ANNAPOLIS Thursday, Jane 18, 1835.

"The Fourth District" was received at too late a period for insertion in to-day's paper.

ST. JOHN'S COLLEGE.

The Corner Stone of the New College, will tinued by Boyle and Taney, to be laid at 5 o'clock THIS AFTERNOON.— and Joh son for the Appellant. The services will commence with Prayer, by the Rev. Dr. Humphreys, President of the College, who will deposite in the cavity, under month, for the argument of the case of The the stone, several interesting papers and documents, bearing the date of the present period, among which will be a complete list of the sub-geribers to the funds already obtained. The ed by Joneson for the Appellant. Hon. Judge Stephen, presiding in the Court of Appeals, in the absence of the Chief Justice, leary, Alerr, of Hilleary. will then proceed to lay the Corner Stone in guad the usual form. An address on the occasion, pellar will then be delivered by John Johnson, Esq. one of the Visitors and Governors of the Col-

fill near the Coll y are relieved requested sale of the new Coll go to withremony. Accommodations wal be provided for the Ladies.

St. John's College.

Jun : 10th, 1835.

The proper place for the following would be at the head of the why are ments, but the Emperer, who has his own positive nations of the manner in which things ought to be done, requested that it should be placed in our Editorial Department, and not knowing what the conse quences of a refusal might be, we have humbly

A PROCLAMATION.

"Mikes some dance ropes and others storin a town." Whereas our ancient Palace situate at the John Scott for the Appellees.

Whereas our ancient Palace situate at the John Scott for the Appellees.

No. 42. Negro Casar vs. Nathaniel Chew. dies of the Captain and Garcia. Boggs struggled slight.

No. 42. Negro Casar vs. Nathaniel Chew. northern angle of Market-Space, has suffered seriously by the mouldering hand of time: And whereas our Cousin the President of the United States, when he secretly visited this city for the purpose of consulting us con-cerning the impudent demand of "explanation" talked of by France," did entreat us to aband in the said Palace, before our health byc ane vitiated, and our procious life endangered, by the poisonous evaporations from the pool over which it stands: And whereas it is a rul; with us to submit to the advice of our triends, where it accords with our own views and interests; Therefore,

BE IT KNOWN, That we have established our residence at the head of West-street, where our Hotel will be constantly open for the reception of every person and personage who may crave the benefit of our unparalleled art. As many have long been curious to know Cast llo, Angel Garcia and Manuel Boyga, were the source whence we derived our superiour yesterday morning summoned to prepare for or three avalanches of men and boys, so no of whom knowledge, we will now gratify them; but at- their immediate execution, agreeably to their ter we have told them, let none dare question sent nee, for having while belonging to the our Imperial word. Mark what we say—Our schooner Panda, committed piracy, by robbing professional knowledge was acquired about half the brig Mexican, of 829,000, and afterwards; a century ago, under the immediate instruction of a Celestial-the accomplished Kang-hi, Chief of their crime, by setting fire to the vessel. It Barber to "the Brother of the Sun and Moon" and not, as the envious have insinuated, und ra clamay terrestrial of modern origin. truth is great and will prevail."

bitants of West-street, by fixing our domical in , cia mode the first attempt, in the evening, by a situation which brings them directly within trying to open the veins in each arm, with a the shidow of our long pole, must elicit their frequent of a bottle, but was discovered before gratitude, and prompt them to place their needs he could offer his purpose, and a stricter guard in our Royal keeping. Their character for was alterwards mintained upon all of them durtaste assures us, that it will require but a short ing the remainder of the night, and every thing time to impart to them that fashionable appear- removed with which they might be supposed to ance, which commands the admiration of the renew any attempt upon their own lives. multitude, and which has already caused many, remarkable for their exemption from vanity, to

"It's really getting quite a bors
"To be so much admired."

A moment's attention must now be given to , whose neads, in consequence of our removal, have passed into other and less skilful to us, and they must not suppose that our fatherly affection for them his abated, because we did us, and hold a revel equal to Elizabeth's at Keome webks preceding our translation all, and particularly that portion of them, who have not placed at our feet the tribute due us.

Immortal Huggins! "if departed ghosts "Are e'er permitted to review this world," visit our Empire, and teach these, our dear fa vourites, that to make themselves honourable they should labour to be just.

While the vast earth shall on its axis move Our art will live rough Faces to improve, And hist'ry's page made brilliant by our Name, Delight mankind by setting forth our fame. Given under our hand and Seal, at our Hotel. West-street, this 18th day of June, [SEAL.] 1885.

