THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Of another country is so rich as England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation, while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The soundness of their views given to the standard Theology of England has, through various circumstances, been happily preserved, and cooperating into the best of all systems of divinity, thus the works of our 'Sacred Classics' is a well of truth and consolation, as open to the general reader as to the most learned student.

It is intended to comprise in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the moral and well being of society. Treatises on the Doctrines, Morality, and Evidences of Christianity, which have received the permanent stamp of general approbation; select Sermons of the most eminent Divines; the most interesting specimens of Religious Biography; and the choicest examples of Devotional and Sacred Poetry, will succeed each other in the order which may be judged most conducive to the beneficial gratification of the reader.

To the productions of each author, or to each separate production, as the case may seem to require, will be prefixed an Introductory Essay, pointing out their characteristic excellences; and, in some instances, comprising a biographical sketch of the Author, with remarks on the state of religion in his country.

It is the desire of the Proprietors, in undertaking 'THE CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY,' to present the collection to the public at such a price, that he who purchases at present the cheapest of ephemeral publications, may, for the same money, possess himself of works which cannot fail to afford him guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

The work will be handsomely printed in Foolcap 8vo. in good paper, cold-pressed, neatly bound in Morocco Cloth, letters, and published in Volumes of about 400 pages each on the first day of every month.

Price, Three Shillings and Sixpence: Forming the cheapest series of works ever offered to the public.

GREAT NATIONAL WORK. AMERICAN MAGAZINE

THE success which has attended the publication of the best Magazines from the English Press, has led to preparation for issuing a periodical more particularly adapted to the wants and tastes of the American public. While it will be the object of the proprietors to make the work strictly what its title indicates, it will, nevertheless, contain articles of interest to its patrons, which appear in foreign Magazines.

Extensive preparations have been entered into, both with artists and authors, to furnish from all parts of the Union, drawings and illustrations of every subject of interest, which the publishers confidently believe will enable them to issue a work honourable to its title, and acceptable to the American People.

The first number of the American Magazine, illustrated with upwards of twenty splendid engravings, will appear on or before the first of September, and be continued monthly, containing between forty and fifty imperial octavo pages, and be furnished at the low price of two dollars per annum. It will comprise—

Portraits and Biographical Sketches of distinguished Americans; Views of Public Buildings, Monuments, and Improvements; Landscape Scenery; the boundless variety and beauty of which, in this country, will form an interesting source of instruction and gratification; Engravings and descriptions of the character, habits, &c. of Beasts, Birds, Fishes and Insects, together with every subject connected with the Geography, History, Natural and Artificial resources of the country, illustrated in a familiar and popular manner.

WALDIE'S CIRCULATING LIBRARY.

BUBBLES FROM THE BRUNNENS OF NASSAU,
A description of the fashionable watering places in Germany, by an old man, will form the commencement of the fourth volume of Waldie's Library.

This will be followed, at an early day, by the Memoirs of Henry Masers de la Tude, who was confined for thirty-five years in the different State Prisons in France, now first translated into English.

The works published in the current volume, now on the point of completion, are the following:—

Kruitznor, or the German's Tale, a novel, by the author of Canterbury Tales.
Memoirs of Sir James Campbell, of Ardkinglass, written by himself, a very piquant book, containing anecdotes of the last sixty years.
Good Sir Watery's tale by the author of Family Portraits.

The Broken Heart; a dramatic sketch, from the Italian.
Rome in the Nineteenth Century; in a series of letters written during a residence in that city, by a Lady.
The Deaf and Dumb Page; a Tale.
Anecdotes of the Court of Louis XIV; by the Duke of St. Simon.

The Black Watch; an Historical Novel, by the author of the Donnie's Legacy; &c. &c. One of the best novels, say the London Magazines, of the present day.
Tudor's new book of Travels in Mexico and Cuba.

Allan Cunningham's Biographical and Critical History of Literature for the last fifty years.
Helen, a Novel, by Maria Edgeworth.
Journal of a West India Proprietor, kept during a residence in the Island of Jamaica, by the late Matthew G. Lewis, Esq. M. P. author of the Monk, &c.

