were elected. For the Committee on Pensions, Messrs, Tall. madge, McKean, Prentiss, and Preston, were e-

For the Committee on the District of Columbis, Messrs. Kent, Bibb, Tomlinson, and Southard, were elected.

For the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, Messrs. Smith, White, Leigh, and Frelinghuy-

For the Committee on the Contingent has enses of the Senate, Messrs. Tomlinson ad Morris, were elected.

States.

the Committee on Engrossed Bl Messrs. Robinson and Morris were elected Mr. Clay gave notice that on Monday men would ask leave to introduce a bill he would ask leave to the sales of price vide for the distribution of the sales of price lands for a limited time, among the seren

The Senate then adjourned to Monday sen

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Wednesday, December 10, 1934 Mr. White, of New York, from the Come tee on Naval Affairs, reported a bill amendary of the act in addition to the several kut. ry of the act in addition of the Treasury, War, and to the organization of the Treasury, War, and to vy Departments, which was read twice and camitted to a Committee of the Whole on a State of the Union. The following resolutions, submitted yester day, were considered and agreed to: By Mr. Habbardges, and the course pursued by the instanton account of the protest of the all days the French Government by the Treasure

On motion of Mr. Jarvis.

Resolved, That the Committee on Combe instructed to inquire into the expedien providing by law that in the survey of the of the United States, now in progress, the tudes and longitudes of every Lighthous new Light-house shall hereafter be encied; a report is made in respect to its public ba by the two Collectors and the Commander the Navy Yard nearest the proposed size conformity with the recommendation of the retary of the Treasury in his annual Report the State of the Finances.

ne State of the Finances.

Mr. Burgess offered the following resolutions. which, under the rule, lies one day. Resolved, That the Secretary of the To ry Department be directed to send to this line in a tabular form, the amount of mongrad to the Marine Hospital Fund by all seams the mercantile service in the District of dence, in the District of Newport, and in District of Bristol, respectively, in tar For the Committee on the Militia, Mr. Ro- Ist and District, from the committee on United States, up to the time when a Also, the like amount, in like i.s. dent. by said seamen after that time and bef. commencement of the un 1929; and us like amount, in like form, paid since that are together with the several sums expended in sick and disabled seamen-showing the For the Committee on the Judiciary, Mr. due to or from said fund, in each of sat I tricts, respectively, at the several times if For the Committee on Roads and Canals, said, if any, and how the same may have disposed of.

On motion of Mr. Binney.

Resolved, That the Committee on the ciary be instructed to inquire into the en For the Committee on Revolutionary Claims, Ir. Moore was elected.

For the Committee on the Contingent Ex.

For the Committee on the Contingent Ex.

The following resolution, off red by il Kennan, was ordered to lie on the ta-

Resolved, That the Secretary of War is rected to transmit to this House any com when it appeared that—

For the Committee on Foreign Relations, cotton he may have received to transmit to this flower any even the Committee on Foreign Relations, cotton he may have received by the control of the co Pennsylvania, and Virginia, to receive . thereon, and to furnish an estimate of I to the requisitions of the laws of suit For the Committee on Manufectures, Messrs, which have received the assent of Com Also, that he inform the House what is the dition of the masonry on the road, hor For the Committee on Agriculture, Messrs, inches of metal have been put on that par For the Committee on Military Affairs, between the Monongahela and One And also what depth of metal is in his on necessary to make a permanent and sales road upon the plan which has been adopt its repair by the Department. Mr. Clay, by consent, moved the fello esolution: Resolved, That the Secretary of the Is 1st. What quantity of public land in offered at public sale in the several Sais Territories.

2d. What portion remains unsold and ject to private entry, in the States and I ries respectively, and how long the same 3d. What portion of the public land, of and not sold at auction, has tince been by at private sale.

4th. What quantity of public land has been from sold, and for what sun, in each year, from year 1832 inclusive. 5th. And the number of acres is each and Territory; the number sold in each m amount received the refor. Mr. Johnson, of Kentucky, submitted following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on the D of Columbia be instructed to inquire jett expediency of abolishing imprisonment for the Mr. Johnson asked the farour of the Il estimation of his course on this elucidation of the measure resented for consideration.—He rewithstanding his deep anxiety in subject, he had confined his p the District of Columbia: the inqui murally be made, wh the whole United State as far a it would be celd be embraced: fy ch Congress il, that any law y o the Federal must be coatined parts therei tion of our powers to legislate for as and parties therein. Mr. J stly pursued this subject for a a member of the Senate se, and he had used his influen empting to induce the Congres presonment for debt. His next obje a an act of Congress, by which th a silject should govern und co Ard Courts, in the respective S pres villa this point; we succeed precion laws of the States governors whether for good or for colali the States upon State toon equality with each other. totally exempted her citizens to permit him to make a very few ent for debte not her law h action of the netter taw in a the Feder I I thick ry with Let other States do like.

This hum ne principle town accommodity slowly, but he had would be mist ken in the re not in a little time expe were not in a fittle time exper-ing civilized in them. Selected Kentucky had done who a those haddon. See had alone of mot which could take the bo-In other States, where this ar legant provided be regretted e. in ingrisoranent for debt was t Landly, except in cases of fraud, Mr. J. consid red that are imprisonment was abol ed, and will be Sound out. mild as water the ilea of anoldion, the is retained in its fall vigor. He come the initials' delition. His own St. nucky, had a stod upon this principl er raines 1-21, and the evetem i Kentucky has not yet per other. Low regimet from a profipe for the large regimet for the format lend for the necessary. Let the profine the different lend for the large regiment lend for the format lend for the proceeding. a mil more part of court programmer more than the ten in that the can of Kentruky, the ten is and ten doll to more had been pull in the dismanch of here been under the former at the court in the dismanch in the former at the former at the court in t er of the United States, could im-is ry and distress which this crue! estent wis now producing, slowly the several States of the Union, alt asked ha with their report for the cars .- If he had the time, and it was i out ficte relative to the subject, the to his proposition; it was confined Contress had the explusive legislative Dariet, by a grant of power in th

s histrict of Cohambia, them any equal states, arising from the in turn is inhabit ints - the character eners and considerations; and a law ad the debtor-a notice and a warni beneficial to all concerned. - - In conclusion he would remark, the excluded the States, and confined 1 District, from a conviction that C beolutely abolish imprisonment for on, at he wished the principle est ned for debt wit dia tea miles ag.

abt, upon his own mind, that strong orivin for abolishing imprisonment at injury to his own State, by giving Courts a system of execution less libe and less just, than the system now go fore, to attempt nothing that would p zens of his own State, while all the ree to adopt her policy. The resolution was greed to.

The speaker laid before the house:

cottry of War, enclosing, in pursuant contained documents in relation to conversation of objects of internation, on motion of Mr. Briggs, was The speaker kild before the house Secretary of the treasury, made pure tion specifying the aggregate amount beted on imported merchandise, ton the of the Union, for the per 1833 The greaker also laid before the he ton from the Secretary of the Treas of the modification of the tarist, in which on motion of Mr. Polk, was refe he of ways and means.

The Horse then adjourned.

INFLUENZA. This discuse prevails generally in two knowless cures effected in a very by a gentle purgative, and copious p se afterwards. The following is a

Harris "One oz. extract liquorice, one oz antimonial wine, Place the liquorie tr. simmer it down to half a pint, the others, taking a swallow when t