WHIG TRICKS!

It is not forgotten how the whole state heated, deceived, and led astray by the W and Nullifying press, in regard to the resu he elections last year. The republican ; hen had no paper at the seat of governing o expose the misrepresentations of the on Republicans in other states, and many of n honest citizens, were led astray in re to the party complexion of our legislature rue political character of the state. The game is now attempted to be re-enacted he Nullifying Whig press, when they know letection and discomfiture must follow close n the heels of their mis-statement.

The 'Register' of Tuesday gives in a rec lation of members elected from 11 countie I town, 21 for Van Euren and 13 for W out it omits Wayne and Bertie, from ea which three Jackson members were elected outs down three Whig members from the y of Washington, from which not a man d is named.

Such are the devices by which, coupled a childish glorification, for having gained in Pitt, Bertic, and Wayne,) the Whig Na cation papers desperately strive to induen elections which take place this day. But w the returns of the whole state shall been received, if they do not feel ashame themselves, their party must be ashaned them, for such silly attempts to gull the
