ant of a miserable existence, or company to the remnant of a miserance existence, or fearful from his numerods crimes to meet his fate, strenuously opposed the efforts of his comrade. The Spaniards laughed at the struggle; and as sither party came near, worlded them with their ewords, and goaded them towards the gangway; at last he that was most resolute gave a sudden plungs, and 85th were in the water. Then it was that the diabolical feelings of the pirates were most excited; both endeavored to swim, and for a few minutes they succeeded; but as they near ed the ship, the rope which an apparently friendly hand had offered to their succor was withdrawn, or only the wet end allowed to touch their hands, when it was jerk prave—into which they ultimately descended, after nore than human exertion to cling to the faithless success

The next that was brought on deck was Captain prepared to meet his fate, and approached the gangway with a fearless unconcern. The youth riveted his are round his father's tiock, and cried out with all the exect. el feelings of a boy who could not reconnile himself to mevitable death. "Oh, save mel father!" cried the poor alf-distracted creature: "save me from these men! what are the ruffians a going to do with us". At this mo neat some of the pirit's tore young Smith from his fither, walked him to the Captain of the Felucca, who runming his quies eye over the pule face of the youngster. look his head, putied out a long line of the smoke and on giving a girnes at one of his men, the youngstor we released and again ran into his tother's exist. So, made no resistance as the piraces larked his son to hi this affrigured boy screamed most dreamfaily implored.

Les father to save him for his mother's sake; he ender vorei to an ei cown, and helds mis hand, which woold aut board undiumed and undismigrational yet he scenned to import on the dock has one who would will largly have lived, if only for ine son's a key. The I whing being completed, the parities who wire untio is to make give the victims a posta to varies that the dealg digway.

On, father! father! stop, stop—only for one minute— father! only for one minute,—On, look at me! I will not Le drowned; on, my poor rother! on, rive, me sive." This seemed to disconnert the Captain, for he stopped and seemed actually insensible to the poin to missible to tree reperion of from the application of a sworm he looked down upon his son's fee, and I thought I saw. seemed to read a hope of escape even when it was most useless and most unpromising. And how ring we climp a full delegation in a Convention of so much to hope even when its rainbow has lost its brightest co- interest to the Jackson Republicans of this new lours! how foundly we ching to the lest tint, although the Congressional District, eye may see it gradually fluing from the viewland firvently, even at death's giping door, we imagine an e-cope, and hope glimaers even in the darkest acversity. The Captain having bent his head regulare, and kessed the forshoad of his son, who was ser, aming with the worst antic.pation, lifted him from the cook, and walk. ing him steadily to the gang vay jumped into the water and sunk to rise no more; out as he tell, we meri on load scream which the sca of eternity husned for

A 154-1.4 W.

Entitled, A supplement to a By-Law passed in the year 832, excluding Hogs from to taxable property of the city of Annapolis. Section 1. But established and ordained by the Mayor, Recorder, Aidermen and Comment-Council of the City of Annapolis, and by the authority of the some. That from and after the passage of this by have it sould be lawful to keep a nog or hogs within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid, in a pen or stylar within the city aforesaid within the city and welling house street or all the.

sty shall be located within sixty feet of any dwelling house street or all y.

Sec. 2. And us it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid. That if any person shall keep a hog or hoss contrary to the first section of this by-law, he she or they shall be subject to a fine of not infer that one Dollar, nor less than fifty cent, for each hog, for every day he she or they shall so oftend, to be recovered as other files are for the use of the corporation.

SEC. 3. Be it established and ordained by the authority aforesaid. That it stall not be lawful for any negro slave to keep a hog or hogs within the city aforesaid.

