THE SACRED CLASSICS

CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY. With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD CATERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DE LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

THE SACRED CLASSICS, OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY. With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

THE REV. RICH'D. CATERMOLE, B. D. AND THE REV. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

Our country is so rich in England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation, while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The series of these works has been happily preserved, and is now being reissued with the addition of a new and interesting series of works, which cannot fail to afford the same guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

It is intended to commence in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the temporal interests of individuals or to the moral and well-being of society.

These views the proprietor respectfully throws out for the consideration of the friends of sound and wholesome literature.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN

That an Election will be held at the Assembly Room on MONDAY the 5th day of October next for the purpose of electing Two Delegates from this city to the next General Assembly of this State and also Two Representatives for the Fourth Congressional District in this State in the Congress of the United States.

By order, SAM. MAYNARD, Cash. Sept. 17-1854

NOVEL MODE OF CLUBBING: WALDIE'S LIBRARY, PORT FOLIO AND MUSEUM.

A B the publications now issued from the office of the Select Circulating Library are of a highly popular class, and of a character to be appreciated by the educated portions of the community, and to circulate every where, by concert with the proprietor of the Museum, that work, the Port Folio and Library, are offered to those who take the three on the following conditions, viz.

- 1. Those who have paid or now pay $5 for the Library, shall receive the Museum and Port Folio, the price of which separate is $9, on the payment of $7.
- 2. Those who have paid or now pay $6 for the Museum, shall receive the Library and Port Folio, the price of which is separately $8, on the payment of $6.
- 3. Those who have paid or now pay for the Port Folio, shall receive the Library and Museum on paying such a sum as will be equal to $12 on the whole.
- 4. The Circulating Library and Museum, will be sent, to the same address on the payment of $10.

REMARKS.—The three works thus issued together, comprise a greater amount of the current literature of the age, than is issued in a periodical form from any other office in the United States, and will, the proprietor believes, with the addition of a good newspaper, supply to families all the advantages which could be furnished in a most excellent reading room in one of our Atlantic Cities. In the Library the newest and best books are regularly published in the Museum and Port Folio it has been found by experience that every thing we could wish to copy from the entire British literary periodicals, omitting mostly the political articles, can be rapidly issued. These publications embrace so much that is desirable to be known, and are so generally perused in the best circles in America, that to be without either is to drop a link in the literary chain. They are all under the control of one mind, and therefore the reader will very rarely indeed be compelled to pay for the same matter twice, as they are independent of each other, complete in themselves, and free in general from any repetitions of the same articles.

ADAM WALDIE, 207 Chesnut-street, Philad.

PROSPECTUS

THE undersigned propose to issue the first number of a new series of the EXTRA GLOBE, on Monday, the 25th of May next, and to publish it weekly for six months, making twenty-six numbers, the last to contain an Index to the whole. It will be printed upon fine double royal paper, made up in quarto form, like the Extra and Congressional Globe published by us last year. The 26 numbers will make 416 quarto royal pages.

It will contain the principal original articles of the Daily and Semi-Weekly Globes, notices of the public meetings, the elections, and public proceedings in every state in the Union, in relation to the canvass for the next Presidency—a contest which the indications of the present year will go far to decide.

The first number will contain the Proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, to be held at Baltimore on the 30th of next month. An excellent Reporter has already been engaged to report the Proceedings of the Convention, and the Speeches which may be made on the occasion.

We request the favour of those friends to whom this Prospectus may be sent, to circulate it, for the purpose of obtaining subscribers. A copy of the work will be sent to the newspapers that copy this Prospectus.

TERMS.—One dollar per copy, in advance. Fifteen copies will be furnished for Ten Dollars, and so on in proportion.

THE SACRED CLASSICS

CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY. With an original introductory essay to each author. Edited by RICHARD CATERMOLE, B. D. and the Rev. HENRY STEBBING, M. A.

UNIFORM IN SIZE WITH DE LARDNER'S CYCLOPEDIA, THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, &c.

THE SACRED CLASSICS, OR, CABINET LIBRARY OF DIVINITY. With an original Introductory Essay to each Author.

Our country is so rich in England in Sacred Literature. Her greatest Poets and Philosophers have shared with her Divines in setting forth and establishing the truths of Revelation, while her Divines have been distinguished alike by the copiousness and the depth of their learning.

The series of these works has been happily preserved, and is now being reissued with the addition of a new and interesting series of works, which cannot fail to afford the same guidance and support in the highest exercises of his faculties, and under every vicissitude of life.

It is intended to commence in this collection, the best works of all the most celebrated writers, whose labours have been devoted to the elucidation and practical enforcement of the principles of revealed truth, whether in their application to the temporal interests of individuals or to the moral and well-being of society.

These views the proprietor respectfully throws out for the consideration of the friends of sound and wholesome literature.
