PROSPECTUS FOR THE WEEKLY BALTIMORE REPUBLICAN.
The solicitation of several of our friends in this city, and applications of others from the different counties of the state, have induced us to issue a weekly edition of our paper, on or before the first of February next, or as much sooner as a sufficient number of subscribers shall be obtained, to warrant the undertaking.
It is deemed unnecessary to enter into a long detail of our political opinions, as they are well known to our friends throughout the state; and it is usual to make some pledges on commencing a new publication. We will merely state, that as we have always been strictly Republican, so shall we continue, in despite of the machinations of wily politicians. We have exerted every energy to break us down, so long as the principles of the present National Administration continue to receive the support of the people—the yemaury of the land, we shall continue our trusty sentinel on the watch-tower of freedom, and warn of every encroachment on their liberties, by ambitious and aspiring demagogues.
We are not disposed to eulogize the characters or conduct of men in this prospectus, but we know that our principles are unchangeable, and that we shall never desert them in the time of need—when the cause of our common country calls every man to action.
It is necessary to extend a prospectus of our paper, as every citizen is acquainted with their utility in diffusing intelligence, and the influence placed within their power, is exerted over the public mind, if properly conducted, by giving the general spring these principles upon which our liberal institutions are founded, or in correcting those errors thereto, by exposing their objects, and leading up to view the individual who is to be disposed, either from a personal dislike, or private interest, to sport with the rights of his country, or trifle with the inalienable rights of FREEDOM.
It will, no doubt, be conceded on all hands, that the result of the late election in this state, was owing in a great measure, to the want of a more general dissemination of information among the people, than the want of energy on our part. With these few remarks, we shall submit our sheet to the public, and we trust, that the necessity of encouraging us in our undertaking, as well for the interests of the party generally, as for our