SEC. 4. And be it further established and ordained by the authority aforesaid. That it shall be lawful for free persons of colour to raise a hog or hogs in the manner they are at this time allowed to raise them, provided if a this time allowed to raise them, free coloured person should violate this section of the by-law, he she or they, so ill he subject to the penalty in posed by the secon section of this by-law.
Szc. 5. And be it farther established ordained by the authority aforestid. That all ordinances heretofore passed by the corporation in any manner or way contary or repug-nant to this by-law, and its provisions, be and the same are hereby repealed.

May 14.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber of Anne Aru del county hereby gives notice, that she hath obtained from the orphans court of Anne-Arundel county, short letters testamenlary on the personal estate of Charity Folks, ate of said county, decessed. All persons having claims against the said deceased, are here by notified the orbits the same, and all persons indebted to exhibit the same, and all persons indebted are requested to make payment to my husband William Bishop.

CHARITY BISHOP, Ext.x.

April 23. FOR ANNAPOLIS, EASTON AND CAMBRIDE.
The MARYLAND will go to Annapolis, Cam-bridge (by Castle Haven) and Easton on every Tues-day and Friday morning, leaving Baltimore at 7 o'clock, from the lower end Dugan's wharf, her usual place of start-

N. B .- All baggage at the owner's risk. LEM'L. G. TAYLOR.

Gagette.

XXXAPOLIS: eday, May 21, 1835.

ST. MARY'S CHURCH. Service will be performed at this Church on Sunday. Yespers in the evening.

ADMINISTRATION CONVENTION, The triends of the Administration of the Geeral Government in the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, and Anne-Afundel county, will soos be called upon to select two candidates to represent them in the next Congress. It is therefore proposed to hold a Convention of Delegates part, which caused his instant death. Smith. His son keaped up immediately and clung to fore proposed to hold a Convention of Delegates. Smith. His son keaped up immediately and clung to fore proposed to hold a Convention of Delegates. Smith. His son keaped up immediately and clung to Market 10 of Smith and Smith how his end was come and looked at the Captain of the 30th day of May, at 11 o'clock, to nominate Felucea who had nearly fallen under his arm, and who two suitable and proper persons as Candidates was now unconcernedly smoking a segar, appealing for to represent this new double district. Its friends pity in regard to his son, as for himself he seemed quite in Anne-Arundel county when they shall meet to appoint their delegates to the National and a triend in the city of Mexico, which mentions Conventions, are therefore requested to select five other Delegates to attend the proposed District Convention. The friends of the Administration in the cities of Baltimore and Annapolis, will hold their meetings at such time best suit their convenience, provided their Delegates are chosen in time to meet the D. legates from this county at Waterloo on the toch of May. All the friends of the cause will on orbilly unite in forwarding the objects of this Convention.

THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

April 30, 1835. The Bultimore R publican will publish this notice until the day a meeting.

JACKSON REPUBLICAN CONVENTION. To Jackson Republicans in those Election Districts in A. A. County which have not apquested to meet in their respective Discricts on Saturacy, the 23d instrut, at 2 o'clock, to that purpose. Delegates have already been appoint. ed in the city of Annapous, and some of the Districts in the county, and it is hoped that the other Districts will on the day above named tidlow their example. Our friends in the city of and smelly as I could see, a to it fell. He can larged Bullimore will not fail to appoint their Dele-taploringly upon the countmance of his report his eye against in due time to meet us on the day appoint. gat s in due time to meet us on the day appoint. infariated animat. Every District in the County should have

THE FOURTH DISTRICT.

At a respectable meeting of the friends of the National Administration in the Third Electoo District of A. A. County on Monday 18th 11:01 I was called to the Chair, and WILLIAM Wilson appointed Secretary. The object meeting being stated, on motion of Philip P-tilbone, Esq. the following committee was the Chair to draft resolutions, viz. Grafion B. Davail, Philip Pettibone, William W. and Joseph M. Tate, who having retired a short time, returned and offered the following, which were unanimously adopted: the expediency and propriety of the proposed most miraculous. National Convention to be held in Baltimore on the 20th instant, for the purpose of nominating cancil lates for the Presidency and Vice Presidency, believing it the only means by which the party can be united, and the measures of Andr w Jackson be perpetuated; Therefore

B. Davall, Philip Petabere, and Dr. Z. Merri. nest solicitation of many who heard it pronounken, to represent this District in the Convention | cod, and who suggested that the publication to nominate candidates for President and Vice might greetly promote the cause of Tenpe-President of the United Staces.