CATON, Emperor of the Barbers.

*The subjoined is a copy of an autographic letter we have despatched to Louis Phillippe:-Brother—It is waste of breath to talk to the Americans about "explanation;" their claim on France is just, so make a bow and pay the money, or by St. Dennis, twelve months won't clare before you'll repent of your obstinacy."

There will be a meeting of the South Rive Temperance Society, at Providence Chapel, on

COURT OF APPEALS Thursday, June 11th.—Present—Stephen, Archer, Dorsey, and Chambers, Judges.
The argument of Nos. 7 and 8, The Farmors

Bank of Maryland vs. Richard Duvall, was con tinued by Boyle and Taney, for the Appellee

On motion of T. F. Bowie, for the State, the State of Maryland vs. Josius Young, et al.

Friday, June 12th .- Present as yesterday.

No. 12. Wart . Van'x. of Waring vs. Hil-Hage wer for the Appellee.

Toney in support of the motion.

No. 20. Daniel Kent's Adm'rs. vs. Thomas trembled, nor a muscle quivered. to Appellants, and Johnson for the Appellee. No. 35. William R. Adair vs. David Winche stor and others. The argument of this case vanced to the rathing of the stege, and read a brief des commenced by Johnson for the Appellant. Tuesday, June 16th .- Present as yesterday.

The argument of the above case was conded by Hinkley and Williams for the Appeland Johnson for the Appellant. Wednesday, June 17th.-Present as yester-

No. 37. The Union Bank of Maryland vs. Deborah Cochran, et al. This case was argued by Kennedy and Johnson for the Appellant, and and the platform feel without even the cracking of a

This case was argued by Brewer for the Ap- ly once after his descent, and Montenegro and Castillo pellant, and Randall for the Appellec.

The Wandering Piper,' has arrived in this city, and will exhibit his skill on the Bag-pipes to our citizens, as soon as he obtains a suitable

We have seen a letter from the Treasurer of the Louisville Charitable Society, acknowledge ing the receipt of $119, as a donation from the Piper, being the proceeds of his labour for one evening .- Cincinnati Whig.

EXECUTION OF THE SPANISH PIRATES.

Besten, June 11.

attempting to destroy the crew and all evidence is junderstood, that when the prisoners became thoroughly convicted that there was no longer any ground to hope for a further respite, they enfored into a mutual agreement to The honour, we have conferred on the inha- mit suicide on Wednesday night .- Angel Gar-

Yest rday morning, however, about 9 o'clock while the avenues of the jail resounded with the heavy steps of a host of acting marshals, and the busy note of preparation' struck solemnly upon the cars of the spectators within reach of the echo, Boyga succeeded in inflicting a deep gash on the left side of his neck, with Our separation from them was painful drawn from him scarcely n minute, before he was discovered lying on his pallet, with a peculiar trembling of knees, which induced the offinot, before we left them, assemble them about cers to examine if any thing had suddenly hapus, and hold a revel equal to Elizabeth's at Kenilworth. The peculiar situation of things for blood, and nearly insensible; medical aid was at hand, and the wound was it it impossible for us to indulge our kindness thus up, but Boyga, who had fainted from loss of far toward them. We shall long remember them blood, never revived again. Two Catholic cler. up, but Boyga, who had fainted from loss of gymen the Rev. Mr. Varella a Spanish gentlenan, and pastor of the Spanish congregation at New York, and the Rev. Mr. Curtin, of this ity, were in close attendance upon the prisoners during the whole morning; and at a quarte past ten, under the escort of the Marshal and his deputies, accompanied them to the gallows, crected on an insulated angle of land in the rear of the jail.

When the procession arrived at the foot of the ladder, leading up to the platform of the gallove, the Rev. Mr. Varella, looking directly at an attack, they proceeded to the spot and de-Captain Gibert, said—Spaniards, ascend to hea-ven.' Gibert mounted with a quick step, and was followed by his comrades at a more modernte pace, but without the least perceptible indi cation of hesitancy. Boyga, unconscious of his situation and destiny, was carried up in a chair, and seated beneath the rope prepared for him. Gibert, Montenegro, Garcia, and Castillo, all a while, but when a rush was made upon the Gibert, Montenegro, Garcia, and Castillo, all a while, but when a rush was made upon the smiled subduedly as they took their appointed authorities, nearly all of them gave way and tations on the platform. Judging only from Gibert's air, carriage, and unembarrassed eye, as he glanced at the surrounding multitude, and surreyed the mechanism of his shameful death, he might we well been mistaken for an officer in

