PROSPECTUS
For Publishing in the City of Baltimore, a Weekly Paper under the title of

WEEKLY BALTIMORE REPUBLICAN.

The solicitation of several of our friends in this city, and applications of others from the different counties of the state, we have concluded on issuing a weekly edition of our paper, on or before the first of February next, or as much sooner as a sufficient number of subscribers shall be obtained, to warrant the undertaking.

It is deemed unnecessary to enter into a long detail of our political opinions, as they are well known to our friends throughout the state; but it is usual to make some pledges on the subject of a new publication, we will merely say, that we have always been strictly Republicans, so shall we continue; in despite of the machinations of wily politicians who have exerted every energy to break us down; so long as the principles of the present National Administration continue to receive the support of the people—the yeomanry of the land, we shall continue their trusty servants, and on the watch-tower of freedom, and warn every encroachment on their liberties, by ambitious and aspiring demagogues.

We are not disposed to eulogize the characters or conduct of men in this prospectus, but make these few remarks that our friends may know that our principles are unchanged, and that we shall never desert them in the time of need—when the cause of our common country calls every man to action.

It is unnecessary to extend a prospectus for a Newspaper, as every citizen is acquainted with their utility in diffusing intelligence on all subjects of a local or foreign nature; and the influence placed within their power, is exerted over the public mind, if properly conducted, by giving the general spring to those principles upon which our liberal institutions are founded, or in correcting those derogatory errors, by exposing their objects, and bringing to view the individual who may be disposed, either from a personal disposition or private interest, to sport with the liberties of his country, or trifle with the inalienable rights of FREEMEN.

It will, no doubt, be conceded on all hands that the result of the late election in this State, was owing in a great measure, to the want of a more general dissemination of information among the people. Our opponents have had every advantage in this respect. More than two thirds of the papers in this State, and in this city, two of them open and served enemies, and two others, while professing neutrality, were evidently hostile to the principles of the Administration, were arrayed against us. Still we battled with them, and if we were not victorious, it was owing to the want of a more general circulation of information among the people, than to the want of energy on our part. With these few remarks, we shall submit our sheet to the good sense and liberality of the public, hoping that they will see the necessity of encouraging us in our undertaking, as well for the interests of the party generally, as for ourselves.

TERMS.
THE WEEKLY REPUBLICAN will be printed on the same size sheet as our daily and country edition, and will contain most of the reading matter which may appear in those papers during the course of the week. Good paper and fair type will be used, and every improvement in its mechanical arrangement shall be adopted, which the encouragement we shall receive will admit. It will be issued every Saturday morning, at the low price of Two Dollars per annum, if paid in advance, Two Dollars and Fifty Cents at the expiration of six months, or Three Dollars if not paid till the end of the year. These terms must be strictly adhered to.

Editors with whom we exchange, and in the adjacent States, will confer a favor by giving this prospectus a few gratuitous insertions in their papers, and by sending a copy containing our remarks, they will thereby enable themselves to a free exchange for one copy of our paper, and return their names to this office, and return their names to this office, and return their names to this office.

For Mary and others, who will exert themselves in procuring subscribers, and for the amount of their subscriptions, will be entitled to a deduction of fifteen per cent on the price of the paper for one year for their services. They will also forward their names immediately, in order that we may place them on our list of Agents. Address, postage paid, to