Resolved farther, That the same Delegates be pointed to represent this District in the pro- Thomas Jones, osed State Convention to assemble in Bulti-

National Convention.

Resolved, That we will meet our friends a Waterloo on the 30th inst. for the purpose of ces against it is severest sentence. That senselecting two suitable and proper persons to re- tence it is now my painful duty, as the minister of your life. Has your life been spent in a present this district in the next Congress of the United States, and that Messra. Wellium S. it, I cannot refrain from making some observa- is all holiness? Need I ask this question after Weedon, William W. Seeders, Samuel Thomas, William B. Chairs, and Philip Pettibone, be a committee for that purpose.

Resolved, That the said committee be empow ered to fill their vacancies should any occur.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meet. ing be signed by the Chairman and Secretary. and published in the Gazette at Annapolis, and Raltimore Republican.

N RIDOUT, of H. Chairman WILLIAM S. WEEDON, Sec'y.

A Naval Court Martial has been ordered to onvene at Baltimore, on Monday, the 22d day ble home might hav of June next, for the trial of Captain George C. gal affection, to demestic peace and felicity .-Read, and will be composed of Commodore Lewis Warrington, President .-Commodores W. M. Crane, James Biddle, and John Downes; Captains A. J. Dallas, T. Ap. C. Jones, and C. W. Morgan; and Master Commandant Beverly Kennon, Members. Henry M. Morfit, Esq. of Washington, Judge Advocate.—Army and Navy Chronicle.

CUMBERLAND, Md. May 12. SALES OF LAND,—Two farms, lying with-in eight and ten miles from Cumberland, we learn, were recently sold to capitalists at greatly advanced prices. They both contain large quantities of Coal. One was taken at $12,000 and the other at $6,000. We have not heard to one man, amo

this city, and during the night one of the com-pany, in his sleep fell to the floor below, and li-the constitutional malignancy of your passions, terally broke his neck! The individual was an Englishman, but we have not been able to learn his name.

sword down his throat, perforated some vital Buffalo Whig.

BALLOONING.

A gentleman of our acquaintance, (says the that Mr. Eugene Robinson, the Aeronaut, had heart of man. made an ascension there which was successful! in every respect, it having yielded him a clear profit of twelve thousand six hundred dollars. He dividual not habituated to the strictest sobriety, was making preparations for another ascent, and has he been deaf to the suggestion, which from the proceeds of which it was calculated be your case must have whispered to him in its prowould make twenty thousand dollars. This is gress, that his condition might be soon like yours ballooning to some purpose.

5th instant, forty feet in length, without any marks of a wound upon it.

Farther accounts have been received concerning the death of Mr. Douglas, botenist, lately killed at Owyhee by a wild ball in a pit; but the dead who have heretofere expiated and in this investigation fell in. His bundle most bried in the earth, under the feet of the

Mr. Douglas was one of the most accomplished botanists of the present day, and explored the banks of Columbia river, and indeed, nearly the whole of the great West, the result of which was a vost coes ion of rare and beautiful Ameican plants to the collections of Great Britain.

ALMOST A CATASTROPHE.