10 mg

A. M. when it is expected that an address will the exception of repeating his prayers after the before the mob had generally dispersed to their the exception of repeating his prayers after the before the mob had generally dispersed to their the exception of repeating his prayers after the before the mob had generally dispersed to their before the mob had generally dispersed to the mob had generally dispersed to the mob had generally dispersed to their before the mob had generally dispersed to the mob had generally disper scertained his position on the stage, he left it, and passing over to the spot where the apparently lifeless Boyga was scatted on the chair, he bent over his shoulder and kissed him very affectionately. He then resumed his station, but occasionally turned round to Mr. Peyton the interpreter, and the clergymen.

Addressing his followers; he said—Boys, we are going to die; but let us be firm, for we are innocent.' To Mr. Peyton, romoving his linen collar, and handing it to him, he said-This, is all I have to part with-take it as a keepsake. I die innocent, but I'll die like a noble Spaniard. Good bye, brother, we die in the hope of ing you in heaven.' Montenegro and Garcia, though exhibiting no terror, vociferated their innocence exclaiming—Americans, we are not and Major Bolles has tendered the services of culpuble—we are innocent; but we forgive all the Governor's Foot Guards to the Sheriff, who This case was ar- who have injured us.' Castillo addressed him-Bowie and Johnson, for the Ap- self to an individual, whom he recognized in the front rank of the officers below the stage, and Sheriff upon Captain Grey's Company of light June (3th.—Present as yesterday. said—Adicu my friend—I shall see you in hea-douday, June 15ta. - Present as on Satur- cution, and stated that De Soto was respited for 60 days, The argument of No. 13, was concluded by countenance of each; but not an eye quailed, nor a limb This case was argued by Brewer for to be drawn over Gibert's face the Spanish Priest fervently embraced him, and during the operation of covering the face of the others, the Rev. Mr. Curtin adcitizens of America assembled, setting forth that as at the trail they had declared their innocence, so they did Ludlow, is no other than the Rev. Mr. Weems,' now continue to do so. Boyga's cap and rope were adjusted. ... he sat, supported by an officer, in the chair, of sundry offences against the Commonwealth; which was so placed as to fall with the drop. At a quar-ter before cloven, after every preparation was completed, and while they were rejeating to themselves, in scancely audible tones, to ir prayers, Deputy Mirshal Bass sudhinge. In falling, Boyga's chair struck ag inst the bo but little; Captain G. did not die quite so éasily, the rope being placed behind his neck. Garcia struggled most and longest-about three minutes. After being susper ded 39 minutes, the physicians in attendance pronoun ed them dead, and they were cut down, and placed in black coffins in readiness in the yard.

After the execution was over, Ruiz, confined in his cell, attracted considerable attention, by his maniac shouts and singing. At one time, holding up a piece of blanket, stained with Boyga's blood, he gave utterance to his ravings in a sort of recitative, the burden of which was-"This is the red flag my companions died

The crowd assembled on this occasion is estimated at from 20,000 to 30,000; and occupied every point that afforded the least opportunity for witnessing the execu-Pursuant to previous arrangement, Captian tion. The roofs of a couple of sheds, contiguous to the Don Pedro Gibert, and Juan Montenegro, Manuel july and, gave way beneath the pressure of the numbers who had scated themselves on them, and there were two were considerably injured. The sensation created by ed by the multitude during the whole scene. One of the proprietors has preferred a verbal claim against the U. S. Marshal, for damages done by the crowd to his

Some hundred or two, forgetful of the approach of the rising tide, posted themselves, quite early on the foundation of a branch of the Lowell Rail Road; and unable to retreat as the crowd on shore increased in density, they were compelled to retain their position, till the flow ing tide came up even above their knees. About a dozen were hemmed into a corner up to their happened to them.

The Spanish Consul having requested that the bodies might not be given to the Faculty, they were interred last night, under the personal direction of Marshal Sibley, in the Catholic burial ground at Charlestown.

There being no murder committed with the piracy, the laws of the United States do not authorise the court to order the bodies to be given to the surgeons for dissection.

which may be implicitly relied on, and who had it direct from Perez, that when Garcia was ordered on board of the Mariana have no dered on board of the Mariana have needed to the Mari dered on board of the Mexican, he asked De Soto, if the crew were to be despatched.' De Soto replied—No; do not touch a hair of their heads—for human life is sweet.' To this Garcia simply replied-Dead cats don't mew.'

