EDITED BY THE REV. RICH'D. CATTERMOLE, B. D.

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A. O other country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Di-sines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation; while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

AND

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, thro' variety of circumstances, oeen happily prevented from degenerating into the harsoness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our . Sacred Classics, is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student. It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most cel brated will ers, whose lab cars have been devoted to the incidation and practical enforcement of the amciples of revealed truth, whether in taca oppication to the immortal interests of indi-viduals, or to the order and well being of so valuely, or to the order and well being of 80 day. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morehity, and Exercines of Constrainty, which have resonant the permanent stamp of general appropriations select thermony of the most emanent leaves the rost interesting specimens of Reminious Biography; and the choicest examples of Doctrineal and Sacred Poetry, will succeed ach other in the order which may be judged met conducive to the behefit and gratification To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an lotteduce tory Essay, puncting out their characteristic excelencies; and, in some instances, comprehending a biographical sketch of the Author,

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in uniter taking "I H. CARINET LIBRARY OF LIVINITY" to present the collection to the public a soon a price, that he who purchases at present the

B EFORE the Select Circulating Libra-13 my hall been in existence, it was discusered the more was still something santing-that many occurrences in the literacy world must pass unknown, as to gorder cur agence, wabout as extension of the plan. To establish a fuller accluum of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journul of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded genera satisfaction. The very liberal patropage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that granutensly as an evidence ot ais acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown her desider to which the "Companion" is inte ided to supply. While reading for the "Library a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an is teresting, entert sinting, and instructive description, such as would properly come un der the designation of Magaziniana, inter-Quarteriles. to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early, as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating " fully aware from experience o the privantages to the public of the rapi diffusion of cheap and select literature, has een induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the realty valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be compris d in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines over attempted in any country; a comparison with others it were ur eless here to enter ur on, the 'Library' itself being the best test by which to judge of the dath rence between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to enough a record of the day adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or ches ness; how far he is likely to do this he n ust leave at present to the decision of his readers. Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the Library' and Commanion' both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most listant ; on office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 metes or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the some mutter, in the usuat American reprints of reviews and magaazines in octavo form would be eighteen dolars, and the postage as three to one. nake this assertion advisedly.