The servants in one of our hotels, says the Boston Transcript, were roused the other night by the violent ringing of a chamber bell. On transient boarder in the house, half suffocated, and almost dead with alarm and the want of with gos, and on retiring to bed, wishing to ex-Seed rs. Richard Garainer, Dr. Z. Merriken, by closing the light, instead of shutting off the gas and Jos ph M. Tate, who having retired a short by closing the valve, he blew the flame out, leaving the gas to flow into the room. He then laid down, and being much fatigued, fell immediate-Resilved. That this meeting fully concur in ly asleep. That he escaped suffication is al-

From the Frederick sixura Arena. Sentence of Death was, on Friday last, pro nounced by Judge Lomax, on Thomas Jones, in Westmereland circuit court, for the murder of his wife, on the 25th of last month. The sub-Resilved. That this meeting appoint Grafton stance of the sentence, is published at the ear-

SENTENCE OF DEATH.

Yes have been convicted of the murder of asset of the adjournment of the your wite, by execusive beating. This is regarded as one of the most hemous offences which can be committed, and the law denoun. You are very shortly to appear before the bar of the law, to pronounce. But before I discharge

It has, no doubt, occurred to you and you lo n man-more than fiend-if its solitude has places you now upon the brink of an abyss, in-describably awful and tremendous. Before the hand of Spring shall drop a blade of verdure upon the fresh grave of your murdered wife.

to one man, amounting to about $9,000. The wretched inmates! Your defence sought to mitigate, and even to excuse, your crime, upon the plea of insanity, produced by the intemperate and of article strainty, produced by the intemperate and of article strainty hoped, that the guilt of this murder would be overlooked by the law, in its benignity to mental infirming in the loft of a burn, in the north-part of this cut, and during the night one of the com-The , wretched inmatest Your defence sought to mi- him, and is risen from t instigated the enactment of this shocking trage. dy; and that, without the drunkenness, crime would never have been perpetrated. But FATAL JUGGLING.—A Juggler, by the name of Wheeler alias Cartis, a few days since, ness, which did not incapacitate, you to perpe-while in the exercise of his vocation, running a trete the murder by wilful, deliberate and premeditated killing. Drink then is the proven and acknowledged cause of the perpetration of this most cruel and inhuman murder. It was but this day week, that in the adjoining county of this circuit, an unhappy wretch was condemned to die for an offence originating in drink-and New York Gazette) has received a letter from now it is again exhibited as the abominable cause of the most atrocious crime that can shock the Has there been amongst the crowd which has guthered in this hall, pending this trial, one inand was his conscience not startled with terror and dismay at his own perilous state? If he hugs The Sag-Harbour Corrector states, that a himself in the folse security, that he has the whale drifted on shore at East Hampton on the power to stop short of that inordinate excess, himself in the talse security, that he has the which inflames the passions to outrage against the law, and infuriates the husband to raise his hand against the partner of his bosom, you can From the London Morning Herald, of March 30. no doubt, tell him that there was a time, when you also confidently relied upon the same delusive security. Let him call up from the grave they do not icaterially add to our previous in- the gallows, the crimes provoked by their inpointed Deligates to the District Convenient to the traps for wild cattle, and they were even tentiaries, the glassly crowd whom similar of pointed out to him; but it is presumed that he afterwards went to examine them more closely, united testimony, will procleim that the security is most false-most illusory. This security was found above 20 yards behind. His body, is the grand mystery in the devotions, which are when recovered, was examined, and the surgical paid to the God of Intemp rance, who, term afreport has been sent home. He was crushed ter term, is casting his victims to be crushed in and gored to pieces; and when first seen was al- the path of Justice as it rolls its stated course through its judicial circuits. Oh! that the record of this conviction could go forth throughout the land, to alarm the merriment of every inebriated wretch; and that, like the hand ing upon the wall which dismayed the Chaldean monarch, in his festive abominations, it would appal him with the view of his danger, and show un what momentous interests are hazarded upon the enjoyments of a moment, whose highest coluptuousness is a degradation lower than that and called out to those about to hoist away. This of the beasts.—Does the heart aspire to honour, cone, and no accident occurred till they were with to fortune, to health, to virtue, to Heaven? This or 20 ft. of the surface, whenthere of them fell, is record tells him that infamy and indigence and going to the apartment they found the occupant, disgrace and vice and Hell, are mantling in the cup of intoxication. Jealousy and hate and every inalignant passion is effervescing in the fresh air. It appeared that his chamber was lit inebriating draught. Blasphemy and murder and every crime is spectred in its sparkling bubbles. It tells him that the hund, which is reckles: y bearing to the lips the maddening beverage, nay, he knows not how soon, he imbued in the blood of a heart, whose constant throb was conjugal affection for her murderer-and whose virtues had once inspired him with all the rapturous devotion of love. Harder than the nether mill stone must be the heart, if your fate does not engrave upon it, in characters never to be obliterated, whilst it beats with life, most awful and fearful admonitions to sobriety and

