PROSPECTUS

Of a Daily Paper to be published in the City of Baltimore and a Weekly Paper under the title of THE DAILY BALTIMORE PATRIOT.

The application of several of our friends in this city, and applications of others in different counties of the state, we have decided on issuing a weekly edition of our paper on or before the first of February next, provided a sufficient number of subscribers can be obtained to justify the undertaking.

Should we be battled with them [illegible] we were not victorious, it was owing to the want of a more general circulation of information among the people, than to the want of energy on our part. With these few remarks, we shall submit our sheet to the candour and liberality of the public, hoping that they will see the necessity of encouraging our undertaking, as well for the benefit of the party generally, as for our own.

TERMS.

The WEEKLY REPUBLICAN will be printed on the same size sheet as our daily and country edition, and will contain most of the reading matter which may appear in those papers in the course of the week. Good paper, and clear type will be used, and every improvement in its mechanical arrangement shall be adopted, of which the encouragement we shall receive will admit. It will be issued every Saturday morning, at the low price of Two Dollars per annum, if paid in advance, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents at the expiration of six months, or Three Dollars if not paid till the end of the year. These terms must be strictly adhered to.

Editors who will notice our exchange in this and subjoined states, will confer a favour by [illegible] this prospectus in their gratuitous insertions in their papers, and by sending a copy containing marked to it will thereby entitle themselves to a free exchange for one year; and those friends to whom we send it, we please procure as many subscribers as practicable, and return their names to this office about the time the publication is to be commenced.

Post Masters and others, who will exert themselves in procuring subscribers, and forward the amount of their subscriptions, will be entitled to a deduction of fifteen per cent and a copy of the paper for one year for their trouble. They will also forward their names immediately, in order that we may place them among our list of Agents. Address, postage paid,
