THE FRENCH INDEMNITY.
The subject of the French Indemnity is still of chief importance to the American reader, there are indications that the question is, means, as has been supposed. The bill, as it the Chamber of Deputies, was brought the Peers on the 27th, by M. de Rigny, of War, in the absence of the Minisof Finance. It had been supposed by some, the amendment of the Deputies, on the mo-of Gen. Valaze, would be discontinued the Ministers, and rejected by the Peers.— on the contrary, to have been functioned by the Ministers. We in this piece, the only sketch of the proof the Peers on the question, that has

CHAMBER OF PEERS.
APRIL 27.
The Minister of War, in the absence of the Minisof Finance, presented the Bill adopted by the of Deputies for the grant of 25 millions for the of the Treaty with the United States. The was entered into some developments on the of the 4th of July, and stated, that if the rela-of France and America were to be renewed, now for the former to take the initiative.
The Ministers had, with the utmost good of their best efforts to obtain the means of the American claims, and their task They were convinced that such steps would be by America would expunge every trace of a which ought never to have existed, the Chamber of Deputies had understood the feelings of this point, and had consequently insert-in the text of the Bill a clause to which Ministers had been rejected at the suggestion of the Gov-ment, the object of it having been to subject to pub-the explanations which the French Government has right to expect from the Government of the Uni-States. Ministers were of opinion that the dignity of France should be maintained, but they at the same time thought that the satisfaction must be offered in a man-honorable to both Nations.
This is a very unsatisfactory summary, not especially when taken in connexion with the following paragraph from the Nationale of April 25, 1835.
Several Journals have announced that the American Indemnity Bill would be brought to the Chamber of Peers, without the amendment of General Valaze. Today it was presented to the Chamber, and the Minister boldly asserted that the amendment of the Deputies was the expression of his own feelings upon the subject.
He said he should have thought of paying twenty-five millions to America, without having previously obtained some satisfaction for the words and manner in which the claim was, however founded it may otherwise be.
He further asserted by the Paris opposition papers, that the amendment of G. N. Valaze and caused dissatisfaction to Mr. Livingston; and the Courier Francais asserts, as it says, upon Mr. Livingston's own authority, that the arrival of that gentleman at Washington will be the beginning of hostile measures against France.
The London papers in which we find these statements discredit them entirely.

NOVEL MODE OF CLUBBING.
WALDIE'S LIBRARY, PORT FO-LIO AND MUSEUM.
As the publications now issued from the office of the Select Circulating Library are of a highly popular cast, and of a character to be appreciated by the educated portions of the community, and to circulate every where, by concert with the proprietor of the Museum, that work, the Port Folio and Library, are offered to those who take the three on the following conditions, viz: The Museum, Port Folio and Library, if paid for in advance and addressed to the same individual whether in town or country, will be supplied for $12, thus enabling every individual to benefit by the clubbing system, without the necessity of applying to others.
Those who have made a payment for the current year to either of the works, of whatever amount, will be privileged to avail themselves of this arrangement, by paying the balance—thus

1. Those who have paid or now pay $5 for the Library, shall receive the Museum and Port Folio, the price of which separate is $9, on the payment of $7.
2. Those who have paid or now pay $6 for the Museum, shall receive the Library and Port Folio, the price of which is separately $8, on the payment of $6.
3. Those who have paid or now pay for the Port Folio, shall receive the Library and Museum on paying such a sum as will be equal to $12 on the whole.
4. The Circulating Library and Museum, will be sent to the same address on the payment of $10.

REMARKS.—The three works thus issued together, comprise a greater amount of the current literature of the age, than is issued in a periodical form from any other office in the United States, and will, the proprietor believes, with the addition of a good newspaper, supply to families all the advantages which could be furnished in a most extensive reading room in one of our Atlantic cities.
In the Library the newest and best books are regularly published in the Museum and Port Folio it has been found, by experience that every thing we could wish to copy from the entire British literary periodicals, omitting mostly the political articles, can be rapidly issued. These publications embrace so much that is desirable to be known, and are so generally perused in the best circles in America, that to be without either is to drop a link in the literary chain. They are all under the control of one mind, and therefore the reader will very rarely indeed be compelled to pay for the same matter twice, as they are independent of each other, complete in themselves, and free in general from any repetitions of the same articles.
These views the proprietor respectfully throws out for the consideration of the friends of sound and wholesome literature.

THE WASHINGTON MIRROR.
A weekly newspaper, devoted to Politics, Literature, and District Affairs, is published every Saturday at the seat of the General Government.

DR. WILLIAM HOOPER.
TWENTY-SIX numbers of this Journal have been already published; and another series is commenced with increased and increasing postage. The publisher and editor has enlarged the Mirror, from the Medium to the Super Royal size. It is printed on good paper and with new type, and will be delivered at the residence of each subscriber in Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria, on the day of publication. Price Two Dollars per annum—the first half year invariably in advance. Subscriptions and advertisements are respectively solicited. Postmasters and others reading out of the District, who will procure five subscribers and remit $5, in advance for half year's subscription, will receive a gratuitous copy of the Washington Mirror. The editor will spare no pains to obtain correct and early information of public occurrences at the seat of the Federal Government; and his editorial comments will be as much as possible, free from party or sectional bias. If the Washington Mirror should continue to be liberally patronized, the publisher will continue to make further improvements.
He respectfully announces the following new arrangements:

1st. The Washington Mirror will continue on its present size and price without any change or alteration in the ensuing volume.
2d. Country subscribers will have their papers regularly mailed on the day of publication.
3d. During the session of congress, a weekly article will be prepared and invariably appear under the head of "Sayings and Doings in Congress."
4th. During the recess the political rumors and on-dits at the seat of the General Government, will be noted for the information of distant subscribers.
5th. The names of all the subscribers to the Mirror in Washington, Georgetown and Alexandria, will be published, once every six months, in an advertising directory, with the profession and residence of each subscriber.

6th. For the information of commercial readers, a selection will be made and published every week, from the New York Journal of Commerce; also a price current, adapted to the Washington and Georgetown markets and carefully corrected for the Mirror by intelligent mercantile gentlemen. This information will be given under the head "Commerce."
7th. For the Ladies' and Literary Department of the Mirror, good original, and well selected matter will be constantly provided.
Having already nearly seven hundred subscribers in the city of Washington alone, and a very handsome subscription in Georgetown and Alexandria, the Mirror will, it is presumed, obtain a fair portion of advertising patronage.
Communications, whether containing orders or remittances, must be addressed (postage free) to W. Thompson, editor of the Mirror, Washington city, D. C.
We shall be much obliged to the editors with whom we exchange, if they will aid us in making known these arrangements and the enlargement of the Mirror.