Percz also said that Montenegro refused to go on board the Mexican till Capt. Gibert threat-

ANOTHER RIOT.

HARTFORD, June 11th.
Last night a mob assembled in Knox's Landng at the foot of Kilbours street, threatening to demolish building [formerly a tavern stand] occupied by several families of blacks; but as some defence was anticipated and the mob learning that two buildings up in Sinking Fund had been recated during the day by the occupants, stroyed both of them. There were from 500 to 1000 persons present, but not more than 20 to

The sheriff with his posse comitatus and several watchmen arrived in the midst of it, and by vigorous exertions kept the mob at check for Deputies.

30 actively engaged in the work of destruc-

ed. With not able to get together any efficient n

It certainly was very strange conduct or part of the civil authorities, after the detion of the building the night previous, that they did not take more thorough precautions to pre-vent a recurrence of a similar scene, when they nust have known from rumors current during the day, that a great many were somewhat ex-asperated against the blacks, and must have also anticipated that an attack would be made up-on the building where the mob first assembled or upon some others.

Measures to prevent any further outrages in contemplation which will be effective. The Common Council meet this day, at 4 o'clock; will assemble at the City Hall this evening early. A requisition is also to be made by the

The young man wounded on Tuesday evenhave the Americans to think I am guilty, [culing, remains in the same critical situation. Ha have the Americans to think I am guilty, [culing, remains in the same critical situation. Ha have the Americans to think I am guilty, [culing, remains in the same critical situation. Ha have the Americans to think I am guilty, [culing, remains in the same critical situation. Ha was not engaged in the affray, but had been on an errand, and when passing by, stopped on fired. It was a narrow chance for his life. The ing a very deep wound. Had the position of As the cap was about his body varied but one inch, the shot must have

> The Boston Atlas sales that the young man recently detected in several extensive forgeries behaved exemplary (while in confinement,) was afterwards pardoned and released by the Go-

In Russell county, Alabama, on the 13th ult. Mr. William Fannin, a young gentleman of Columbus, Georgia, was shot dead by an Indian, who rifled his pockets and valise .- Ken'ucky

FORLIGA.

FRANCE. Paris advices are to the 6th of May. ind mnity Bill had not yet passed the Chamber of Peers. The Courier Français announces the departure of Mr. Livingston, leaving Mr. Baron, Chief Secretary of the Embassay, as Charge des Affaires. If, it is added, the Cham-Charge des Affaires. ber of Peers should adopt the Bill with the amendment to it by the Deputies—this agent will depart in his turn, unless before that time he should receive other instructions. Such is the present state of the relations between France

Diplomatique Corps .- Nearly all the French ambassadors are recalled from the respective courts at which they lately represented the ma-jesty of France. Marshal Maison from Peters. burg, is at Paris, to take office, M. Serrurrier to explain the late transactions at Washington; M. Latour Maubourg, from Rome; Count St. Aulaire, from Vienna; and the Duke Montebello, from Stockholm, probably to assist in the Chamber of cord, as far as the confusion would permit us to per Peers at the trials of the state prisoners; the late that they would persist in urging their right to diministers at Stutg and Sardinia are also retheir own counsel. The Procurour General than ministers at Stutg .rd and Sardinia are also re-

It will be seen that the great state trials, for which we have so long heard the note of pre-The Paris prisoners were all decently dressed, tri-colored cockade. Amongst the most conspicuous were Messrs. Marat, Guinarn, Beaumount, Lebon, Cavaignac, Captain Kersausia, &c. The Lyons prisoners were more modestly, but at the same time decently attired; them wearing blue blouses and glazed hats, with cockades. All appeared in high spirits, and deported themselves in the most becoming man-

The military preparations were upon such large and imposing scale, that we hardly anticisigned the protest made by the battalion of the 5th Legion, against being called upon to do duty at the Court of Peers.

A proposition for appropriating nearly 20 million francs to canals, &c. in France, is be-fore the Chamber of Deputies.

Letters from Havre, May 5th state, that Mr. Livingston has embarked on board the Constitution, which sailed that morning for the United States.—So that she may be hourly expected.

