every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be applied at two dollars each. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore, to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be expected, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others is were useless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventy-eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscriptions to the "Companion," will be taken either with or without the "Library." The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

ADAM WALDIE.

PROPOSALS TO PUBLISH THE LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $8 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well sustained reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as a sole defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the witty and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The EDINBURGH, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The number will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire number of the above works; making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in a good style, and be printed in a shape best fitted for the use of the European editions.

The price will be $8 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $50. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first Number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

Subscriptions received at this office.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magazines, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works; the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the "Library"—each number containing sixteen pages—thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the "Library" at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the "Library" itself, a volume

THE SACRED CLASSICS. THE subscriber has made arrangements to republish as fast as they are received from England, Series of the standard Theological works of England, under the general title of THE SACRED CLASSICS, OR, CABINET-LIBRARY OF DIVINITY. With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD COTTERMOLLE, B. D. and the Rev. HARRY STEBBING, M. A. The following is the Advertisement of the London Publisher:

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, AND THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c. PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE. On the 1st of January, 1834, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of THE SACRED CLASSICS, OR, CABINET-LIBRARY OF DIVINITY: With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

EDITED BY THE Rev. RICH'D. COTTERMOLLE, B. D. AND THE Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

any other country is so rich as England in sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation, while her Divines have distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the standard Theology of England has, through a variety of circumstances, been happily preserved from degenerating into the harshness of scholasticism; and thus the whole series of our Sacred Classics is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labors have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Systems of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprising a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking "THE COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY," to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life. The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, cold-pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, interleaved, and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month. Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence.

Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication, is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection—

Jeremy Taylor, Bates, Boyle, Baxter, Owen, Cudworth, Thomas A. Kempis, Burnet, Howe, Butler, Wilson, Bunyan, Fenelon, Doddridge, South, Bull, Hammond, Barrrow, Tillotson, Sherlock, Justin, Farinon, Horsley, Hale, Stillingfleet, Porteus, Locke, Lelsham, Cave, Chillingworth, Hall, Jewel, Jackson, Flavel, Chauncy, Wesley, Skelton, Watts, Lort, Romaine, Waterland, Whichcote, Boling, Pearson, Kea, Newton, Stanhope, Whitby, Hammond, Burdett, Herbert, Doune, Merick, &c. &c.

Vol. I. (to be published on the 1st of January) will contain

THE LIBERTY OF PROPHECYING, by Jeremy Taylor—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Richard Cottermole, B. D. Vol. II. (to be published on the 1st of February) will contain

CAVE'S LIVES OF THE APOSTLES— with Notes, and an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. Henry Stebbing, M. A. Vol. III. (to be published on the 1st of March) will contain BATES'S SPIRITUAL PERFECTION, UNFOLDED AND ENFORCED—with an Introductory Essay, by the Rev. John Pyc Smith, D. D.

LONDON: John Hatchard and Sons; Piccadilly; Whitaker & Co. Ave. Maria Lane; Simpkin & Marshall, Stationers' Court; D. A. Talboys, Oxford; J. & J. Deighton, Cambridge; Oliver & Boyd, Edinburgh; and J. Cummings, Dublin.

And to be had of every Bookseller throughout the Kingdom. March 4th, 1834.

The English copy will cost, in England, about ten dollars. We propose to issue the American edition, under the superintendance of a learned American clergyman, in weekly numbers on a single sheet of superfine paper, giving ninety-six large 12mo. pages, to be folded and stitched, and covered with strong envelope paper, at the rate of five dollars per annum.

DUFF GREEN.

March 27.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK. AMERICAN MAGAZINE of Useful and entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings. By the Boston Engraving Company.

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honorable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty original engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty fine plates, and pages, and be finished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will contain—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished American Preachers of Public Buildings, Monuments, and Improvements; Land-scapes; Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which in this country, will form an inexhaustible source of instruction and gratification; long and interesting descriptions of the various parts of the United States, and of the progress of our various subjects connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial Resources of the country, illustrated by a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Engraving Company 47 Court st. Boston, July 17.

Editors throughout the United States who will give the above Prospectus a few insertions in their respective papers, shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU. A description of the fashionable watering place of Germany, by an old man, will form the introduction of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Massena in Italy, which was confined for thirty-five years in the different castles of France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following—

Knutzner, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.

Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardkingharry, written by himself; a very poignant book, containing anecdotes of most of the distinguished individuals of the last sixty years.

Lord Sir Walter's Tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.

Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.

The Deaf and Dumb Pigeon's Tale.

Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV. by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Dutchman's Legacy; &c. &c. One of the best novels, say the London Magazine, of the present day.

Tudor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

Allan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.

Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.

Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.

The Curate's Tale,