I avail myself of this solemn occasion, when erhaps for the last time in this world, we stand together in the presence of that Holy Judge before whose majesty the prisoner and his earthly judge are both defiled with the blackest guilt and I would earnestly address you upon a sub ject of the deepest interest to all times; but to you in your present condition it is gency upon your most profound consideration. of your God, to render an account of the deeds manner, which will be exceptable to a God who tions suggested by your situation-not made, I the disclosures in your recent trial? But upon as are you, in any spirit of reproach, but of the account which you render depends eternal despest commisseration and concern for your happiness or eternal misery. The sands of your unhappy fate; and they are made with a hope life are few and will soon run out-of your past that they may not be wholly unprofitable to days how will you make up your reckoning! Where are the merits of your life, which you will sum up as the offset to your crimes; and bitterness of grief, that the last most has been what statement will you make, of a belance in most eventful in your destinies. One month ago you were in spossession it most of those seat of Heaven, entitling you to forgiveness, as means, which, when rightly improved, give as-surance, in your humble sphere of life, of use-by occasional obedience, to pay for a life of hafulness, respectability and happiness. Your hum-ble home might have been consecreted to conju-preme, universal law of his creator. And during the remnant of your days, that short and But your own land converted it into the charnel house of bur wife—and you fled in guilt live, in the confinement of the Jail—what are and herror from its blood despattered walls—and you led her covered with bruises, speechless, senseled, and weltering in her gore. Your home with all the comforts which you might have there secured, has been exchanged for the m of a Jail; and you must have been more transcendent duty of his creator,) to cancel all man—more than fiend—if its solitude has his violation of God's holy Kaw. There is no than man—more than fiend—if its solitude has his violation of God's hely Law. Incre is no not been embittered by agonies of remorse and hope for the sinner, but in the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righteousness of hope for the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righteousness of hope for the sinner has been purposed in the righte all mankind—even to the vilest Sinner—upon terms so moderate, that none, it might be sup-posed, would be foolish enough to reject them. the number of acres, but the prospects of the carly completion of the Chesapeake and Ohio vour body too will have been deposited in the Canal, and the consequent increased demand for chasers. And since the above was written, a considerable portion of fown property has been sold ing with such terrific ruin and desolation its trust in the son of God, who died to redeem vited to Silesia to renow with Prusia 160 trust in the son of God, who died to reno ession for him. Your fe continued in impentence and prob bot little to a life that had been a But if they are fully improved in with God and the Savion, they up expand into a spiritual imm

Go then, I beseech your go the Saviour—to him who is the way and the truth and the life. He will cure your deby hope—he can make your ignominous deal by hope—be can make your ignominous in this world, the passport to ever lasting to in the next—no crime is so great as to exchange the contract of the contrac the humble penitent from the lorgiveness. Heaven—and no period is too short for the vis

It only remains for me now to perform painful duty which is enjoined upon me by the law, as its minister .- &c. &c.

FIRE.