The Havre Journal states that the American frigate Constitution had arrived in the roadstead on her return from Cherbourg, and that Commo dore Elliott and several of the officers had land ed in the pilot-boat. The Constitution continued in the photocour. And constitution of the wind ed under sail about four leagues off, the wind being light and northerly. ...It was expected being light and northerly. It was expected that Mr. Livingston and his family would embark on the following day, and immediately make sail for the U. States. It is hinted in the Messager that an amendment in the law on the subject of the American treaty is to be proposed in the Chamber of Peers by some friend of the Government, with a view to its relief from the consequences of the demand for satisfaction in. troduced by General Valaze in the Chamber of

The French Ministry had been defeated on

OHAMBER OF PERS.

'Trial of the Accused of April.

The Paris papers are chiefly occupied he proceedings in the Court of Pers. are all still of a preliminary nature, tiring to deliberate on the question, what counsel, not members of the bar, should be lowed to conduct the defence of individual se-

"The Court having taken into considerat the demand of the prisoners Beaune, Mailles and others, that they might be permitted to re tain as their counsel Messrs. Voyet d'Arges son, Addry de Puyravenn, and others, who are neither barristers nor attorneys; having confidered the 295th article of the code of criminal instruction; having heard the conclusions of the l'rocureur-General; and sceing that the President of the Court has made a just and legitima use of the discretionary power conferred on his by the 295th article of the code; declares the there is no room for the admission of the prisoners' demand."

Several of the accused insisted on the wives, isters and other female relatives bein admitted into Court during the trial. The land of the region treatment and the region treatment and the region treatment and the region treatment. sident replied, that women were never admit-to be present in the Chamber of Peers when a ting as a court of justice. After the prace-had been ordered to be withdrawn, op of the from Lyons demanded that freedom of comnication should be allowed between his town men and their fellow-prisoners of Luneville, S Etienne, Paris, and other places, on which the President rose, put on his hat, and announce that the audience was for that day at an end. SECOND DAY'S SITTING, May 6 -At 12 o'clock t prisoners were placed at the bar, and at 20 minutes at 12 o'clock, the Pecys entered and took their sets, the Ministers' box were the Duke de Broglie, and I Thiers, Minister of the Interior. After the list of t Peers had been called over, several of the prisoners, mong the most persevering of whom where Cavage and Martin, attempted to address the court on their re and Nortin, attempted understand event on the hold of phoosing their counsel from persons whether belo-ing to the bar or not, a question which the Court of decided in the negative on the preceding day. Mes Cavaignac and Martin persisted in urging their day in which they were encouraged and supported by-unanimous adhesion of their fellow prisoners, wher up, and with loud cries and violent gestures, decla hat they all persisted in the claim. (Here the load Procureur-General, and the cries of the latter to municipal guards, a file of whom was phood letters ery two files of prisoners, to repress the tumult, proed a scene of confusion and violence of a character foreign to the unimpassioned solemnity that our pervade a court of justice.

When this scene of confusion had somewhat subsi the Procureur General informed the prisoners, the ase any of them should interrupt the proces the Court by peristing in urging a clam which Court had already decided against, he would ea on the Court to sentence them to the fines and impri-ment specified by the criminal code against prisoners judges. To this declaration the prisoners answer starting up simultaneously, and protesting with or upon the Cefirt to pronounce against the pri Cavaignac, he being the most energetic in his pro tions, from one month to two years' imprisonment, a fine not exceeding 500 france, the penalty profit the criminal code for such cases. The Peers imp and most of them were small glazed caps, with ouncil Chamber, to deliberate on the application Procureur General. At the same moment that Court retired, the Ministers the Duke de Broglis as Thiers withdrew from their box.

At half-past 2 o'clock, when our reporter quite roccedings had not been resumed, the Peers bein n the Council Chamber.

It is said, however, that the Court has sentent aignac to two years imprisonment.

Our readers will resollect that, on the annirer t. Philip, last year, some French segmen on box Suffrein ship of the line were accidently killed, and rs disabled, on firing a salute from the American fr the United States. The day previous to the depa of Mr. Livingston, from Paris for Havre, that gen signed a convention with the Duke de Broglis, by in annual pension of 120 dollars was seen during life to each of the sufferers, and a like sa rid, and the 2d of May from Bayonna, On the 26th the whole of the rayalist forces were contrated around Pampeluna under El Pastery Zu carreguy, the Carlist General, was on the same of stains of Andia, within three leagues Queen's troops, with twelve battalions, and an er ment was drily expected. The report of the esta Bergara, is shown to be entirely without found General Valdex arrived at Vittoria on the 17th

SPAIN.

