

GREAT NATIONAL WORK.
AMERICAN MAGAZINE
Of Useful and Entertaining Knowledge. To be illustrated with numerous Engravings.
By the Boston Book Company.

The success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain all articles of interest to its patrons which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work comparable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty superb octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished American Views of Public Biography. Moral and Political Improvements; Land and Sea Voyages; the business variety and variety of which, in this country, will form an interesting source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the most interesting cities, towns, rivers, lakes, mountains, and islands, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial Resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

FREEMAN HUNT, Agent of the Boston Book Company, 57 Cornhill, Boston, July 17.

*Editors throughout the United States who will send the above Prospectus a few in circulation in their respective papers, shall be entitled to one year's subscription to the same.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU.

A description of the famous watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early date, by the Memoirs of Henry Marcelline D'Arde, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:

- Kreutzer, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.
- Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardeningdale, written by himself; a very pungent book, containing anecdotes of many of the distinguished individuals of the last sixty years.
- Good Sir Walter; a tale by the author of Family Portraits.
- The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.
- Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.
- The Deaf and Dumb Pagan; a Tale.
- Anecdotes of the Court of Louis the XIV. by the Duke of St. Simon.
- The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Dominie's Leagues, &c. &c. One of the best novels, say the London Magazines, of the present day.
- Taylor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.
- Allan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.
- Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.
- Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.
- The Curate's Tale, or Practical Joking; from a new work entitled Nights of the Round Table.
- The Three Westminster boys, or Cowper, Lord Chancellor Phelous, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.
- A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pelow, in 1783, and a brief but accurate account of Prince Le Bon.

The following is the Advertisement of the London Publishers

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DR. LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.
PRICE ONLY THREE SHILLINGS AND SIXPENCE.

Under the Act of January, 1854, will be published Vol. I. of a Series of the Standard Theological Works of England, under the general title of

THE SACRED CLASSICS,

OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY; With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

EDITED BY THE REV. RICHARD COTTEMOLE, B. D. AND

THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Other countries so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines, in setting forth and establishing the principles of Revealing, while her Divines have distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of character thus given to the mind and faculty of England has, throughout a variety of circumstances, been happily preserved from degenerating into the hardness of scholasticism, and thus the whole series of our Sacred Classics, as well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the immortal interests of individuals, or to the order and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the benefit and gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellencies; and, in some instances, comprehending a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his times.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking "THE SACRED CLASSICS," to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolscap 8vo. on good paper, cold-pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, lettered, and published (in Volumes of about 400 pages each) on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence; forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

The following names of Authors whose works are intended for publication, is submitted in evidence of the impartiality of the selection:

PROPOSALS

FOR A SERIES OF THE SACRED CLASSICS, LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $6 PER ANNUM.

The above Journals are already, so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits.

The well established reputation of the LONDON QUARTERLY, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the witty and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The EDINBURGH, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The FOREIGN QUARTERLY occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.

The WESTMINSTER is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above works; making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in a good style, and be printed in a shape but little differing from that of the European editions.

The price will be $5 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $30. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $30 on the receipt of the first Number, will be allowed an additional copy.

Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Postor, Albany, N. Y.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

BEFORE the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unknown, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan.

To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniaria, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret.

To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large. It is believed that with the "Library," the "Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do.

The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.

2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages—thus, every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.

3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.

4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage: Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intentions as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number, payment will be expected, as its appearance will convince a sufficiency of patronage.

PROPOSALS

FOR A SERIES OF THE SACRED CLASSICS, LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $6 PER ANNUM.

The proprietor of the Select Circulating Library, fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers, and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others it may be necessary here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value, or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventy-eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance, from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprints of reviews and magazines, in octavo form would be eighteen dollars, and the postage as three to one. We make this assertion advisedly.

Subscribers to the "Companion" will be taken either with or without the "Library."

The proprietor trusts that his punctuality and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library," will be considered a sufficient guarantee of the completion of his proposed undertaking.

It is deemed unnecessary to state our political opinions, and to our friends through the medium of a newspaper, as it is usual to make a public declaration of our state, that as we have a public opinion, so shall we be the machinations of wicked men, and exert every energy so long as the principal Administration support of the people of this country, and we shall continue to do so, until we are driven from our seats in the Councils of the Nation.

We are not disposed to quarrel with any man, or to make those few remarks which may be thought to be a reflection on any individual, or on any party, but we shall be as candid as we can, and we shall be as frank as we can, in our country calls every day.
