We have received your message proposing the appointment of a joint committee, to proceed mmediately to the State of Delaware, and urge upon the Legislature of that State, the adoption f some masure for the relief of our citizens from the onerous exactions and serious inconveniences experienced by them in trading through the Chesap-ake and Delaware Canal, and have carefully considered the same.

Whilst we entirely concur in sentiment as to the grievances complained of, and the absolute necessity of some decisive and efficient measures, to protect our citizens from the oppressions and exactions to which they are subjected by the provisions of the laws of Delaware in the conflict between the Canal and its credi-

It is to the nature of the remedy and the means to be applied for correcting the evil, that the dif-ference of opinion exists. It is believed that it is from some countervailing legislation on our own part that redress is to be obtained. The enquiry as to the nature of these measures we propose to entrust to an appropriate consulttee, o that they may after due examination present some specific remedy. With this view of the question we are unable to discern any b.nen. a deputation to repair to Delaw, re, for the purpose of penegally urging upon the attention of the Lagilature of that Se te, some corrective of the evil complained of, and therefore, respect. fully decline acceding to the proposition conained in your to so, go.