After this date the accounts are exceedingly and contradictory. It is stated that on the 21st, eral Valdez was attacked by Zamalacarreguy and for retreat on Arranache; that on the next day (the 23 Carlists attacked him again, and that, after hard ing, which lasted that and the next two days, was again compelled to retreat in disorder, taking gain compelled to retreat in disorder, taking ion of Estella, but that Zumalacarregul succi-tion him off in the attempt, and compelled h in cutting him off in the attempt, and compelled his take refuge among the heights of Eraul. The lother Royalists is said to have been very grant-more 1000 killed and 600 prisoners—all their bagger horses, and upwards of 3000 muskets. The residential as almost, if not entirally fast is the lof the royalests. Lord Eliof, the English mediator. with Don Carlos at Segura while the fought.

34 Another persons states that Valler and the main of his ferom ware not in the organization that he succeeded in surprising the main body of the Car

Tern

dersers

Tick

June hard set that Zaundsearregy had been that Zaundsearregy had that Zaundsearregy had the that Zaundsearregy had the set of the se est of Marlinez de la Rosa from the Min hearing ers from Madrid, dated 29th of transac to take place very soon. Count Court. also certain to take place very soon. Count along the probably by the mission of the successor. The mission of the successor. The mission of the successor of the probably by the Mission of the french papers, as the only terms is son of the french papers, as the only terms is small of the french papers, as the only terms is said to have expressed to Lord the french papers and to the contestion of the french papers and to the contestion. se to put an end to the contests dres abdinate the throne m favor of his b rould lake the name of Charles VI. the mary to quit Spain as soon as Queen Chris-and here the kingdom.

is permits the immediate betrothing of his eldost ate Princess Isabella.

the requires the debts contracted and conse 18 praised fall and entire amnesty for political

Is gonises the immediate convocation of the an-icute, to revise and, give a legitimate and defi-senting to all acts since the neath of Ferdinaud I she be will not recognize, because they emanate he is ilegitimate authority.

OTHE VOTERS OF ANNE ARUN DEL COUNTY. offer myself to your considera

a Cardidate to represent Anne Arundel y in the next General Assembly. BARZILLAI MARRIOTT.

irl 16, 1935.

NOTICE.

TERE will be a meeting of the Corporabearing the city of Annapolis on the 20th, G. H. DUVALL, Clk. Corp.

Famers Bank of Maryland,

Annapolis. June 17, 1835. I compliance with the Charter of the Fartast thereto, establishing a Brunch there-tal faderick Town, Notice is hereby giv-s de Stockholders on the Western Shore, the dection will be held at the Banking has in the City of Annapolis on the first ONDAY in Augustinext, between the hours Ho'clock, A. My and 3 P. M. for the pose of thuosing from amongst the Stock that nine Directors for the Branch

By order, SAM. MAYNARD, Cash.

rne II - Ger. R
IF Gizette, and American, Balt. will the above Isw6w.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

Il virue of a decree from the Court of Cancery, the subscriber, as Trustee, lefe at Public Sale on FRIDAY the 17th fiel Jaly next, if fair, if not the first fair ty hereiler, (Sunday excepted) on the pre-matthe upper end of Anne Arundel coun-ty, there John Welch formerly resided, and left wated by Nicholas Welch, deceased, at a Tract of Land called "John's Hurput of "Additional Defence," and part the the Skinner," containing in the

150 ACRES

had which is subject to the widow's dower. In at the same time and place, a Lot in the large of Lisbon, containing

TERMS OF SALES—A credi A credit of twelve and of Saleto the purchaser giving had, with security, to? the payment of the purchase modey, with interest from the day tale. Sale to compence at three o'clock the afternoon, 103HUA WARFIELD (of Ben.) Trustee.

MINOR IS HEREBY GIVEN, the subscriber math obtained from the sephens court of St. Mary's county, Marylad, letters of authin, on the permutate at Sachariah Peacock late of said maty, deceased. All persons having claims must be estate of said deceased, are herewined to exhibit the same, with the vouch-The say of January next, they may otherwise is two be excluded from all benefit of the selection. Given under dry hand this 10th first I have

Join S. PEACOCK, Adm'r. Itae 18.-- 4w.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN, HAT the subscriber hath obtained from the orphans court of St. Mary's county, Maryland, letters of administration on the mail state of Joseph L. Williams, late hid creaty, decased. All persons havelains against the said deceased are here-youned to exhibit the same, with the youthin thereof, to the subscriber, at or before the day of lane next, they may otherwise by day of Just next, they may otherwise by we excluded from all benefit of the said that. Here abder my hand this 10th day I lun 1835.

10. SPALBING, Adm'r.

Jan 18-19. L