The Curate's Tale, or Practical Joking; from a new work entitled Nights of the Round Table.
The Three Westminster boys, or Cowper, Lord Chancellor Thurlow, and Warren Hastings, contrasted; from the same.
A Narrative of the Shipwreck of the Antelope at Pelew, in 1783, and a brief but accurate account of Prince Le Boo.

All the above cost in the "Library" but $2.50!!!

PROPOSALS TO REPUBLISH THE LONDON, EDINBURGH, FOREIGN AND WESTMINSTER QUARTERLY REVIEWS, FOR $5 PER ANNUM.

THE above Journals are already so well known to the public, that little need be said of their respective merits. The well sustained reputation of the London Quarterly, not only as an able defender of Tory principles, and the old order of things, but as the witty and most entertaining of Reviews, will always command the attention of the literary and scientific.

The Westminster, celebrated for the vigor, learning and acuteness which its articles display, conducted by some of the principal literary men of the modern Athens, is an equally powerful champion of the moderate Reform party.

The Foreign Quarterly occupies a neutral ground in Politics, and is devoted to continental literature.
The Westminster is but little known in this country. It may be considered as the advocate of the Radicals, and the mouth piece of Benthamism. It represents the principles of a party already numerous in England, and fast increasing in the United States.

The numbers will be put to press immediately after they shall be received from Europe; and will contain the entire matter of the above works, making four annual volumes of upwards of six hundred pages.

They will be executed in as good a style, and printed in A shape but little differing from that of the European editions.
The price will be $5 per annum, payable three months after the delivery of the first number. The English copies cannot be had for less than $50. Of the three at present republished, two of them alone cost $10.

Any individual procuring four subscribers, and remitting $20 on the receipt of the first number, will be allowed an additional copy.
Subscription papers to be returned, and all communications to be addressed, post paid, to Theodore Foster, Albany, N. Y.

COMPANION TO WALDIE'S LIBRARY.

The cheapest reprint from English Periodicals ever offered to the public.

Before the Select Circulating Library had been long in existence, it was discovered that there was still something wanting—that many occurrences in the literary world must pass unobserved, as regarded our agency, without an extension of the plan. To establish a fuller medium of communication and supply the desideratum, the Journal of Belles Lettres was added; which we have reason to believe has afforded general satisfaction. The very liberal patronage extended to the Library induced the proprietor to give that gratuitously as an evidence of his acknowledgments.

More extended experience has shown other desiderata which the "Companion" is intended to supply. While reading for the "Library" a large mass of material accumulates on the hands of the editor, of an interesting, entertaining, and instructive description, such as would properly come under the designation of Magaziniana, interspersed with the Reviews from the English Quarterlies. To publish every thing of this nature which we deem desirable would encroach too much on the columns of the "Library" designed for books, and yet to pass them by is constantly a subject of regret. To concentrate, therefore, the publication of Books entire, Reviews, lists of new works, the choicest contributions to Magazines, &c. &c. the "Companion to Waldie's Library" will be offered to the patronage of the present subscribers and the public at large.

It is believed that with the "Library," "the Journal," and the "Companion," such an acquaintance with the literature of the age may be cultivated as to leave little further to be desired. Being all published from the same office, more facility offers for subscribing, and having fewer people to deal with, mistakes are less liable to occur, and more readily corrected when they do. The short interval of two weeks between the publication of each number, it is thought too, will be an advantage over monthlies and quarterlies.

The following plan is respectfully submitted.

- 1. The "COMPANION" will contain the earliest possible reprints of the best matter in the British periodicals.
- 2. It will be issued every fortnight, and the form will be the same as that of the Library—each number containing sixteen pages—thus every six months, giving thirteen numbers, which can be bound with the Library at little or no more expense, and making a better sized volume; and to those who do not take the Library itself, a volume every year, of 416 quarto pages of the size of the present.
- 3. The price will be three dollars for a subscriber—five dollars for two—and clubs five and upwards will be supplied at two dollars each.
- 4. As the work will not be commenced, unless a sufficient patronage be obtained, no payment is required at present, only the name, sent free of postage. Those wishing to support the publication will be pleased therefore to announce their intention as early as possible, as it is intended to commence the work on the first of January next. On the issuing of the second number payment will be exacted, as its appearance will evince a sufficiency of patronage.