A fire broke out yesterday forencon about 11 o'clock in the old Jacob Tidd distillery, in Distil-House squr now occupied by A. H. Bowman; the interior of whic together with most of the stock, was either consumed otherwise destroyed. The wind at the time was high and water scarce, it having to be brought a consu listance; and but for the unremitted exertions of our cellent fire department, which is ever on the alert levastation must have been very extensive. Thebe ore of a similar description few people being sware; city. We never saw such a strange mixture of England rum and molasses, old sheds and empty h her is. We understand that Mr. Bowman stock with insured at the Merchant's office for $6000, and the judge the loss to be much more considerable. And er adjoining distillery occupied by Win. French much injured-stock insured we understand, at Neptune office. One half of the building destress insured for $2000—the other half not insured at a

A melancholy accident remains to be recorded. the opposite side of the way, in another building or ed by Barnard and Trull, as a distillery, a very sive well was nearly completed, having alr gressed into the bowels of the earth about sixty feet the time of the alarm, there were 8 men at the toxici-seven Irishnen, and Mr. Boyman's theore on American. The tub was down and fearly fell, those stationed above at the windlass, all Irishman larmed, nay entirely bewildered, by the sudden bund out of the flames, shouted to those below at the to their lungs-fire_fire!-jump in, save yourselves, for God's sake make haste.-If those above were the Lorned, the feelings of those below may be imagin but never can be described, suffice it to say notwith ing the remonstrance of Mr. Bowman, who best once surang at the tub, and as many as could got Some clung to the rope, and others hung on the alarm or exhaustion, and Mr. James Burns stri upon a rock, was immediately killed .- The oth sere very much injured, but to what extent we h been unable to ascertain.

Mr. Bowman is entitled to a great deal of end his presence of mind, and luckily escaped uninger Had the Irishmen possessed a particle of the same fication, not the least injury would have ensued, a well was in a different building, and there was in fac real danger whatever .- Host. Gar.

Summary of Foreign Intelligence

It is said that Sir Walter Scott, barone the 5th Hussars, son and heir of the renow man of that name is an ignorant soxcomb, boasts of never having read his father's we The following stanza is ironically ascribed TEMPORA MUTANTUR The times are changed—we modern hassars. Despising cannon-shot or sabre sears, Go to a bull, all arrogance and fuse. Because a ball has never come to us.

Lord Haddington, the new Vicerov of land, on his way to Dublin observing the stones marked G. P. O., asked the meaning it, when a wag told him it was "God pres O'Connell," which much startled his lordship

The number of private bills already pres ed to the House of Commons, is 169, chiefy specting roads, railways, harbours, camis light companies, water works, markets, the The number of acres held in Ireland by Irish Protestant Church exceed the numb persons professing that creed. In England 26 prelates administer to z six millions out of a population of eleven lions.

In Ireland 18 prelates administer to a half a million, out of a population exceeding yen millions, of which six millions are Ro In England several Bishops receife

£2,000 or 3,000 a year.
In Ireland none receive less than £4,00 some 15,000:

The total quantity of profitable lan attack to the sees and glebes in Ireland, is about 6 000 acres, valued at so many pounds sterling come, and more than sufficient to supportal church establishment, while the wastes w be valuable cources for the poor. Yet in addito the above lands the English government to the above lands the English de the people the hardihood to wish to saddle the people the hardihood to wish to saddle the people the hardihood to wish to saddle the people the hardinost to th Ireland, who are thirteen-fourteenths Catholics, with an additional burden of £6

Earl Grey has completed his 71st year.
It is said that since the appearance of c ra in Europa inflammatory discases have bee more obstinate, Whyl

The Liverpool Journal makes copious extr from the "Knicketbocker" Journal of N. Y from Dunlap's Lives of American Palat and our countryman Doctor Ruschesburg "Three years in the Pacific," and also f Grant Thorburn's Men and manners in tain."

of the Boly Afliance of Divin black, hear, a fox, a door, bank, chiefly from captains as class of the community from the community from the community better enables them to community des to collections of natural history, and to hem that our lamented country man, all on the foundation of the Lyceum History of New York in 1817, elostrength as the individuals on whose end liberality he manaly relied for the supported for the least individuals. He was supported, as the names of the donors to and cabinet amply testify.

