

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.
AMERICAN MAGAZINE
Of Useful and entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings. By the Boston Bewick Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazine from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what it is, it indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honourable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise:

- Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments and Landmarks; Landscapes, Scenery, &c. &c. &c. in the most beautiful and interesting parts of the country; and a general view of the progress of the Republic, together with a sketch of the history of the United States; and the various states, together with a sketch of their history, and a description of their products.
- FRIDMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Bewick Co. 47 Cornhill, Boston, July 17.

STATE OF MARYLAND.
Anne Arundel County, Orphans Court.

ON application by petition of Nathan Shipley, administrator with the will annexed, of John M. Middleton, late of Anne Arundel County, deceased, it is ordered that the notice required by the said petition to exhibit their claims, and to be published, and that the same be published once in each week for the space of six consecutive weeks, in one of the newspapers printed in Annapolis, to-wit: "The Times."

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU,

A description of the fashionable watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Masers de la Tude, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:

Knutzner, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.

Memories of Sir James Campbell, of Ardkinglas, written by himself; a very piquant and interesting sketch of the distinguished individual of the last sixty years.

Gods Sir Walters; a tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.

Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.

The Deaf and Dumb Page; a Tale.

Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV.; by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Donnie's Legacy, &c. &c.

One of the best novels, say the London Magazine, of the present day.

Tudor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

Alan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.

Helen; a Novel, by Mrs. Edgeworth.

Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.

The Curate's Tale, or Practical Jockings from a new work entitled Signs of the Round Table.

The Three Westminster boys, or Cottage Lord Chancellor Thurlow, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.

A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pelew, in 1783, and a brief but accurate account of Prince Li Boon.

All the above cost in the "Library" but $3.00!!!

Office No. 207 Chestnut street, below 7th.

Subscriptions to Waldie's Select Circulating Library which is published every week, at $3 per annum, that is to receive by ADAM WALDIE, Philadelphia.

Subscriptions for the above valuable work received at this office.

PROPOSALS TO RE-ESTABLISH THE LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $8 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well sustained reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the wisest and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The Edinburgh, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above works, making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in a good style, and be printed in a shape but little differing from that of the European editions.

The price will be $8 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $30. Of the three at present republished, two of them amount to $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first Number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.