The proprietor of the "Select Circulating Library," fully aware from experience of the advantages to the public of the rapid diffusion of cheap and select literature, has been induced to add the important feature to the work, and of course leaves it optional with the present subscribers and others to take it or not.

It is confidently believed, that, with the attention on the part of the Editor, who has already at hand the material for such a work, all the really valuable matter of the English literary and amusing publications may be comprised in this form at a rate of subscription and postage, so trifling as scarcely to be felt. It will form the cheapest reprint of reviews and magazines ever attempted in any country; a comparison with others will be unless here to enter upon, the "Library" itself being the best test by which to judge of the difference between an octavo and a quarto page. It will be the study of the Editor to embody a record of the day, adapted to the wants of this country, which can have no competitor for value or cheapness; how far he is likely to do this he must leave at present to the decision of his readers.

Clubs of five individuals, who subscribe to the "Library" and "Companion" both, will obtain the two for six dollars, the postage (a very important consideration) to the most distant post office, on the two, will be one dollar and ninety-five cents, divided into seventy eight payments, and half that sum for 100 miles or a less distance from Philadelphia, while the same matter, in the usual American reprint form would be eighteen dollars. The postage as three to one. We therefore advise the "Companion" will make this association "about the Library" taken either with or without the "Library."

The proprietor trusts that his punctiliousness and exactness in executing his part of the contract in the publication of the "Library" will be considered a sufficient guarantee for the completion of his proposed undertaking.

PROSPECTUS
Publishing in the City of Baltimore a Weekly Paper under the title of
THE WEEKLY BALTIMORE REPUBLICAN.

The solicitation of several of our friends in this city, and applications of others in the different counties of the state, we concluded on issuing a weekly edition of paper, on or before the first of February, as much sooner as a sufficient number of subscribers shall be obtained, to support the undertaking.

It is deemed unnecessary to enter into a long and formal political opinion, as they are well known to our friends throughout the state; but it is usual to make some pledges on entering a new publication. We will therefore pledge, that as we have always been strictly political, so shall we continue, in despite of the machinations of wily politicians who, by every energy to break us down, are so long as the principles of the present Administration continue to receive support of the people—the yeomanry of land, we shall continue their trusty sentinels of the watch-tower of freedom, and warn of every encroachment on their liberties by ambitious and aspiring demagogues. We are not disposed to eulogize the character or conduct of men in this prospectus, but these few remarks that our friends may know that our principles are unchanged, and that we shall never desert them in any time of need—when the cause of our country calls every man to action.

It is unnecessary to extend a prospectus of a Newspaper, as every citizen is acquainted with its utility in diffusing intelligence on all subjects of a local or foreign nature; the influence placed within their power, to be exerted over the public mind, if properly conducted, by giving the general principles upon which our liberal friends are founded, or in correcting those errors, by exposing their objects, by leading up to view the individual who may be disposed, either from a personal or private interest, to spurn with the people of his country, or trifle with the inalienable rights of FREEMEN.

(Will, no doubt, be succeeded on all hands, as the result of the late election in this State, was swayed in a great measure, to the advantage of a more general dissemination of information among the people. Our opponents have had every advantage in this respect—more than two thirds of the papers in this State and in this city, two of them open and two of them closed, were evidently hostile to the principles of the Administration, were arrogant and presumptuous. Still we battled with them, and if we were not victorious, it was owing to the want of a more general circulation of information among the people, than to the want of energy on our part. With these few remarks, we shall submit our sheet to the public, and hope that the necessity of encouraging us in our undertaking, as well for the interests of the party generally, as for ourselves.