FOREIGN.

TWELVE HOPRS LATER.

Ter indebted to Capt. M'Kean, of the miel Robertson fram Bristol, for a Lonper of the evening of April 10th. It adof the progress of the overtures for the Sun Office Quarter pust Two.

Le Marquis of Lands. whire just leff the King, with whom they her closeted for some time.

Beresilt of this interview with his Majesty natranspired, but we have every reason to To that the Koble Lords have received his Spridging firther particulars come to horlels, we shall lay them before the ECOND EDITION.

Sun Ofice 7 O'clock, P. M. THE NEW ADMINISTRATION. The dy intelligence which we have been a-in left a since the published and the Marquis is that Lord Melbourne and the Marquis is that Lord melbourne and the king this afna waited upon Earl Spencer, at his restmy then a consultation was held, after which dree Noble Lords went to the Palace and Allog interview with his Majesty. From the First Edition.

Laidny, we have reason to believe, was for by the King on the resignation of the Massers. To Nobie Lart, it is said, defed as might have be a expected, the task of riganew Ad sinistration, and recommend-fareplication substitible made to Lord Melex, who was accordingly summoned to the presence. The inverview does not seem, sto have led to any satisfactory or defanthe circumstance of Lord Grav's hav tenun ere madine of Day Cray a five-bea wies in consumination with his Ma-eminourse of yesterley, it has been sup-demany, that he delip will exercise desiralizance in the lemation of a new remant. Possibly he may do so, but we melythink it likely that he will, under any extraces, venture to resume the onerous zion of Premier. His advanced age, to sotting of other considerations forbids us exertain for an instant, such a preposterous in. Many varying rumors, however, are a men the subject, but in the absence of all mistelligence, by far the most likely one which that which speculates on the recail in Melbourne Administration. Two were fewer exceptionable Mambers in this Ca. this my the country had known for years. Many fewers Reformers to the utmost extent we could must all, compared with their vicessors, were of string and intelligence. For know of noth-mer circlined to restore public trainquility than all of this ministry. The very circumstance that Contwis against the m, is an argument in their t proves at once that they were resolved to folwhich an unfinching spirit, the true principles of a however obnoxious they might be to the High and parts, and the back stairs influence by which i patry resume power—of course we present the make patry concessions to the people the state of the people the peop has, had the Tories never displaced them. The ecusioned by their dissolution has given an the to popular opinion which it is vain to think of ing-no more postponing till to-morrow what letter be done to-day. Promptitude, decision to the watchwords of whatever set of men now del to power. Every question must be met, face in at the outset, every difficulty be boldly grappled We are sick of temporizing politicans. "Tho tre out of joint," and require men of nerve an sets to act them right again.

We are fortified in these opinions by the communicahat are constantly pouring in upon us from all poten of the country. We hear—we read of but one temperature—namely, that the people will never again the building hopes to be blighted by an irresoadranced the cause of Reform by at least as Joan. Sceptics have become converts; tho m frigh ened, have taken heart and are resolvha word, events have proved to the satisfaction tirs conmunity, that so far from boing con necton trobation, Rafe orm is in reality the only sure fire against each a catastrophe. Energy is what by for in a Premier now-adays. Half measures Tailes is a haloyon season; but he who note at the rion the winds and, waves are raging about him, is prepared, not only to most with the fate of Palbut even to wreck the yessel which he has rashly hn en Monday morning last, after a abor Miss Euranarm Dynasis Barca, third are the late Hon. James Brice.

OBITUARY.

DR. R. HARWOOD TRRS his Professional Services to his listed and the Public of South Rive in winding. He can always be found a Jun, Semmer Hill, three miles from th My 91-R Towelf